

- (1) How is Las Vegas described in the 'Welcome To' sign that has been in place on the Strip since 1959: Fabulous, Spectacular or Marvellous?
Fabulous.
- (2) Which Northern English city lies at the confluence of the rivers Eden, Caldew and Petteril?
Carlisle.
- (3) Which of these Batman films was made most recently: Batman Begins, Batman Returns or Batman Forever?
Batman Begins.
- (4) Which cartoon cat has a teddy bear called Pooky?
Garfield.
- (5) The first ever episode of 'Emmerdale Farm' in October 1972, centred on what event in the Sugden family: a christening, a wedding or a funeral?
Funeral.
- (6) The river Ribble flows into what sea?
Irish Sea.
- (7) In what month is the New Orleans Mardi Gras usually held: February, April or July?
February.
- (8) Johannesburg airport was known by what name until 1994?
Jan Smuts.
- (9) What Asian country is double landlocked, being totally surrounded by countries that are landlocked themselves: Uzbekistan, Mongolia or Bhutan?
Uzbekistan.
- (10) In 1994, who hosted the first ever Saturday night lottery draw on the BBC?
Noel Edmonds.

(11) In 1936, Ioannis Metaxas became a dictator of which country: Bulgaria, Greece or Romania?

Greece.

(12) What does a mycophagist eat?

Mushrooms.

(13) A molecule of which of these acids contains the most atoms: hydrochloric, nitric or sulphuric?

Sulphuric.

(14) The term 'Baltic States' refers to how many countries?

Three.

(15) What name is given to Scottish hills between 2000 and 2500 feet in height: Malcolms, Andrews or Grahams?

Grahams.

(16) Which rank in the British Police force has a name derived from the Latin for 'to serve'?

Sergeant.

(17) Periods of unemployment in what job are traditionally called 'resting'?

Acting.

(18) The Welsh Mountain Zoo, which is the national zoo of Wales opened in 1963 and overlooks which seaside town?

Colwyn Bay.

(19) In the books, Paddington Bear has elevenses most days with which friend: Mr. Gruber, Uncle Pastuzo or Mrs. Bird?

Mr. Gruber.

(20) Name the first ten US states alphabetically (Letters A to G inclusive)?

Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida & Georgia.

(21) What is the holiest city of Islam?

Mecca.

(22) The surface of what planet is covered with iron oxide dust?

Mars.

(23) What Yorkshire town gives its name to a double lamb chop?

Barnsley.

(24) In which Bond film did Judi Dench first appear as 'M'?

Goldeneye.

(25) In what famous 80s film did Charlie Sheen play a character called Bud Fox?

Wall Street.

(26) Which long-running West End play is set at a guesthouse called Monkswell Manor during a snow storm?

Mousetrap.

(27) Mary, Queen of Scots was executed in 1587 at the age of 44 was married how many times?

Three.

(28) What name is given to the individual compartments in which horses are kept in a stable?

Stalls.

(29) The largest species of crocodile in Africa shares its name with which river?

Nile.

(30) In the 20th century, how many times were the Summer Olympic Games cancelled because of world wars?

Three. (1916, 1940 & 1944)

- (31) What is hypermetropia: long-sightedness, short-sightedness or tunnel vision?
Long-sightedness.
- (32) According to the Old Testament, what birds brought food to the prophet Elijah as he hid by a brook?
Ravens.
- (33) King William III was the son-in-law of which other king: Charles II, George II or James II?
James II.
- (34) The Apollo 11 mission landed men on the moon, which earlier mission was the first manned orbit of the moon?
Apollo 8. (Dec 1968)
- (35) In 2015, which TV duo presented a version of the quiz show 'Ask the Family': Dick & Dom, Mel & Sue or Sam & Mark?
Dick & Dom.
- (36) Which US President officially gave the White House its current name in the early 20th century?
Theodore Roosevelt.
- (37) The need for a black cab in London to have a turning circle of 25ft is dictated by the tight entrance to which hotel: The Savoy, The Ritz or The Dorchester?
The Savoy.
- (38) The national flag of which Asian country depicts a lion wielding a sword?
Sri Lanka.
- (39) The Mali city of Timbuktu is twined with which Welsh Town: Haverfordwest, Merthyr Tydfil or Hay-on-Wye?
Hay-on-Wye.
- (40) According to a June 2019 survey by 'What Car' magazine of car owners for the first twelve months of ownership, what are the ten least reliable makes of new car?
Tesla, Land Rover, Jeep, Jaguar, Nissan, Mercedes-Benz, Citroen, Peugeot, Porsche & Mini.