

- (1) What was the name of the man who stepped down as Mayor of New York City at the end of 1945: La Guardia, Kennedy or Newark?
La Guardia.
- (2) The Iron-Bru Cup is a competition in what sport?
Football.
- (3) What nationality was the silent screen star Mary Pickford: Canadian, Irish or Australian?
Canadian.
- (4) After the capybara what is the second largest rodent in the world?
Beaver.
- (5) In the Barry Manilow song 'Copacabana', what are Lola's working hours: 8 til 4, 9 to 5 or 10 til 6?
8 til 4.
- (6) What name is given to the game where you throw rings onto upright pegs?
Quoits.
- (7) What was the title of Elvis Presley's last UK Top Ten hit before his death: Moody Blue, Way Down or Its Now or Never?
Moody Blue.
- (8) During World War Two, at which military base was the Gettysburg Address stored?
Fort Knox.
- (9) What is the pH level of a classic Coca-Cola: 2.5, 5.5 or 7.5?
2.5.
- (10) In 1933, the name of the central Australian town of Stewart was changed to what?
Alice Springs.

(11) What name is given to a female mouse: cow, doe or sow?

Doe.

(12) How many feet wide is the goalmouth on an ice-hockey rink?

Six feet.

(13) Used in Jewish ceremonies, a shofar is what type of instrument: harp, trumpet or drum?

Trumpet.

(14) The Denali Fault is in what American state?

Alaska.

(15) Players of what sport might partake in a 'soft toss': baseball, American football or ice hockey?

Baseball.

(16) Llamrei was a horse belonging to which king of English legend?

King Arthur.

(17) In ancient legend, what was tied to a pole by the Gordian knot: bull, chariot or sword?

Chariot.

(18) In what century did Europeans discover New Zealand?

17th.

(19) Nico Rosberg and Damon Hill both won their F1 world championships how many years after their fathers: 30, 34 or 38?

34 years.

(20) In an alphabetical list of countries, name the ten countries whose names consist of exactly six-letters and start with the letters M to S inclusive?

Malawi, Mexico Monaco, Norway, Panama, Poland, Russia, Rwanda, Serbia, & Sweden.

- (21) In which decade did BMW introduce the advertising slogan 'Ultimate Driving Machine'?
- 1970s.
- (22) What is the only African country to win tennis's Davis Cup?
- South Africa.
- (23) From which US city did the first commercial flight of the Boeing 747 take off from in 1970?
- New York.
- (24) What is the medical name for the thighbone?
- Femur.
- (25) What is the surname of the Glasgow born brothers who founded the group AC/DC?
- Young.
- (26) What country won the Hundred Year's War?
- France.
- (27) Bertie Basset liquorish mascot wears a hat of what colour?
- Blue.
- (28) What are the surnames of the title characters in the TV sitcom 'Gavin and Stacey'?
- Shipman and West.
- (29) In what decade did Cadbury launch the 'Curly Wurly'?
- 1970s (1970).
- (30) What is the only English city to start with the letter 'G'?
- Gloucester.

- (31) Which English football team play at New York Stadium: Reading, Rotherham United or Rochdale?
- Rotherham United.
- (32) The two-letter American slang word 'Za' which is allowed in Scrabble and worth 11 points, is an abbreviation of what savoury dish?
- Pizza.
- (33) Which of these monarchs was succeeded by a woman: George IV, Henry IV or William IV?
- William IV.
- (34) Which three US Presidents did Forest Gump appear to meet in the film?
- John F. Kennedy, Lyndon B. Johnson & Richard Nixon.
- (35) Which romantic poet is buried at the St Mary Magdalene Church in Hucknall, Nottinghamshire: Shelly, Byron or Keats?
- Byron.
- (36) What alternative name commonly used for the Netherlands, appears in the name of two of its provinces?
- Holland.
- (37) What was the name of the first battleship built in Japan: Clementine, Mandarin or Satsuma?
- Satsuma.
- (38) Saint Boniface Down is the highest point on what island of the British island?
- Isle of White.
- (39) In 1882, the Ashes were 'created' after Australia's first ever Test cricket victory in England at which ground: Lord's, Old Trafford or the Oval?
- The Oval.
- (40) Name the ten countries that produced the greatest number of pineapples in 2022? (5 are in the America's, 4 in Asia & 1 in Africa)
- Indonesia, Philippines, Costa Rica, Brazil, China, India, Thailand, Nigeria, Mexico & Colombia.