

- (1) The name of what chemical element is made up of the chemical symbols for iridium, oxygen and nitrogen: Indium, Iodine or Iron?
Iron.
- (2) At the Aintree Grand National meeting, on what day of the week is Ladies Day?
Friday.
- (3) The flag of which British overseas territory features St Ursula: British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands or Falkland Islands?
British Virgin Islands.
- (4) 'Dinner Takes All' was the US version of which UK TV cooking series?
Come Dine with Me.
- (5) Which Scottish king died in 1460 when one of his cannons exploded next to him: James I, James II or James III?
James II.
- (6) What animal was George on TV's Blue Peter?
Tortoise.
- (7) Gareth and Matthew are a couple in which Richard Curtis rom-com: Notting Hill, Four Weddings and a Funeral or Love Actually?
Four Weddings and a Funeral. (Simon Callow & John Hanna)
- (8) 'The Last of the President's Men' is a book about which US President?
Richard Nixon.
- (9) What is the largest Arab country by area: Algeria, Saudi Arabia or Sudan?
Algeria.
- (10) A brocket is a young male of what animal?
Deer.

(11) The Met Office claim that how many people in the UK suffer from hay fever: 1 in 5, 1 in 8 or 1 in 10?

1 in 5.

(12) Kinder Scout is the highest point in what UK National Park?

Peak District.

(13) The word 'thalassic' describes animals that live where: in deserts, in trees or in the sea?

In the sea.

(14) In Greek mythology, the name of what woman means 'all gifts'?

Pandora.

(15) The Norse goddess Idun was the keeper of what magical objects: figs of invisibility, apples of immortality or oranges of fertility?

Apples of immortality.

(16) In chess notation an upper case 'K' is used for what piece?

King.

(17) There are roughly how many nephrons in each human kidney: one, one thousand or one million?

One million.

(18) The Dalmatian and the Australian are species of which large-billed bird?

Pelican.

(19) Which Shakespeare play is a story about a son pursuing the murderer of his father: Cymbeline, Hamlet or Othello?

Hamlet.

(20) According to a Zoopla, what are the ten most common road name endings in the UK, excluding the word 'road'?

Close, Street, Avenue, Lane, Drive, Way, Court, Place, Gardens & Crescent.

- (21) What sport is the focus of the documentary 'Take the Ball, Pass the Ball'?
- Football.
- (22) Number 1 Cup is a variety of what brand of alcoholic drink?
- Pimms.
- (23) How many US states have the word 'south' in their name?
- Two.
- (24) Which horserace was named after a country house near Epsom?
- The Oaks.
- (25) What is the only English city where all the letters in its name are in the second half of the alphabet?
- Truro.
- (26) Semaphore flags are usually red and what other colour?
- Yellow.
- (27) In the House of Commons, on which day of the week are Private Members Bills usually debated?
- Friday.
- (28) David Attenborough was the controller of which channel in the 1960s?
- BBC2.
- (29) Tiddy Oggy is a slang term for what Cornish dish?
- Pasty.
- (30) The Fleet is a covered sewer in what city?
- London.

- (31) Which of these Hollywood blondes was born first: Jean Harlow, Mae West or Carole Lombard?
Mae West.
- (32) If Italy has two, South Africa has one and no other countries of the world have any at all, what are they?
Enclaves. (Vatican & San Marino - Lesotho)
- (33) Which players in a rugby scrum are known as 'the engine room': props, flankers or locks?
The locks.
- (34) Which Oscar-winning actor shares his first name with a Caribbean country?

Cuba Gooding Jr.
- (35) What organ of the body is affected by alveolitis: lung, liver or stomach?
Lung.
- (36) The hallmark indicating the purity of sterling silver is usually what animal?
Lion.
- (37) Which of these lines does NOT appear in the Robert Louis Stevenson novel 'Treasure Island': Ah, Jim lad! Shiver my timbers! Or Pieces of eight!?
Ah, Jim lad!
- (38) What animal can come before daisy, rose and violet in the names of flowers?

Dog.
- (39) The argan tree is native to what continent: Europe, Africa or Asia?

Africa.
- (40) Name the ten words of five letters or more in a police caution?

Anything, defence, mention, questioned, something, which, later, court, given & evidence.