

(1) Usually, what is the maximum number of seats in a New York theatre classed as 'Off-Off-Broadway': 29, 49 or 99?

99.

(2) Stannum is the Latin name for what metallic chemical element?

Tin.

(3) Darwin's tubercles are found in what part of the body: ear, brain or mouth?

Ear.

(4) Which British Singer produces the Vida Nova range of Portuguese wines?

Cliff Richard.

(5) Who was the first monarch to come to the British throne following the Act of Settlement: George I, George IV or George VI?

George I.

(6) Which actor co-starred with Katherine Hepburn in nine films?

Spencer Tracy.

(7) To whom does Humphrey Bogart deliver the final line in the film 'Casablanca': Ingrid Bergman, Claude Rains or Peter Lorre?

Claude Rains.

(8) Verdi's opera Aida is set during the war between Egypt and what country?

Ethiopia.

(9) The protagonist from the 'Metal Gear Solid' video game franchise shares his name with what animal: hawk, snake or shark?

Snake.

(10) What colour is known as 'bruna' in Esperanto?

Brown.

- (11) Which of these Nobel Prize-winning scientist's initials are NOT a chemical symbol on the periodic table: Albert Einstein, Paul Dirac or Ernest Rutherford?
Albert Einstein. (Pd-Palladium, Er-Erbium)
- (12) In what nursery rhyme did 'Little Tommy Stout' rescue a drowned pussy?
Ding Dong Bell.
- (13) Which international organisation has its origins in the post-war 'Schuman Plan': United Nations, NATO or European Union?
European Union.
- (14) What four-letter term is used to describe community-wide polluted air?
Smog.
- (15) Which of these Biblical figures does NOT appear in the Old Testament: Zadok, Zebedee or Zipporah?
Zebedee.
- (16) Native to southern Africa, what type of creature is the rinkhals?
Snake.
- (17) What factor determines the gender of an alligator before it hatches: egg size, temperature or time of year?
Temperature.
- (18) In Greek mythology, which hero caught, tamed and rode Pegasus?
Bellerophon.
- (19) What brand is credited with introducing tea bags to the UK in 1953: Typhoo, PG Tips or Tetley?
Tetley.
- (20) Name the ten capital cities of mainland EU countries with the longest names?
Bratislava, Copenhagen, Luxembourg, Amsterdam, Bucharest, Ljubljana, Stockholm, Brussels, Budapest & Helsinki.

- (21) 'A Mind of its Own' was a top ten solo hit for which Spice Girl?
Victoria Beckham.
- (22) The condition nyctalopia affects which of the senses?
Sight.
- (23) Who do Cambridge United play in the Cambridgeshire derby?
Peterborough United.
- (24) Which African mammal is the world's largest ruminant?
Giraffe.
- (25) What multi-national video games company was founded as a playing card company in 1889?
Nintendo.
- (26) What 70s toy had two plastic balls on strings that banged together rapidly?
Clackers.
- (27) In China, which single-digit number is considered to be the most unlucky?
Four.
- (28) 2017, which London Mayor was GQ's Politician of the Year?
Sadiq Khan.
- (29) What term refers to running races that range in distance from 800 to 3,000 metres?
Middle distance.
- (30) In JK Rowling's books what type of creature is a Ukrainian Ironbelly?
Dragon.

(31) The name 'Foehn' for a warm, dry wind down the leeward side of a mountain originated in what range: the Andes, the Appalachians or the Alps?

The Alps.

(32) Which king of England was born in The Hague, 1650?

William III.

(33) The adjective 'superciliary' refers to what part of the body: earlobe, eyebrow or elbow?

Eyebrow.

(34) John Lackland was the son of which king of England?

Henry II.

(35) A 'thalassophile' is someone who loves what: the oceans, the mountains or the skies?

The oceans.

(36) What is the official language of Myanmar?

Burmese.

(37) Who was the last British prime minister to have been born in the 19th century: Harold Macmillan, Alec Douglas-Home or Harold Wilson?

Harold Macmillan.

(38) Eagle was a spacecraft used on what number Apollo mission?

11.

(39) A feuilleté is made with what type of pastry: puff, shortcrust or choux?

Puff.

(20) According to Horse & Hound magazine, name ten of the fifteen most famous racehorses of all time?

Frankel, Red Rum, Galileo, Arkle, Desert Orchid, Secretariat, Kauto Star, Winx, American Pharoah, Denman, Enable, Best Mate, Seabiscuit, Aldaniti & Shergar.