

- (1) Which English king was born in Caernarfon Castle in 1284: Henry II, Edward II or Richard II?

Edward II.

- (2) In comic books, a grawlix is a string of typographical symbols that represent what?

Swearing.

- (3) What was the nickname of Clash drummer Nick Headon: Topper, Beezer or Dandy?

Topper.

- (4) Singer Pattie Smith collected who's Nobel Prize in 2016?

Bob Dylan.

- (5) 'Dynamic range' is a musical term referring to what: volume, pitch or tempo?

Volume.

- (6) Canvey Island is in what English county?

Essex.

- (7) Which of these UK Prime Ministers was born earliest: Attlee, Baldwin or Churchill?

Baldwin.

- (8) The Netflix TV drama 'Stranger Things' was set in what decade?

1980s.

- (9) 3D Printing was invented in what decade: 1980s, 1990s or 2000s?

1980s.

- (10) Which is the only African country to have coastlines on Atlantic and Mediterranean?

Morocco.

- (11) "Length before strength" is a maxim used in what card game: Canasta, Bridge or Rummy?
Bridge.
- (12) What is the largest bird native to the Americas?
Rhea.
- (13) Which poet wrote the lines "This is the way the world ends / Not with a bang but a whimper": William Wordsworth, John Keats or T.S. Eliot?
T.S. Eliot.
- (14) What number is known in German as funfzig?
50.
- (15) Which of these country houses is Elizabethan: Burghley House, Blenheim Palace or Badminton House?
Burghley House.
- (16) What four-letter Latin word usually translated as 'let it be done' is used in English as a term for an official decree or authorisation and is also the name of a car manufacturer?
Fiat.
- (17) According to the Bible, which of these people lived longest: Abraham, Enoch or Noah?
Noah.
- (18) Which furniture retailer known by three initials went into administration in 2008?
MFI. (Mullard Furniture Industries)
- (19) The kernels of what type of fruit gives the liqueur Disaronno its distinctive almond flavours: apricot, cherry or blackberry?
Apricot.
- (20) Name the ten members of the royal family in the line of succession to the throne?
Prince William, Prince George, Princess Charlotte, Prince Louis, Prince Harry, Prince Archie, Princess Lilibet, Prince Andrew, Princess Beatrice & Sienna Mapelli Mozzi. (11th Athena Elizabeth Rose Mapelli Mozzi)

(21) What is second longest river in Africa?

Congo.

(22) Doctor Bunsen Honeydew was a character in what children's TV show?

The Muppets.

(23) Who was the first British driver to win the Monaco Grand Prix?

Stirling Moss.

(24) In the children's books, which monkey is a friend of the man in the yellow hat?

Curious George.

(25) What is the only eight-letter word in the NATO phonetic alphabet?

November.

(26) In the 1980s, the multi-sport event called 'The Friendship Games' was organised mainly for countries that were staging a boycott of the Summer Olympics being held in which city?

Los Angeles.

(27) Which country of mainland Africa extends furthest east?

Somalia.

(28) In what decade did the UK first win the Eurovision Song Contest?

1960s.

(29) What number follows 8 in the Fibonacci sequence?

13.

(30) Which gas giant is the least dense planet in our solar system and the only one with a lower density than water?

Saturn.

- (31) The Roman Catholic cathedral in which Midlands city is dedicated to Saint Chad of Mercia: Birmingham, Nottingham or Coventry?
Birmingham.
- (32) Which East Coast mainline railway station is named after a Walter Scott novel?
Edinburgh Waverley.
- (33) Who became King of England in the same year that Nicholas Breakspear became Adrian IV, the only English Pope: Edward II, Henry II or Richard I?
Henry II.
- (34) Which female newsreader originally hosted TV's Top Gear?
Angela Rippon.
- (35) Which of these New Zealand cities is on South Island: Hamilton, Wellington or Nelson?
Nelson.
- (36) Standing on the banks of the Karnaphuli river, Chittagong is the second city and chief port of which country?
Bangladesh.
- (37) During PMQ's how many questions can the Leader of the Opposition ask: 2, 4 or 6?
Six.
- (38) Which English monarch's reign lasted for more than half of the 13th century?
Henry III.
- (39) What is the most populous European island outside the British Isles: Sicily, Cyprus or Majorca?
Sicily.
- (40) According to an AA survey in July 2024, what are the ten objects most commonly driven into in single vehicle incidents resulting in damage by drivers?
Wall, kerb, bollard, tree, barrier, lamppost, gate, fence, pothole & garage or garage door.