

- (1) Which of these wartime leaders was born first: Stalin, Churchill or Roosevelt?
Churchill.
- (2) Taken off the Formula 1 lists of circuits in 2018, the Sepang motor racing circuit is in which Asian country?
Malaysia.
- (3) In 1764, Stanislaw II became the last king of which country: Romania, Bulgaria or Poland?
Poland.
- (4) As well as being a country, Luxembourg is the name of a province in which other European country?
Belgium.
- (5) Which Verdi opera is set in Berkshire: Falstaff, Macbeth or Othello?
Falstaff.
- (6) What is the two-word proprietary name of the whiskey-based liquor that was originally known as Cuff & Buttons, created by a barman in New Orleans named Martin Wilkes Heron?
Southern Comfort.
- (7) Which TV title character worked for legal company Cage, Fish and Associates: Perry Mason, Kavanagh QC or Ally McBeal?
Ally McBeal.
- (8) What resort calls itself the Pearl of the Dorset coast?
Lyme Regis.
- (9) Which veteran Labour politician wrote the biography "David Lloyd George: The Great Outsider": Roy Hattersley, Neil Kinnock or James Callaghan?
Roy Hattersley.
- (10) What was the first Bond film directed by Sam Mendes?
Skyfall.

- (11) In which city was the USA's first stock exchange established in 1790: Boston, Philadelphia or New York?
Philadelphia.
- (12) Gary Olsen played Ben in what 90s sitcom?
2.4 Children.
- (13) Movement of what part of the body is aided by the extensor digitorum muscle: finger, toe or shoulder?
Finger.
- (14) The Australian port of Brisbane is on what sea?
Coral Sea.
- (15) The artistic term 'avant-garde' was borrowed from what: the government, the law or the military?
The military.
- (16) In 2014, who retired as a 'Match of the Day' pundit after 24 years?
Alan Hansen.
- (17) The company Ryman sells what items: stationery, toiletries or confectionery?
Stationery.
- (18) The theme music for 'The Sky at Night' was by which Finnish composer?
Sibelius.
- (19) What bone in the human body takes its name from the Latin for 'small boat': metatarsal, navicular or calcaneus?
Navicular.
- (20) Name the ten largest oil producing countries in the world according to 2023 production data?
United States, Saudi Arabia, Russia, Canada, China, Iraq, Iran, United Arab Emirates, Brazil & Kuwait.

(21) Supernoodles are made by which food brand?

Bachelor's.

(22) The name of which car company is taken from the initials of a phrase meaning "Italian Car Factory of Turin"?

Fiat.

(23) The Agatha Christie Mile is tourist route in what Devon town?

Torquay.

(24) Churches and Jones are well known brands of what?

Shoes.

(25) What is the colour of Blackthorn blossom?

White.

(26) The play 'A man for All Seasons' is set in what century?

16th.

(27) Which biscuit brand makes 'Penguin' biscuits?

McVities.

(28) Who did John Lennon meet for the first time at the London Art Gallery in 1966?

Yoko Ono.

(29) What four-word caption was used to introduce the cast at the end of 'Dad's Army'?

You have been watching.

(30) The name of what gland in the human body comes from the Greek for shield-shaped?

Thyroid.

- (31) Which newspaper famously named Twiggy as the "Face of '66": the Times, The Guardian or Daily Express?
Daily Express.
- (32) The 'Inti' is a former currency of which South American country?
Peru.
- (33) Except for his own resurrection, what is the only one of Christ's miracles mentioned in all four gospels: raising Lazarus, feeding the 5,000 or turning water into wine?
Feeding the 5,000.
- (34) Nuuk is the capital city of which Danish dependency?
Greenland.
- (35) Who was reputed to have garnered the most votes for the first ever Best Actor Oscar but was passed over for the award: Charlie Chaplin, Harpo Marx or Rin Tin Tin?
Rin Tin Tin.
- (36) From 1967-70 the Biafran War took place in what African country?
Nigeria.
- (37) The Dalai Lama is the most influential figure in what order of Tibetan Buddhists: Red Hat, Yellow hat or Green Hat?
Yellow Hat.
- (38) What word derived from the Algonquian language, denotes a Native American hatchet and is the name of the BGM-109 naval cruise missile?
Tomahawk.
- (39) Launched in 2016, what is the Solent Flyer: hovercraft, car-ferry or steam cruiser?
Hovercraft.
- (40) Name the ten words in the business acronyms FTSE and NASDAQ?
Association, Automated, Dealers, Exchange, Financial, National, Quotation, Securities, Stock & Times.