

- (1) In US sport, what name is given to teams that reach the end-of-season play-offs without being divisional champions: jokers, trumps or Wild cards?
Wild cards.
- (2) The name of what small European country is derived from the German for 'light stone'?
Lichtenstein.
- (3) The Muppets' Top Ten hit 'Halfway Down the Stairs' was based on a poem by which author: T.S. Eliot, A.A. Milne or W.H. Auden?
A.A. Milne.
- (4) Cecil Day-Lewis was the first Poet Laureate appointed by which monarch?
Elizabeth II.
- (5) What is defined by UNESCO as a "non-periodical printed publication of at least 49 pages excluding covers": a book, a magazine or a novella?
A book.
- (6) 'The Silver Unicorn' is a children's book by which British Olympic gold medallist?
Jessica Ennis-Hill.
- (7) Whose record for the individual Test batting was broken by Brian Lara in Antigua in 1994: Don Bradman, Len Hutton or Gary Sobers?
Gary Sobers.
- (8) Who was the only Tudor monarch to have previously been Duke of York?
Henry VIII.
- (9) What is Bart Simpson's middle name: JoJo, BoBo or ToTo?
JoJo.
- (10) An odd-eyed domestic cat always has one eye of what colour?
Blue.

- (11) Sacred in Buddhism, the Bodhi tree bears what fruit: cherries, figs or lemons?
Figs.
- (12) Which drink is known as 'the wine of Islam'?
Coffee.
- (13) Which of these TV writers drew extensively on his Forest of Dean childhood in his works: Jack Rosenthal, John Mortimer or Dennis Potter?
Dennis Potter.
- (14) 'Angle closure' and 'open angle' are types of what eye disease?
Glaucoma.
- (15) Phasmophobia is the fear of what: blood, ghosts or speed?
Ghosts.
- (16) What city was once known as the Paris of the east?
Shanghai.
- (17) Which of these superheroes did NOT originally wear a cape: The Flash, Robin or Captain Marvel?
The Flash.
- (18) The northern coast of which continent was historically referred to as the Spanish Main?
South America.
- (19) How much is two guineas worth in today's money: £2.10, £2.40 or £2.50?
£2.10.
- (20) In an alphabetical list of US states, name the ten states that come between North Dakota and Vermont?
Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas & Utah.

(21) McCourt and Wood are the surnames of which TV duo?

Dick & Dom.

(22) What colour is the skin of a polar bear?

Black.

(23) Which sweets brand has the slogan "Kid's and grown-up's love it so"?

Haribo.

(24) The Internet term 'wiki' means quick in what Polynesian language?

Hawaiian.

(25) Which country's Internet domain name is .SA?

Saudi Arabia.

(26) What is the only landlocked country that has won the America's Cup?

Switzerland.

(27) "It's Been Emotional" is the title of an autobiography by which Watford born actor, who once captained the Welsh national football team?

Vinnie Jones.

(28) Peter Andre moved to what country when he was ten?

Cyprus.

(29) What species of eagle appears on the CIA logo?

Bald eagle.

(30) What was the surname of Jim, who after prohibition ended re-built his family's bourbon whisky business in Clermont Kentucky?

Beam. (NOT Bean)

(31) Who was the highest placed monarch in the 2002 'Greatest Briton' poll: Richard the Lionheart, Elizabeth I or Victoria?

Elizabeth I.

(32) The Investec Banking Group has what African animal as symbol?

Zebra.

(33) Which of these bands has NOT won the Mercury Prize: Arctic Monkeys, Pulp or Blur?

Blur.

(34) The first UK Crispy Cream Doughnut outlet was opened in which London store?

Harrods.

(35) The Irish Grand National usually takes place on what day of the year: New Year's Day, St. Patrick's Day or Easter Monday?

Easter Monday.

(36) On film Carl Denham captured what ape?

King Kong.

(37) The name of the extinct animal the mastodon literally means what: navel tongue, knee toe or nipple tooth?

Nipple tooth.

(38) Which organ of the human body regulates the volume of blood cells, stores red blood cells for future use and destroys old cells?

Spleen.

(39) The American War of Independence battlefield of Bunker Hill is now in which city: Boston, Philadelphia or Atlanta?

Boston.

(40) Name the six different murder weapons and the four last names of suspects in the classic original UK board game 'Cluedo' that contain the letter 'E'?

Candlestick, dagger, Rev. Green, lead piping, Mrs. Peacock, revolver, rope, Miss Scarlett, spanner & Mrs. White.