

- (1) The Star of Africa diamond is set in which item of the Crown Jewels: Royal Sceptre, Orb or Sword of State?
Royal Sceptre.
- (2) What was the name of the gerbil that was best friends with Roland Rat?
Kevin.
- (3) Which of these states or territories of Australia has hosted the Commonwealth Games: Northern Territories, South Australia or Western Australia?
Western Australia.
- (4) What Ian Fleming estate gave its name to a Bond film?
Goldeneye.
- (5) At the 1948 London Olympics, who managed the Great Britain football team: Alf Ramsey, Bill Shankly or Matt Busby?
Matt Busby.
- (6) Alice Asher in Andover is the first victim in which Agatha Christie novel?
The ABC Murders.
- (7) What New York borough lends its name to a bar graph, used in cricket, to show a team's progress in an innings: Queens, Brooklyn or Manhattan?
Manhattan.
- (8) The Max Rebo Band is a fictional alien music group in which films?
Star Wars.
- (9) How old was King Charles III when his younger brother Edward was born: 11, 13 or 15?
15.
- (10) In the early 1900s, John McLaughlin invented the dry type of ginger ale in what country?
Canada.

(11) In Hinduism, of what is Skanda the god: water, wealth or war?

War.

(12) Red Baron and Red Ray are varieties of what vegetable?

Onion.

(13) What number was painted on the side of 'The Dukes of Hazzard' car 'The General Lee': 01, 02 or 03?

01.

(14) What word does a chess opponent say to indicate that your king is in jeopardy?

Check.

(15) In 'The Simpsons', which character has the catchphrase 'Excellent': Mr. Burns, Otto or Ned Flanders?

Mr. Burns.

(16) The character Father Wolf wakes at the start of what Rudyard Kipling work?

Jungle Book.

(17) Which of these is known as a 'gricer': stamp collector, railway enthusiast or plane spotter?

Railway enthusiast.

(18) What coalition was lead by Mussolini, Hitler and Tojo?

Axis Powers.

(19) Petrichor is the smell of what: rain, burnt toast or new car?

Rain.

(20) Name the ten most traded currencies in the world in 2025?

US Dollar, Euro, Japanese Yen, British Pound, Australian Dollar, Canadian Dollar, Swiss Franc, Chinese Yuan/Renminbi, Hong Kong Dollar & New Zealand Dollar.

(21) In Monopoly, what two-words appear outside the jail walls?

Just Visiting.

(22) What are the two on-pitch officials called in a game of hockey called?

Umpires.

(23) What is the smallest of the four terrestrial planets?

Mercury.

(24) What is the northernmost of the Baltic States?

Estonia.

(25) What was the third Bond film title song sung by Shirley Bassey?

Moonraker.

(26) What South African company is famous for using the slogan "A diamond is forever"?

De Beers.

(27) Who was the first woman to be President of Ireland?

Mary Robinson.

(28) In what year did the last Anglo-Saxon King of England die?

1066.

(29) What name is given to a young walrus?

Calf.

(30) Sedgemoor is in what English county?

Somerset.

- (31) Mirandese is an official language in what European country: Malta, Serbia or Portugal?
Portugal.
- (32) A Colombard is a widely consumed variety of what alcoholic drink?
Wine.
- (33) In 2007, what African country overtook Ireland in sales of Guinness: Nigeria, South Africa or Kenya?
Nigeria.
- (34) What TV series did ITV introduce in the 1970s to rival the BBC's 'Holiday' show?
Wish You Were Here.
- (35) What UK girl group was made up of the three Higgins sisters, Cleo, Yonah and Zainam: Precious, Cleopatra or Honeyz?
Cleopatra.
- (36) What Asian capital city stands on the Red River?
Hanoi.
- (37) The isthmus of which country is considered the point at which North and South America are connected: Costa Rica, Panama or Honduras?
Panama.
- (38) Five minutes fifty-four seconds is the Guinness World Record for running the mile how?
Backwards.
- (39) Holding over 500 of his works, what London museum is home to one of the world's most important collections of Picasso: British Museum, National Gallery or Tate Britain?
British Museum.
- (40) Name the ten subjects studied by Harry Potter at Hogwarts?
Astronomy, Care of Magical Creatures, Charms, Defence Against the Dark Arts, Divination, Flying, Herbology, History of Magic, Potions & Transfiguration.