

- (1) What plant is shown on the pattern of a custard cream biscuit: fern, daisy or tulip?
Fern.
- (2) Who hosted the 1990s TV game show 'Man O Man'?
Chris Tarrant.
- (3) What is the width of each lane in an Olympic swimming pool: 1.5m, 2m or 2.5m?
2.5 metres.
- (4) An illegal boxing punch to the back of head is named after which animal?
Rabbit.
- (5) The book 'Ten Days That Shook the World' is about what historical event: Cuban missile crisis, Russian Revolution or Suez crisis?
Russian Revolution.
- (6) In Somerset, the Cheddar pink is the county what...?
Flower.
- (7) Which Rolling Stone song did Donald Trump walk out to at his inauguration concert: Start Me Up, Heart of Stone or Sympathy for the Devil?
Heart of Stone.
- (8) Europa Point lighthouse is on which British overseas territory?
Gibraltar.
- (9) Which of these authors was born first: Tolkien, Tolstoy or Twain?
Tolstoy.
- (10) What is the feature race of the first day of the Epsom Derby meeting?
The Oaks.

- (11) What cut of lamb is the eye of the lion with all the fat removed: cannon, shank or rack?
Cannon.
- (12) What South American country is the most successful in the 'Big Four' beauty pageants?
Venezuela.
- (13) Which of these words can only be played using a blank square in the UK game of Scrabble: FIFE, KICK or VALVE?
KICK.
- (14) What British island is divided into areas called sheadings?
Isle of Man.
- (15) Until 1806, what was the capital of the Holy Roman Empire: Vienna, Prague or Frankfurt?
Vienna.
- (16) What Italian car manufacture has produced models called the Alpha, Beta and Gamma?
Lancia.
- (17) An earthquake at magnitude five on the Richter Scale is how many times more powerful than one at magnitude four: 2, 5 or 10?
Ten.
- (18) Clancy and Ralph are father and son in what long-running US TV series?
The Simpsons.
- (19) According to an old superstition, it's unlucky to leave what item on a bed: shoes, umbrella or hat?
Hat.
- (20) Name the last ten different prime ministers of the UK with the letter 'L' in their surname?
Tony Blair, James Callaghan, Harold Wilson, Alec Douglas-Home, Harold Macmillan, Winston Churchill, Clement Atlee, Neville Chamberlain, Stanley Baldwin & Ramsay MacDonald.

(21) Which bodily secretion has the technical name cerumen?

Earwax.

(22) When Lee Marvin got to number one in 1970 with the song 'I was Born Under a Wandering Star' from 'Paint Your Wagon', which other actor was on the B side singing 'I Talk to the Trees'?

Clint Eastwood.

(23) What name is given to the relatively mild contractions felt in the second and third trimester of pregnancy, and sometimes called practice contractions?

Braxton Hicks.

(24) How many classifications of hepatitis are there?

5.

(25) In Formula 1, if a driver is shown a blue flag, what must he do?

Let the car behind him pass.

(26) Which UK airport has the code ABZ?

Aberdeen.

(27) The National Space Centre was opened in 2001 in which British city?

Leicester.

(28) What name is given to edible offal and a word that informally means nonsense?

Tripe.

(29) Galloping Home by Dennis King was the theme tune to which 1970s TV series?

Black Beauty.

(30) What name is given to a champagne or wine bottle that holds 1.5 litres?

Magnum.

- (31) Which of these songs has NOT been a Number One in the UK: You Don't Know, You Don't Know Me or If You Don't Know Me By Now?
If You Don't Know Me By Now.
- (32) What is Europe's tallest active volcano?
Etna.
- (33) 'Aibohphobia' is the fear of what: homework, equations or palindromes?
Palindromes.
- (34) In 2017, who stepped down as leader of the Lib Dems?
Tim Farron.
- (35) The Battle of Camden took place during which war: US War of Independence, English Civil War or One Hundred Years War?
US War of Independence.
- (36) Bodrum Castle is located in what Mediterranean country?
Turkey.
- (37) In the human body something interosseous is situated between what: the bones, the muscles or the lungs?
Bones.
- (38) 'My very earnest mother just served us nachos' is a mnemonic to remember what?
Planets.
- (39) The purlicue is the space between which body parts: forefinger and thumb, lip and nose or collarbone and throat?
Forefinger and thumb.
- (40) Name the ten countries with the most native Spanish speakers outside Spain?
Mexico, Colombia, Argentina, USA, Venezuela, Peru, Chile, Ecuador, Guatemala & Cuba.