

- (1) Which of these vitamins can NOT be produced in the human body: C, D or K?
C.
- (2) For which 2005 film did Clint Eastwood win an Oscar for Best Director?
Million Dollar Baby.
- (3) Adobo sauce comes from what country's cuisine: Mexico, Japan or Sri Lanka?
Mexico.
- (4) What seven-letter word can denote an artist or interior decorator and is a nautical term for rope used to tie up boats?
Painter.
- (5) In 1792, George III bought what Royal House: Frogmore, Balmoral or Osborne House?
Frogmore.
- (6) Baleine is the French word for which marine mammal?
Whale.
- (7) In 2015, Twitter renamed its 'favourite' icon to 'like' and changed the symbol from a star to a what: heart, tick or thumbs up?
Heart.
- (8) In 1967, Mariner 5 made a fly-by of which planet?
Venus.
- (9) In 2017, astronomers added two more moons to what planet's official count, bringing its total to 69: Jupiter, Neptune or Uranus?
Jupiter.
- (10) Which English word commonly used at meal times, is derived from the French verb meaning 'to clear the table'?
Dessert.

(11) Which future England football manager co-wrote the late '70s TV series 'Hazell': Bobby Robson, Graham Taylor or Terry Venables?

Terry Venables.

(12) What animal was the 'Blue Peter' pet 'Joey'?

Parrot.

(13) Ranine means resembling what creature: frog, badger or robin?

Frog.

(14) On a champagne bottle what do the letters 'NV' stand for?

Non-vintage.

(15) Whose uniforms did Jeff Banks redesign in 1990: Wimbledon Umpires, Metropolitan Police or Girl Guides?

Girl Guides.

(16) ew.com is the website of what American magazine?

Entertainment Weekly.

(17) Which of these Internet search engines was launched first: Google, Yahoo! or Ask Jeeves?

Yahoo!

(18) In 1985, what ship was sunk in 'Operation Satanica'?

The Rainbow Warrior.

(19) Geoff Hamilton was chiefly associated with what type of TV programme: DIY, cookery or gardening?

Gardening.

(20) Name the ten elements with names of eight-letters or fewer that begin with the letter 'C'?

Carbon, Chlorine, Calcium, Chromium, Cobalt, Copper, Cadmium, Caesium, Cerium & Curium.

- (21) What facial feature can be described as aquiline?
- Nose.
- (22) What century saw the end of Hanover as Britain's ruling house?
- 20th century.
- (23) In Harry Potter, what type of establishment is Gringots?
- A bank.
- (24) What Oscar winning film gets its title from a line in the hymn 'Jerusalem'?
- Chariots of Fire.
- (25) According to legend, who was King Arthur's father?
- Uther Pendragon.
- (26) In what century did Lewis Waterman patent the first practical fountain pen?
- 19th.
- (27) Marne-la-Vallee-Chess railway station serves what tourist attraction?
- Euro Disney.
- (28) The holder of which political office in the United States government has the official residence Number One, Observatory Circle, Washington D.C.?
- Vice President.
- (29) Brisbane is the capital of which Australian state?
- Queensland.
- (30) The name of what Greek cheese means 'slice'?
- Feta.

- (31) At what Test cricket ground did Brian Lara make a world record score of 501 runs in 1994: Edgbaston, Lord's or Old Trafford?
Edgbaston.
- (32) Which 70s singer turned down the role of Sandy in the film 'Grease'?
Marie Osmond.
- (33) Which of these monarchs is NOT buried in St George's Chapel at Windsor Castle: Henry VIII, Charles I or Charles II?
Charles II.
- (34) In the film 'Toy Story', what is Andy's surname?
Davis.
- (35) Traders from which country introduced chillies to India from South America: Britain, Spain or Portugal?
Portugal.
- (36) In what century were post boxes first introduced in Britain?
19th.
- (37) Which of these words best describes a cube: dodecahedron, hexahedron or octahedron?
Hexahedron.
- (38) "Shall We" was the slogan of which gin brand?
Gordon's.
- (39) The Tropic of Capricorn passes through how many countries: ten, twenty or thirty?
Ten.
- (40) Name the ten provinces of Canada, excluding the territories of Yukon, North West Territories & Nunavut?
British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia & Prince Edward Island.