

(1) In which of these athletic events has Great Britain held both the men's and women's world records: discus, hammer or javelin?

Javelin.

(2) October Revolution Island belongs to which country?

Russia.

(3) The name of what physical condition comes from the Ancient Greek word for 'fox': alopecia, sciatica or asthma?

Alopecia.

(4) Who was the first English football player to be knighted?

Stanley Matthews.

(5) Which widowed Shakespearean queen marries her brother-in-law: Gertrude, Catherine of Valois or Titania?

Gertrude. (Hamlet's mother)

(6) What was Fort House in Broadstairs renamed after the death of Charles Dickens?

Bleak House.

(7) "Shut up and deal" is the final line in which classic '60s film: The Apartment, The Graduate or Breakfast at Tiffany's?

The Apartment.

(8) In what decade was the first 'Lassie' film made?

1940s.

(9) The Brazilian drink cachaç is made from the fermented juice of what: pineapple, grape or sugar cane?

Sugar cane.

(10) The TV series Versailles was about which French king?

Louis XIV.

- (11) Noted for its tea, which of these is an Indian city whose name comes from the Tibetan for 'place of the thunderbolt': Cachar, Darjeeling or Manipur?
Darjeeling.
- (12) The surname of which Wimbledon champion is also the name of an alien race in Star Trek?
Borg.
- (13) Multiply by nine, divide by five, and add thirty-two is the formula for what conversion: Kelvin to Celsius, Celsius to Fahrenheit or Fahrenheit to Kelvin?
Celsius to Fahrenheit.
- (14) Which dance craze inspired the 'Jerk', the 'Pony', the 'Watusi' and the 'Mashed Potato'?
The Twist.
- (15) What Latin phrase means 'sound mind': magnum opus, mea culpa or mens sana?
Mens sana.
- (16) In what decade did Malta gain independence?
1960s.
- (17) In Hinduism, which god is the father of Ganesh: Rama, Shiva or Krishna?
Shiva.
- (18) In the Bible, who was the brother of Moses?
Aaron.
- (19) What are newborn crickets called: graces, nymphs or muses?
Nymphs.
- (20) Name the ten London Underground stations with 'City', 'Town' or 'Square' in their name? (No DLR, Overground or Mainline stations unless served by an Underground station)
Acton Town, Camden Town, Canning Town, Euston Square, Kentish Town, Leicester Square, Russell Square, Sloane Square, Sudbury Town & White City.

(21) On what continent are the Carpathian Mountains?

Europe.

(22) In what sport can a penalty corner be awarded?

Hockey.

(23) The leaf of what tree is the symbol of the National Trust?

Oak.

(24) Which of the Nobel gasses has the lowest density?

Helium.

(25) Up to 2017, how many films were there in 'The Terminator' franchise?

Five.

(26) In what decade were Manchester United last relegated from top-flight football?

1970s.

(27) What Isle of Mann town shares its name with a 19th century Prime Minister?

Peel.

(28) Davis Love III is a famous name in what sport?

Golf.

(29) In the song, what was the last animal that the old lady swallows?

Horse.

(30) Which city in the US state of Louisiana is nicknamed 'The Big Easy'?

New Orleans.

- (31) Who is the only driver ever to have held the Formula One and US Indy car titles at the same time: Emerson Fittipaldi, Mario Andretti or Nigel Mansell?
Nigel Mansell.
- (32) Who was England manager during Euro 96?
Terry Venables.
- (33) What was the first 'For Dummies' guide to be published: DOS for Dummies, OS X Mountain Lion or Windows for Dummies?
DOS for Dummies.
- (34) What was the Labour Party's emblem before the red rose?
Red flag.
- (35) Kiki Håkansson, the winner of the first Miss World contest in 1951, represented what country: Sweden, Norway or Finland?
Sweden.
- (36) What branch of the Royal Navy is abbreviated to FAA?
Fleet Air Arm.
- (37) Which of these police ranks is the highest: Chief Inspector, Superintendent or Sergeant?
Superintendent.
- (38) What was the name of the US racehorse who won a celebrated race against War Admiral in 1938?
Sea Biscuit.
- (39) The Crab & Winkle Line was a railway that ran from Canterbury to what coastal town, famous for its seafood: Margate, Whitstable or Folkestone?
Whitstable.
- (40) Of the fourteen completed novels published by Charles Dickens in his lifetime, name the ten that contain the letter 'O' at least once in their title? (No Christmas books such as A Christmas Carol)
A Tale of Two Cities, Bleak House, David Copperfield, Dombey and Son, Great Expectations, Little Dorrit, Nicholas Nickleby, Oliver Twist, Our Mutual Friend & The Old Curiosity Shop.