

(1) What farm is the setting of the children's TV show 'Shaun the Sheep': Mossy Bottom, Soggy Bottom or Toffy Bottom?

Mossy Bottom.

(2) The American's have a public holiday to celebrate Washington 's Birthday in what month?

February.

(3) In cricket, which of these fielding positions is furthest from the batsman on strike: leg slip, silly point or third man?

Third man.

(4) The blue jay is a bird native to what continent?

North America.

(5) An ergograph measures and records the work done by what part of the body: brain, muscles or lungs?

Muscles.

(6) Which of Henry VIII's wives received a state funeral in 1537?

Jane Seymour.

(7) Why was George Best shown a red card during a match on the first day they were introduced in English football: using bad language, deliberate hand ball or bringing a player down who was about to score?

Using bad language.

(8) What is the most northerly of Australian territory or state capital cities?

Darwin.

(9) An 'echinate' animal is covered in what: spines, hair or scales?

Spines.

(10) What chess piece is the most mobile and powerful?

Queen.

- (11) Which of these kings reigned the earliest: Edward Longshanks, John Lackland or Richard the Lionheart?
Richard the Lionheart.
- (12) Gold is an aftershave by whom?
Jay-Z.
- (13) The capital city of what country comes last in an alphabetical list of world capitals: Croatia, Macedonia or Serbia?
Croatia. (Zagreb)
- (14) In Psycho what is the name of Norman Bates' mother?
Norma.
- (15) The stream of ions and electrons which constantly emanates from the Sun is the 'solar...' what: storm, stream or wind?
Wind.
- (16) Tellus is the Latin name for what planet?
Earth.
- (17) What is Miley Cyrus's original first name: Fortune, Destiny or Fate?
Destiny.
- (18) 'Mums Know Best' was a cooking show featuring who?
The Hairy Bikers.
- (19) Which chef wrote the cookbook 'New British Classics': Jamie Oliver, Gordon Ramsay or Gary Rhodes?
Gary Rhodes.
- (20) Name the titles of the first top ten singles in the UK credited to Prince?
When Doves Cry, Purple Rain, 1999/Little Red Corvette, Let's Go Crazy/Take Me With You, Kiss, Sign 'o' the Times, Alphabet Street, Batdance, Thieves in the Temple & Gett Off.

- (21) The Camel Valley Vineyard is in what English county?
Cornwall.
- (22) What famous novel of the 1870s is narrated by a horse?
Black Beauty.
- (23) What country has been called the oldest continent?
Australia.
- (24) The murderer Dr Crippen was born in what country?
America.
- (25) The Fields is a housing estate in what J.K. Rowling novel?
The Casual Vacancy.
- (26) Who was King of England at the end of the One Hundred Years War?
Henry VI.
- (27) In what decade did Sebastian Coe enter Parliament?
1990s. (1992)
- (28) What was the first country in mainland Europe to host the Ryder Cup?
Spain.
- (29) 'A 1,000 days' is a term relating to which US President?
John F. Kennedy.
- (30) A second film version of what British sit-com was released in 2014?
The Inbetweeners.

- (31) Which of these is both a position and a score in American football: Safety, Cornerback or Tackle?
- Safety.
- (32) What is the official language Cape Verde?
- Portuguese.
- (33) In which two centuries did Venetian explorer Marco Polo live: 13th & 14th, 14th & 15th or 15th & 16th?
- 13th & 14th.
- (34) What famous dog had a name meaning 'barker' in Russian?
- Laika.
- (35) Who was the mother of Charles I: Anne of Denmark, Matilda of France or Isabella of France?
- Anne of Denmark.
- (36) The Choctaw are a people native to what country?
- North America.
- (37) What is the American name for a hair-grip: Billy pin, Barry pin or Bobby pin?
- Bobby pin.
- (38) Which gas is named after the Greek word for 'hidden'?
- Krypton.
- (39) Which of these terms is the title of a musical by Rodgers and Hammerstein: Allegro, Crescendo or Presto?
- Allegro.
- (40) According to a June 2019 survey by 'What Car' magazine of car owners for the first twelve months of ownership, what are the ten least reliable makes of new car?
- Tesla, Land Rover, Jeep, Jaguar, Nissan, Mercedes-Benz, Citroen, Peugeot, Porsche & Mini.