

- (1) In a monastery, what was a room called a 'dorter' used for: eating, sleeping or praying?

Sleeping.

- (2) What Russian car company produced the Riva and Niva?

Lada.

- (3) What is the first name of the Ian Fleming character Dr No: Augustus, Claudius or Julius?

Julius.

- (4) What 2018 film featured the comic book villain 'Black Manta'?

Aquaman.

- (5) Before the rules of golf changed in 1952, if an opponent's ball was obstructing your line, you were said to be... what: snookered, stymied or shackled?

Stymied.

- (6) Native to England, what insect is a Blue Plunder?

Beetle.

- (7) What do NASA engineers eat during launches for good luck: peanuts, fortune cookies or pretzels?

Peanuts.

- (8) Which Scottish liquors name comes from the Gaelic for the 'drink that satisfies'?

Drambuie.

- (9) In New England, a 'quahogger' harvests what shellfish: clams, lobsters or crabs?

Clams.

- (10) In what year was the second moon landing by the crew of Apollo 12?

1969. (14th November)

- (11) Which of these famous explorers was born first: Vasco da Gama, Christopher Columbus or Marco Polo?
Marco Polo. (13th century)
- (12) The Black Country derby is between West Bromwich Albion and what other club?
Wolverhampton Wanderers.
- (13) In 1963, Labour politician Tony Benn renounced what peerage rank: Duke, Viscount or Marquis?
Viscount. (Stansgate)
- (14) In Greek mythology, the name of what lost land meant 'Island of Atlas'?
Atlantis.
- (15) Who was American President in between Grover Cleveland's two separate terms in office: Benjamin Harrison, Chester Arthur or James Garfield?
Benjamin Harrison.
- (16) What sit-com regularly featured one of the characters playing three notes on a Xylophone?
Hi-De-Hi.
- (17) Canterbury is home to a museum dedicated to which bear: Rupert, Paddington or Biffo the Bear?
Rupert.
- (18) The Jutland is a breed of horse from what European country?
Denmark.
- (19) What country flies its flag upside down if it is at war: Poland, Philippines or Panama?
Philippines.
- (20) Name the ten-first class men's English county cricket teams whose name ends in 'SHIRE'
Derbyshire, Gloucestershire, Hampshire, Lancashire, Leicestershire, Northamptonshire, Nottinghamshire, Warwickshire, Worcestershire & Yorkshire.

- (21) What American river is nicknamed 'The Big Muddy'?
- Missouri. (The Mississippi's nickname is 'Old man River')
- (22) Ben Grimm is the real name of what Fantastic Four character?
- The Thing.
- (23) The Defence of the Realm Act were laws passed during what war?
- World War I.
- (24) In an alphabetical list of US states, which one comes last?
- Wyoming.
- (25) In what Olympic sport are competitors judged from starting position to entry?
- Diving.
- (26) What colour are Mickey Mouse's shoes?
- Yellow.
- (27) Jenny Shipley was the first female Prime Minister of which Commonwealth country?
- New Zealand.
- (28) The feathers of what bird feature on the Welsh rugby union badge?
- Ostrich.
- (29) The name Melissa comes from the Greek for what flying insect?
- Bee.
- (30) What team sport features long and short corners?
- Hockey.

- (31) In 2018, which of these EU countries had a smaller population than London: Belgium, Greece or Denmark?
Denmark.
- (32) The Porteous Riots of 1796 took place in what UK city?
Edinburgh.
- (33) In maths, the so-called 'golden ratio' is represented by what Greek letter: Pi, Phi or Psi?
Phi.
- (34) In the children's TV show 'In the Night Garden', which character appears at the beginning of each episode in a small sailing boat?
Igglypiggle.
- (35) What name is given to the small group of islands off the mouth of Loch Broom near Ullapool in Scotland: Summer Isles, Autumn Isles or Winter Isles?
Summer Isles.
- (36) In the Gregorian calendar, the 200th day of the year falls in which month?
July.
- (37) Which of these UK defensive fortifications were built in the Second World War: Martello towers, Palmerston forts or Maunsell forts?
Maunsell forts.
- (38) Full Sutton Maximum Security Prison is around ten miles east of which city in the north of England?
York.
- (39) On what part of the body would you find the fold of skin called the epicanthus: eye, throat or ear?
Eye.
- (40) Name the ten six-letter words that end in the letters 'ALE'? No hyphenated words, apostrophes or any word spelt with an initial capital letter, like a place name or name)
Exhale, female, finale, impale, inhale, locale, morale, rafale, regale & resale.