

(1) What does the word 'wat' mean in Thai: island, food or temple?

Temple.

(2) According to the saying, 'what rots from the head down'?

Fish.

(3) How many minutes does it take for the International Space Station to make a full orbit of the Earth: 90 minutes, 120 minutes or 150 minutes?

90 minutes.

(4) What site of two 1942 battles means 'two flags' in Arabic?

El Alamein.

(5) In Islam, on what part of the body might a khimar be worn: head, waist or ankle?

Head.

(6) In the Bible the devil asks Jesus to turn stones into what food?

Bread.

(7) Which of these is a type of chicken casserole: Chicken Divan, Chicken Duvet or Chicken Davenport?

Chicken Divan.

(8) The term 'nivosity' refers to what weather phenomenon?

Snow.

(9) In America, which of these is a 'Rust Belt' state: Ohio, North Dakota or Kansas?

Ohio.

(10) The German city of Berlin is surrounded by, but not part of, what state?

Brandenburg.

- (11) What is a sobriquet recheck: nightclub, nickname or necklace?
Nickname.
- (12) In a series of adverts, what time was the 'Diet Coke' break?
11:30am.
- (13) Thomas Cromwell was beheaded on the same day that Henry VIII married which of his wives: Anne of Cleves, Catherine Howard or Anne Boleyn?
Catherine Howard.
- (14) Turner painted a picture of Dido building what ancient city?
Carthage.
- (15) How many hearts do cephalopods have: 2, 3 or 4?
Three.
- (16) What was the first zombie film made by George A Romero?
Night of the Living Dead.
- (17) Grapes are an ingredient of which of these dishes: Chicken à la king, Sole Véronique or Steak Diane?
Sole Véronique.
- (18) The Book of Abraham is sacred to what religious organisation?
Mormons.
- (19) In golf, what is the only major to still have a full 18-hole playoff in the event of a tie: The Masters, The Open or The US Open?
The US Open.
- (20) Name the first ten countries alphabetically that contain the letters 'MA' somewhere in their name, the letters must be adjacent and in that order? (Bahamas is not included, as it's known as 'The' Bahamas)
Denmark, Germany, Guatemala, Jamaica, Madagascar, Malawi, Malaysia, Maldives, Mali & Malta.

- (21) Which comedian famously had his joke book stolen in the 1990s?
- Bob Monkhouse.
- (22) Which type of credit card began in the USA as 'Bank Americacard'?
- Visa.
- (23) How many people held the office of UK Prime Minister during the Second World War?
- Three.
- (24) Swellings known as 'black buboes' were a sign of which disease?
- Bubonic plague.
- (25) Which actress did Robert Wagner marry twice?
- Natalie Wood.
- (26) Elizabeth Taylor won her two Oscar's in what decade?
- 1960s.
- (27) In the human brain what is the second cranial nerve better known as?
- Optic nerve.
- (28) Who were the defending champions at the 1966 FIFA World Cup?
- Brazil.
- (29) What is the only US state that lies south of the Tropic of Cancer?
- Hawaii.
- (30) What colour is the chinstrap that gives the 'chinstrap penguin' its name?
- Black.

- (31) A word that is 'sesquipedalian' has a lot of what: meanings, alternative spellings or syllables?
Syllables.
- (32) What car manufacture made the 'Dyane'?
Citroen.
- (33) What old coin was sometimes called a 'bender', because its silver content allowed it to be bent in the hands: threepence, sixpence or half crown?
Sixpence.
- (34) What type of animal is a grivet?
Monkey.
- (35) Well known for staying out of the spotlight, Ray Kelvin founded what clothing company in 1988: Paul Smith, Tommy Hilfiger or Ted Baker?
Ted Baker.
- (36) Soda bread is usually associated with the cuisine of what country?
Ireland.
- (37) Popular in the 18th century, what is a cotillion: dance, shoe or pudding?
Dance.
- (38) The Vouli is the parliament in which country?
Greece.
- (39) Which of these scientists did NOT win two Nobel Prizes: Linus Pauling, Marie Curie or Niels Bohr?
Niels Bohr.
- (40) Name the ten teams that scored the most goals at the Euro 2020 held in the summer of 2021 (own goals are counted but penalty shoot outs are not)?
Italy, Spain, Denmark, England, Belgium, Netherlands, Switzerland, Croatia, France & Portugal.