

- (1) The painful foot condition plantar fasciitis is known by what name: fireman's toe, policeman's heel or nurse's nail?
Policeman's heel.
- (2) The name of what Mexican sauce means 'green sauce' in Spanish?
Salsa Verde.
- (3) In Marvel comics, how is Bucky Barnes alternatively known: Deadpool, Doctor Strange or The Winter Soldier?
The Winter Soldier.
- (4) What daily paper merged with the Racing Post on 1998?
Sporting Life.
- (5) Which of these types of gemstone cut is oval-shaped: marquise, princess or emerald?
Marquise.
- (6) In the opera 'The Marriage of Figaro' who does Figaro marry?
Susanna.
- (7) Which 'Bond' villain shares his birthday with Ian Fleming, 28th May 1908: Ernst Stavro Blofeld, Auric Goldfinger or Francisco Scaramanga?
Ernst Stavro Blofeld.
- (8) Cameroon, Congo and Chad all used a currency with what shared name?
Franc.
- (9) Two of the Wonders of the Ancient World were in which of these countries: Jordan, Lebanon or Turkey?
Turkey.
- (10) What star sign is associated with the 'Golden Fleece'?
Aries.

- (11) In 1875, which Prime Minister bought Britain a share in the Suez Canal for £4 million: Palmerston, Gladstone or Disraeli?
Disraeli.
- (12) 1 Carlton Gardens is the official residence of holders of what UK political office?
Foreign Secretary.
- (13) What does the Latin phrase 'Scientia est potentia' mean: life is short, knowledge is power or love is blind?
Knowledge is power.
- (14) The UK's Met Office lists; radiation, valley, evaporation and freezing as types of what?
Fog.
- (15) Air Astana is the national airline of what former Soviet republic: Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan or Uzbekistan?
Kazakhstan.
- (16) Which unit of distance is referred to by the US military as a 'click'?
Kilometre.
- (17) The year number in the Jewish calendar is the number of years since what: creation, founding of Judaism or birth of Moses?
Creation.
- (18) In which 1939 film did Basil Rathbone first play Sherlock Holmes?
Hound of the Baskervilles.
- (19) Which of these English kings was born in England: Charles II, George II or Henry II?
Charles II.
- (20) Name the ten London Underground stations in Zone 1 that begin with the letters 'T', 'E' or 'N'? (No DLR, Overground or Mainline stations unless served by an Underground station)
Temple, Tottenham Court Road, Tower Hill, Earl's Court, Edgware Road, Elephant & Castle, Embankment, Euston, Euston Square & Notting Hill Gate.

- (21) In the Six Nations tournament, the Millennium Trophy is awarded to the winner of the match against England and which other team?
Ireland.
- (22) What Somerset Cathedral is dedicated to St Andrew?
Wells.
- (23) What prom accessory is a small bouquet of flowers worn on the wrist?
Corsage.
- (24) In what century was the painting 'The Girl With the Pearl Earring' created?
17th.
- (25) Indian and green are two species of what bird?
Peacock.
- (26) What major line of latitude passes through the island of Borneo?
Equator.
- (27) The final printed issue of which comic was in 2012 on its 75th birthday?
Dandy.
- (28) Seen on tombs, what does the Latin phrase 'hic jacet' mean?
Here lies.
- (29) Rubens painted which Biblical figure surrounded by lions?
Daniel.
- (30) The first in what children's book series featured an orange man in a blue hat?
Mr Men.

- (31) Which word best describes something that is 'mercurial': changeable, trustworthy or expensive?
Changeable.
- (32) Which of Henry VIII's wives died at Kimbolton Castle?
Catherine of Aragon.
- (33) In what year did Great Britain only win one gold medal at the Summer Olympics: 1980, 1988 or 1996?
1996.
- (34) How many dots form the matrix from which each individual letter of the braille alphabet can be formed?
Six.
- (35) The Uffizi Gallery and the Leaning Tower of Pisa are both in what Italian region: Lombardy, Piedmont or Tuscany?
Tuscany.
- (36) Jacob, Jesus of Nazareth, King Solomon and Thomas the Apostle are the only Biblical figures to have what specific thing named after them?
Countries of the world. (Israel was the name given by god to Jacob in later life, El Salvador is named after Christ, Solomon gives his name to the Solomon Islands and St Thomas is commemorated in the name of São Tomé and Príncipe)
- (37) The 31st May 2016 marked the 100th anniversary of which naval battle: Lepanto, Jutland or Midway?
Jutland.
- (38) In a famous scene from the TV comedy 'Yes Minister', Jim Hacker says "The Daily Mirror is read by the people who think they run the country. While the Times is read by people that really do run the country". Which newspaper does he say "is read by the people who think they ought to run the country" ?
The Guardian.
- (39) What was the first English club to win the European Cup twice: Liverpool, Manchester United or Chelsea?
Liverpool.
- (40) Name the first ten six-letter words ending in the letters 'TEN'? (No hyphenated words, words with apostrophes or any word spelt with an initial capital letter or any US spellings)
Batten, beaten, bitten, fasten, fatten, gluten, hasten, kitten, listen & marten.