

- (1) The world's longest man-made waterway is on what continent: Africa, Asia or North America?

Asia. (The Grand Canal in China - 1,104ml)

- (2) What time of day comes before 'Eternal' in the title of a UK Number One by KLF?

3am.

- (3) The name of what planet goes between 'alkaline' and 'metal' in the name of a group of six elements: Mercury, Venus or Earth?

Earth.

- (4) Who was the first Pope to choose a double name?

John Paul I.

- (5) Fredericton is the capital of what Canadian province: New Brunswick, Manitoba or Nova Scotia?

New Brunswick.

- (6) Ancient Greeks believe what war took place in 13th or 12th century BC?

Trojan War.

- (7) How many Grand Nationals did Ginger McCain win as a trainer: three, four or five?

Four.

- (8) In the army, the word 'subaltern' refers to military officer under which rank?

Captain.

- (9) The Hashemites are the ruling royal family of what Middle East country: Bahrain, Jordan or Saudi Arabia?

Jordan.

- (10) What overture provided the theme for 'Lone Ranger' on television?

William Tell Overture.

- (11) Which former Liverpool manager was once the club's physiotherapist: Bill Shankly, Bob Paisley or Brendan Rodgers?
Bob Paisley.
- (12) What was the name of Margot Robbie's character in 'Neighbours'?
Donna.
- (13) In what decade did table tennis first become an Olympic sport: 1970s, 1980s or 1990s?
1980s.
- (14) Vertumnus was a god of seasons in what mythology?
Roman.
- (15) 'Fucivorous' animals eat what: fruit, seaweed or fungus?
Seaweed.
- (16) In Parliament, what type of bill can be introduced by backbenchers?
Private Members Bill.
- (17) Which big cat was most associated with the ancient region of Nemea: leopard, lion or tiger?
Lion.
- (18) Jennifer Garner and which actor divorced in 2018?
Ben Affleck.
- (19) How many UN member states begin with the letter 'F': 2, 3 or 5?
Three.
- (20) Name the ten smallest European Union member countries by area?
Malta, Luxembourg, Cyprus, Slovenia, Belgium, Netherlands, Denmark, Estonia, Slovakia & Croatia.

(21) In the film 'ABBA: The Move' the band tour which country?

Australia.

(22) What sitcom was based around the Luxton and District Motor Traction Company?

On the Buses.

(23) In what decade was the London Underground extended out to Heathrow Airport?

1970s. (1977 - Jubilee Line)

(24) What on-line retailer bought 'Topshop' in 2021?

ASOS.

(25) For which F1 team was Lewis Hamilton driving when he won his first world championship?

McLaren.

(26) In the film 'Thelma and Louise' who is driving the car as it goes over the cliff?

Louise.

(27) The HBA1C blood test is used to measure what?

Blood sugar levels.

(28) The smallest size coin in circulation in the US is worth how many cents?

Ten.

(29) 'The British 'Ave Come' was the first episode of what sitcom?

'Allo 'Allo!

(30) What team does West Ham play in London's 'Dockers Derby'?

Millwall.

- (31) Fluvial, pluvial and coastal are three type of what: flood, earthquake or storm?
Flood.
- (32) In the African Nations football tournament in January 2024, three nations took part that have Guinea in their name, name them?
Guinea, Guinea Bissau and Equatorial Guinea.
- (33) The UK's most northerly cathedral is in what island group: Inner Hebrides, Orkney or Shetland?
Orkney.
- (34) In the 1980 film 'Flash Gordon' who played Prince Vultan?
Brian Blessed.
- (35) 'Anephric' is a medical term meaning a lack of what: lungs, ears or kidneys?
Kidneys.
- (36) What is the administrative capital of the Netherlands?
The Hague.
- (37) What epithet is given to King Louis X of France: The Quarrelsome, The Queasy or The Quitter?
The Quarrelsome.
- (38) Cate Blanchett played the sibling of which Marvel superhero?
Thor.
- (39) Who was the last British monarch to be born outside the UK: James I, George II or Edward VII?
George II.
- (40) As of 2020, name the ten royal residences and official palaces used by the immediate royal family that are nearest to Westminster Abbey? (These are the buildings where Elizabeth II, her four children, Duke and Duchess of Cambridge and the Duke and Duchess of Sussex live for all or part of the year)
St. James's Palace, Clarence House, Buckingham Palace, Kensington Palace, Frogmore Cottage, Windsor Castle, The Royal Lodge, Bagshot Park, Highgrove House & Gatcombe Park.