

- (1) In what decade of the 20th century did Canada's Maple Leaf flag become official by Royal Proclamation: 1940s, 1950s or 1960s?
1960s.
- (2) What spirit is used to make a Lemondrop cocktail?
Vodka.
- (3) Voiced by Whoopi Goldberg, Stretch from 'Toy Story 3' is what toy animal: octopus, starfish or jellyfish?
Octopus.
- (4) Which Minister delivers the annual Mansion House Speech?
The Chancellor.
- (5) Which tennis player co-wrote the 1996 mystery novel 'Breaking Point': Martina Navratilova, Steffi Graf or Monica Seles?
Martina Navratilova.
- (6) The adjective ligneous refers to what natural material?
Wood.
- (7) The restoration of what London-based ship won the 2012 Carbuncle Cup for poor design: Gipsy Moth IV, Cutty Sark or HMS Belfast?
Cutty Sark.
- (8) A person who is suffering from dysphasia has difficulty doing what specific bodily function?
Speech.
- (9) Which king commissioned the building of Admiralty Arch in London: George VI, Edward VII or William IV?
Edward VII.
- (10) In a game of test cricket under normal match conditions, how many people including the umpires are on the field when the game is in play?
15. (11 players, 2 bats men & 2 umpires)

- (11) Which world leader sang 'Blueberry Hill' at a charity event in 2010: David Cameron, Vladimir Putin or Barak Obama?
Vladimir Putin.
- (12) The Isle of Portland contains the southern most point of which English county?
Dorset.
- (13) Compared to an adult, a human baby is born with over sixty more of what: bones, muscles or tendons?
Bones.
- (14) Which Greek god was also known by the name Phoebus?
Apollo.
- (15) Victory against the French by which 22-year-old Lieutenant Colonel led to the start of the Seven Years' War: Ulysses S. Grant, Abraham Lincoln or George Washington?
George Washington.
- (16) In the Korean electronics company LG, what does LG stand for?
Lucky Goldstar.
- (17) What was the last horse to win the English Triple Crown of the 2,000 Guineas, Derby and St Leger: Camelot, Frankel or Nijinsky?
Nijinsky.
- (18) When erected in 1923, the Hollywood sign in LA initially displayed what longer word?
Hollywoodland.
- (19) Who was reputedly Britain's highest-paid entertainer during the Second World War: George Formby, Arthur Askey or Noël Coward?
George Formby.
- (20) Name the first ten US states alphabetically with six or fewer letters?
Alaska, Hawaii, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Nevada, Ohio, Oregon & Texas.

(21) In what American state is Stamford University?

California.

(22) TV puppet 'Ed the Duck' had what colour hair?

Green.

(23) Which city is the capital of the Australian state Queensland?

Brisbane.

(24) The Statue of Liberty is an iron and steel structure covered in sheets of which metal?

Copper.

(25) A chess player who attains a FIDE rating of more than 2,500 may be awarded what two-word title?

Grand Master.

(26) Which Italian domestic goods manufacture had the advertising slogan "The appliance of science"?

Zanussi.

(27) Preston and Logan are the surnames of which film time travelling duo?

Bill & Ted.

(28) Which technology company is nicknamed 'The Big Blue'?

IBM.

(29) The name of what large religious building comes from the Latin for 'bishop's seat'?

Cathedral.

(30) Which is the only actor to play Dr Who to win an Oscar?

Peter Capaldi.

- (31) In what country was the video games company Atari founded: South Korea, Japan or USA?
USA.
- (32) The adjective 'septimal' relates to what number?
Seven.
- (33) The first name of what actor means 'little bear': Orson Wells, Marlon Brando or Yul Brynner?
Orson Wells.
- (34) In a 1982 referendum, which autonomous territory of Denmark voted to leave the European Union?
Greenland.
- (35) Which party leader once had a cat called Harold Wilson: Jeremy Corbyn, Nigel Farage or David Cameron?
Jeremy Corbyn.
- (36) The Zagros Mountains are mainly in what Asian country?
Iran.
- (37) What is the official language of the Central American country Belize: Dutch, Portuguese or English?
English.
- (38) The name of which small imperial unit of length, is derived from a Latin word meaning a 'twelfth part'?
Inch.
- (39) By what name was Barack Obama known for the early part of his life: Barry, Racky or Oby?
Barry.
- (40) Name the ten Shakespeare comedies or tragedies whose title end in the letters 'E' or 'T'?
As You Like It, Cymbeline, Hamlet, Love's Labour's Lost, Measure for Measure, Romeo and Juliet, The Merchant of Venice, The Tempest, The Winter's Tale & Twelfth Night.