

- (1) Asia accounts for approximately what percentage of the Earth's land area: 20%, 25% or 30%?
30%.
- (2) Which five words are engraved on the brass letter box of number 10 Downing Street?
First Lord of the Treasury.
- (3) Forming the front, which part of the eye is the curved window that first focuses the light: cornea, iris or retina?
Cornea.
- (4) How many stones are delivered by a team in curling?
Eight.
- (5) Who topped a 2002 FIFA poll to find the World Cup Goal of the Century: Johan Cruyff, Diego Maradona or Pelé?
Diego Maradona.
- (6) In 2016, which famous astronaut took part in a expedition to the South Pole, and nearly died?
Buzz Aldrin.
- (7) In horseracing which of the five English classics is run over the longest distance of 1 mile, 6 furlongs and 132 yards: 2000 Guineas, The Derby or St Ledger?
St Ledger.
- (8) In 1979, Pioneer XI became the first mission to explore what planet?
Saturn.
- (9) The Siege of Mafeking took place in what modern-day country: China, India or South Africa?
South Africa.
- (10) Who was Deputy PM before John Prescott in 1997?
Michael Heseltine.

(11) What did Mark Twain say: "is fatal to prejudice, bigotry, and narrow-mindedness: love, education or travel?"

Travel.

(12) A sculpture of which tormented King stands in the grounds of Anne Hathaway's cottage?

King Lear.

(13) On washing care-clothing symbols, what does an empty circle mean: may be dry cleaned, machine washable or may be tumble dried?

May be dry cleaned.

(14) What cartoon film was set in 'The Sea of Holes'?

Yellow Submarine.

(15) Who scored England's try in the 2003 Rugby World Cup: Will Greenwood, Matt Dawson or Jason Robinson?

Jason Robinson.

(16) The name of what company means 'three stars' in Korean?

Samsung.

(17) The US Navy's Nimitz-class vessels are what type of ship: battleship, minesweeper or aircraft carrier?

Aircraft carrier.

(18) In Olympic diving the fixed board is how many metres high?

Ten.

(19) Which of these is an ingredient in Cumberland sauce: sherry, port or wine?

Port.

(20) Name the first names of the last ten 'First Ladies' of the USA?

Jill, Melania, Michelle, Laura, Hillary, Barbara, Nancy, Rosalynn, Elizabeth & Patricia.

- (21) The painter Goya was born in what century?
18th.
- (22) The source of the river Exe is in what National Park?
Exmoor.
- (23) Yoga originated in what country?
India.
- (24) Which tennis Grand Slam Open is played on Deco-turf?
US Open.
- (25) 'Suga Mamma' is the backing band of which famous American singer?
Beyoncé.
- (26) In a standard UK Scrabble set, how many letter J's are there?
One.
- (27) What Las Vegas hotel is famed for its dancing water fountains?
Bellagio.
- (28) Cydonia is a region of which planet?
Mars.
- (29) Who sang with Rod Steward on the top ten single 'It Takes Two'?
Tina Turner.
- (30) A diamond ring appears on what square on a standard UK Monopoly board?
Super Tax.

- (31) In Christian art, which bird is used as an emblem for Jesus Christ: puffin, crow or pelican?
Pelican.
- (32) What South American country gained its independence from Britain in 1966?
Guyana.
- (33) In 2017, a panel of British comedians voted what series the UK's best sitcom of all time: Porridge, Fawlty Towers or Only Fools and Horses?
Fawlty Towers.
- (34) The post World War II Curzon Lines was Poland's border with what other country?
USSR or Russia.
- (35) Which of these words refers to all the internal organs in the main cavities of the body: vesica, viscera or vesicle?
Viscera.
- (36) What children's bubble-bath brand had the slogan "clean fun, clean kids, clean bath"?
Mathey.
- (37) Which poem by Ella Wheeler Wilcox begins "laugh and the world laughs with you": Isolation, Loneliness or Solitude?
Solitude.
- (38) Which comic book space pilot was assisted by Albert Digby?
Dan Dare.
- (39) In continental Europe, which punctuation mark is used to represent a decimal point: comma, colon or semi-colon?
Comma.
- (40) Name the ten official cities in the UK that are nearest Stonehenge as the crow flies?
Salisbury, Winchester, Southampton, Bath, Wells, Bristol, Portsmouth, Oxford, Gloucester & Chichester.