

- (1) In maths, what is the highest common factor of six and eight: 2, 24 or 48?
Two.
- (2) What year came after 99BC?
98BC.
- (3) According to the 'Guinness Book of Records', what is the best-selling computer of all-time: BBC Micro, Commodore 64 or ZX Spectrum?
Commodore 64.
- (4) What breed of dog was film and TV character Rin-Tin-Tin?
German Shepard.
- (5) What country is home to 'The Mother of Parliaments': Sweden, United Kingdom or Denmark?
United Kingdom.
- (6) What biscuit has the same name as a ruling dynasty of France and Italy?
Bourbon.
- (7) Marduk was the chief god of which people: Aztecs, Babylonians or Carthaginians?
Babylonians.
- (8) What is the name of the largest island in the Shetland group?
Mainland.
- (9) The term 'champion' originates in the Latin word for what: field, first or fit?
Field.
- (10) Tawny and Ruby are types of what fortified wine?
Port.

- (11) How many female monarchs have reigned between the death of Elizabeth I and the ascension of Elizabeth II in 1952: 1, 2 or 3?
Three.
- (12) What is the first film in Baz Luhrmann's 'Red Curtain Trilogy'?
Strictly Ballroom.
- (13) The US national anthem, 'The Star-Spangled Banner', has its origins in an attack that took place during which war: American Revolution, War of 1812 or American Civil War?
War of 1812.
- (14) How many countries have a border with Andorra?
Two. (Spain & France)
- (15) Eurasian and Iberian are the European species of what kind of wild cat: lynx, ocelot or puma?
Lynx.
- (16) Spurn Head lies at the mouth of what estuary?
Humber.
- (17) The Maltese dog belongs to what breed group: terrier, toy or working?
Toy.
- (18) Who was the French President at the time of the Louisiana Purchase?
Napoleon.
- (19) Who was the first US President to serve only one term: John Adams, Thomas Jefferson or James Madison?
John Adams.
- (20) Name the ten US states whose name contains two different vowels, and both of those vowels each appear twice in their name, there can be other vowels in their name too?
California, Delaware, Hawaii, Indiana, Louisiana, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina & South Dakota.

- (21) Calvin Coolidge was US President in what decade of the 20th century?
1920s.
- (22) The two-word name of which spiritual role is derived from a Mongolian word for 'ocean and a Tibetan word for 'high priest'?'
Dalai Lama.
- (23) In which war did London first come under aerial attack?
World War One.
- (24) What UK hardware retailer was founded in 1979 as 'The Woodscrew Supply Company'?'
Screwfix.
- (25) What brand of liquefied gas gets its name from the Latin for 'heat'?'
Calor.
- (26) What is the lowest lake in the world?
The Dead Sea.
- (27) Which of Shakespeare's characters has been portrayed the most in films?
Hamlet.
- (28) The name of what illness reflects the old idea that the stars influenced it?
Influenza.
- (29) In 2006, the Beetham Tower or Hilton Tower became the UK's tallest building outside London, in which city is it?
Manchester.
- (30) What was the second Bond film to be named after the villain?
Goldfinger.

- (31) In Japan, 'inemuri' is the act of doing what: sleeping, praying or eating?
Sleeping.
- (32) According to NASA, what planet in our solar system has the most moons?
Saturn.
- (33) In ancient legend, the siege of Troy lasted approximately how many years: two years, five years or ten years?
Ten years.
- (34) Based on its derivation the word 'oscitation' relates to what human bodily action?
Yawning.
- (35) Members of the Habsburg royal dynasty were known for what prominent feature: forehead, ears or jaw?
Jaw.
- (36) Which species of camel is named after an ancient region of central Asia?
Bactrian.
- (37) Which country has the largest population of wild camels: Egypt, Australia or Iran?
Australia.
- (38) In which three cities in Asia does Disney have theme parks?
Shanghai, Hong Kong and Tokyo.
- (39) What is the first word of the American national anthem: Oh, My or God?
Oh.
- (40) Name the first ten Mr. Men characters alphabetically with four-letters in their name?
Mr. Bump, Mr. Busy, Mr. Calm, Mr. Cool, Mr. Good, Mr. Lazy, Mr. Mean, Mr. Rude, Mr. Rush & Mr. Slow.