

(1) The United Nations HQ in New York overlooks what body of water: East River, Hudson River or Atlantic Ocean?

East River.

(2) What position in a basketball team is abbreviated to 'SG'?

Shooting Guard.

(3) The markhor is a wild species of what animal: goat, sheep or pig?

Goat.

(4) Who was the first football manager to receive a knighthood?

Sir Alf Ramsey.

(5) Who was Tom Simmonite's father in the sitcom 'Last of the Summer Wine': Clegg, Foggy or Compo?

Compo.

(6) In legend, Pygmalion was king of what island?

Cyprus.

(7) Bibendum is the name of which advertising mascot: Energizer Bunny, Jolly Green Giant or Michelin Man?

Michelin Man.

(8) Who did Pat Garrett call "a noted desperado of the southwest"?

Billy the Kid.

(9) In ancient Greece, what was an 'agora': marketplace, library or royal residence?

Marketplace.

(10) Kupffer cells are found in which organ in the body?

Liver.

(11) Found in Australia and New Guinea, what is a quoll: fish, bird or marsupial?

Marsupial.

(12) Elizabeth I is buried at Westminster Abbey on top of which previous monarch?

Mary I.

(13) Which of these Japanese noodles is traditionally the thickest: soba, ramen or udon?

Udon.

(14) What is the more common name for muriatic acid?

Hydrochloric acid.

(15) Queen Maud of Norway was the daughter of which British monarch: George III, James II or Edward VII?

Edward VII.

(16) Name the three European capital cities that begin with the letter R'?

Rome, Reykjavik and Riga.

(17) In heraldry, which of these does the word 'tincture' refer to: colour, shape or size?

Colour.

(18) By what name do we better know the Eurofighter aircraft that entered service in 2003?

Typhoon.

(19) Which of these creatures was NOT the subject of a poem by Scotsman Robert Burns: grouse, louse or mouse?

Grouse.

(20) Name the first ten US states alphabetically (Letters A to G inclusive)?

Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida & Georgia.

(21) Comté is a cheese from what European country?

France.

(22) What UNESCO World Heritage site opened in New South Wales in 1973?

Sydney Opera House.

(23) San Quentin is the oldest prison in what US state?

California.

(24) What royal palace in London has 21 towers?

Tower of London.

(25) What Lin-Manuel Miranda musical depicts the American War of Independence?

Hamilton.

(26) In 2019, scientists in Wisconsin built a mini version of what star?

Sun.

(27) What motorway starts in London and ends at Hook Moor?

M1.

(28) What sport is played by the Glasgow Warriors?

Rugby Union.

(29) Who was the first non-royal female to appear on a British bank note?

Florence Nightingale.

(30) Who was the first Scotsman to play Dr Who?

Sylvester McCoy.

- (31) St Brigit of Ireland is said to have performed what miracle: parted the Irish Sea, walked on the River Liffey or turned water into beer?
Turned water into beer.
- (32) The Giant's Causeway in Northern Ireland is made of what volcanic rock?
Basalt. (Lava is not accepted)
- (33) What was the only Midlands team represented on the pitch at the 1966 FIFA World Cup Final: Birmingham City, Leicester City or Stoke City?
Leicester City. (Gordon Banks)
- (34) In Olympic eventing, what discipline immediately follows dressage?
Cross country.
- (35) A person described as 'cadaverous' is extremely what: chubby & tanned, thin & pale or gullible & jolly?
Thin and pale.
- (36) Humphrey Bogart played the private detective Sam Spade in what 1941 film?
Maltase Falcon.
- (37) Which of these actors did NOT help form the United Artists Corporation in 1919: Douglas Fairbanks, Charlie Chaplin or Buster Keaton?
Buster Keaton.
- (38) Which British female singer had a hit with 'Nobody's Perfect'?
Jessie J.
- (39) In opera, which ancient queen's lament begins: "When I am laid in earth": Boudicca, Cleopatra or Dido?
Dido.
- (40) Name the ten rooms in 'Cluedo' as they appear on the board?
Kitchen, Ballroom, Conservatory, Billiard Room, Library, Study, Hall, Lounge, Dining Room & Cellar.