

(1) Which of these Beatles songs was banned by the BBC at the time of its release: I Am The Walrus, Lucy In the Sky With Diamonds or Hey Jude?
I Am The Walrus.

(2) In the USA, Yale University is located in which state?

Connecticut.

(3) Which of these months is NOT named after a female deity: May, June or July?

July.

(4) Which monarch was the last from the House of Stuart?

Queen Anne.

(5) What can be measured in units of sones: temperature, loudness or density?

Loudness.

(6) A person suffering from ageusia has lost which of the five senses?

Taste.

(7) What did Collins Dictionary name 'Word of the Year' for 2014: bakeoff, selfie or photobomb?

Photobomb.

(8) The Hunter, Barrosa and Yarra Valleys are wine regions in which country?

Australia.

(9) What was the real surname of the title character in the novel 'Goodbye Mr Chips': Chipperfield, Chipping or Chippenham?

Chipping.

(10) The puppet presenter called Otis who appeared regularly on children's TV in the 1990s, was a representation of what animal?

Aardvark.

- (11) The daughter of which king was the first to hold the title Princess Royal: Charles I, George I or William I?
Charles I.
- (12) In 1797, Nelson lost his right arm after being wounded during an unsuccessful assault on a town on which of the Canary Islands?
Tenerife.
- (13) In 'James and the Giant Peach' what animal eats James' parents: dingo, hippo or rhino?
Rhino.
- (14) The oldest of the five English Classic horse races, the St Ledger is traditionally run at Doncaster. Name one of the only two other race courses to host it?
York or Ayr.
- (15) Who was the first resident cat on Blue Peter: Jason, Christopher or Peter?
Jason.
- (16) In the Bible, how many of the 27 books of the New Testament have the word Gospel in their full title?
Four. (Matthew, Mark, Luke & John)
- (17) Which choreographer won his first Tony award for his work on 'The Pajama game' on Broadway: Busby Berkeley, Jerome Robbins or Bob Fosse?
Bob Fosse.
- (18) In the UK, what metallic sounding name is given to a lean boneless cut of beef, taken from the outer part hindquarters of cattle, just behind the rump and above the leg?
Silverside.
- (19) According to its atomic weight, which of these elements is heaviest: gold, silver or lead?
Lead.
- (20) According to a YouGov poll in July last year, what were voted the UK's ten favourite ice lollies or frozen sweet treats?
Magnum, Fab, Solero, Twister, Feast, Calippo, Orange, Cornetto, Fruit Pastille & Mivvi.

(21) In the computer game, what is the name of Mario's dinosaur companion?

Yoshi.

(22) In India, a 'mahout' is a person who works with what animal?

Elephant.

(23) Grace and Favour was a spin-off of which comedy TV series?

Are You Being Served.

(24) Which 1996 film begins with the narrated words "Choose life, choose a job, choose a career"?

Trainspotting.

(25) In the human body, the function of which small sack is to store and concentrate bile before releasing it into the intestine?

Gallbladder.

(26) Between 1997 and 2012, the design of which denomination of UK coin included the inscription "Standing on the shoulders of giants"?

£2.

(27) What was the title of the first short film to feature Wallis and Gromit?

A Grand Day Out.

(28) In the 1998 film 'Saving Private Ryan' who plays the title character?

Matt Damon.

(29) In bullfighting, what word derived from the Spanish verb 'to kill', is given to the person appointed to kill the bull?

Matador.

(30) Which TV and radio presenter married Jesse Wood, son of the Rolling Stone Ronnie Wood in 2014?

Fearne Cotton.

- (31) Who was the only 1966 World Cup-winning player to have been in the England squad for the two previous tournaments: Bobby Charlton, Nobby Styles or Gordon Banks?
Bobby Charlton.
- (32) What name is given to the double-headed drum often used in military bands, has a set of wires strung across the lower skin which rattle when struck?
Snare drum.
- (33) Which astronaut once punched a documentary film-maker who claimed that the moon landings were faked: Buzz Aldrin, Neil Armstrong or Alan Shepard?
Buzz Aldrin.
- (34) In Greek mythology, the name given to the son of and husband of Gaia, who is the personification of the sky is also given to which planet in our solar system?
Uranus.
- (35) Which Hindu god has the role of destroying the universe in order for it to be re-created: Brahma, Shiva, or Vishnu?
Shiva.
- (36) The visual defect Daltonism, is more commonly known by what name?
Colour blindness. (Named after John Dalton who identified it)
- (37) Which late comedian said "I am a member of the Secret Six. It's so secret I don't even know the other five": Spike Milligan, Tommy Cooper or Eric Morecambe?
Tommy Cooper.
- (38) Which DC Comic Book character has the real name Selina Kyle?
Catwoman.
- (39) According to the Ordnance Survey, what Staffordshire village is the highest in England: Flash, Bang or Wallop?
Flash.
- (40) Name the first six founding member countries of the European Economic Community, which came into being in 1958, and the next four countries to join?
Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Denmark, Ireland, United Kingdom & Greece.