

(1) In Shakespeare, who meets the witches with Macbeth: Banquo, Malcolm or Duncan?

Banquo.

(2) What is the US equivalent of Remembrance Day?

Veterans' Day

(3) A fungus appearing in Sri Lanka in 1869 wiped out what crop, prompting an increase in tea production: cocoa, coffee or corn?

Coffee.

(4) What Ridley Scott film featured the Tyrell Corporation?

Blade Runner.

(5) What was the only James Dean film released before his death in 1955: Giant, Rebel Without a Cause or East of Eden?

East of Eden.

(6) In folklore who kills Guy of Gisbourne?

Robin Hood.

(7) How old was Alexander the Great when he died: 22, 32 or 42?

32.

(8) Romance languages are derived from what language?

Latin.

(9) In 1941, who played the title role in the classic horror film 'The Wolf Man': Boris Karloff, Lon Chaney Jr or Bela Lugosi?

Lon Chaney, Jr.

(10) What creature did Robert Burns describe as "wee and sleeket"?

Mouse.

- (11) The Ebro Delta is a wetlands nature park in what European country: Spain, Portugal or France?
Spain.
- (12) What is the medical name for the wrist?
Carpus.
- (13) Joan, 'The Fair Maid of Kent', was the mother of which English king: Richard I, Richard II or Richard III?
Richard II.
- (14) The island of Curaçao is part of what European kingdom?
Netherlands.
- (15) How many wives did Charlie Chaplin have: four, five or six?
Four.
- (16) How many kings of Scotland were named Alexander?
Three.
- (17) The title character of what 1940s film lived in a mansion called 'Xanadu': Mrs. Miniver, The Great Dictator or Citizen Kane?
Citizen Kane.
- (18) Shakespeare wrote Macbeth during the reign of which king?
James I.
- (19) A poisoned book is central to the plot of what novel: The Black Tulip, The Scarlet Pimpernel or The Name of the Rose?
The Name of the Rose.
- (20) According to a survey commissioned by Warburtons in 2018, name the ten most popular sandwich fillings in the UK. Each answer is a 'single' ingredient commonly used as a filling in a sandwich, some items might be considered a garnish and 'salad' is not an acceptable answer, separate salad items are included in the ten? (Single word answers only)
Cheese, ham, sausage, egg, tuna, chicken, bacon, onion, pickle & cucumber.

(21) How are John and Edward Grimes better known?

Jedward.

(22) In 1948, Rudolph Dassler founded what German sportswear brand?

Puma.

(23) As Labour leader, Harold Wilson lost how many general elections?

One.

(24) 'Out of Your Mind' was a solo hit for which Spice Girl?

Victoria Beckham.

(25) What US television award statute depicts a winged woman holding an atom?

Emmy.

(26) Who was the first British athlete to win four Olympic gold medals on the track?

Mo Farah.

(27) In the dish Scotch woodcock, how are the eggs cooked?

Scrambled.

(28) Julius Caesar was married how many times?

Three.

(29) Katy Perry has provided the voice of which Smurf?

Smurfette.

(30) Hogan's Bridge crosses Rae's Creek on which US golf course?

Augusta.

- (31) What is the three-letter code of the currency of Bolivia: BOL, BOV or BOB?
BOB.
- (32) What Asian country used to be called Portuguese Timor?
East Timor.
- (33) In 1958, Boris Pasternak declined which of these awards: Nobel Prize, Oscar or Knighthood?
Nobel Prize.
- (34) What Swiss city is home to the football club 'Grasshoppers'?
Zurich.
- (35) In science, the prefix 'thio-' indicates the presence of what element: silver, strontium or sulphur?
Sulphur.
- (36) What was the age of majority in England and Wales before 1970?
21.
- (37) How many African countries have a population greater than that of the UK: 4, 6 or 8?
4.
- (38) What Caribbean spice comes from the dried unripe fruits of the pimenta tree?
All spice.
- (39) What is Madonna's biggest-selling UK single: Into The Groove, Papa Don't Preach or Like A Virgin?
Into the Groove.
- (40) Name the ten Thames bridges in central London with pedestrian access? (These are the bridges that lie to the east of Chelsea Bridge, not including rail only bridges)
Vauxhall Bridge, Lambeth Bridge, Westminster Bridge, Golden Jubilee Bridge, Waterloo Bridge, Blackfriars Bridge, Millennium Bridge, Southwark Bridge, London Bridge & Tower Bridge.