

- (1) The US state of Illinois is nicknamed 'The Land of...' which president: Jefferson, Lincoln or Washington?
Lincoln.
- (2) The town of Leyland is in what English county?
Lancashire.
- (3) What is the English translation of the Latin term 'sanctum sanctorum': king of kings, ashes to ashes or holy of holies?
Holy of holies.
- (4) Which pop stars 'Black Album' was originally called 'The Funk Bible'?
Prince.
- (5) Which of these fictional spacecraft was built by the Corellian Engineering Corporation: Battlestar Galactica, USS Enterprise or Millennium Falcon?
Millennium Falcon.
- (6) What company makes the Les Paul guitar?
Gibson.
- (7) In what decade were hurricanes first given male as well as female names: 1970s, 1980s or 1990s?
1970s.
- (8) In boxing, what are the corners of the ring called that are not assigned to a fighter?
Neutral corners.
- (9) In what type of building did the Brontë sisters live: vicarage, rectory or Parsonage?
Parsonage.
- (10) What is the only chemical element to have a name ending in the letter 'T'?
Cobalt.

- (11) Franz Joseph was Emperor of Austria for how many years: 48 years, 58 years or 68 years?
68 years.
- (12) What three-letter word for a demon is the currency code for the Isle of Man pound?
Imp.
- (13) The Irish dramatist George Bernard Shaw divided his first seven plays into what two categories: Comedic & Tragic, Whimsical & Volatile or Pleasant & Unpleasant?
Pleasant & Unpleasant.
- (14) What is the common name for a chicken's Furcula?
Wishbone.
- (15) "Piff Paff Poof" was the catchphrase of which TV magician: Ali Bongo, David Nixon or The Great Soprendo?
The Great Soprendo. (Geoffrey Durham)
- (16) In Greek mythology which Olympian god gave King Midas the ears of an ass?
Apollo.
- (17) What is the most commonly played word in tournament Scrabble: AT, ON or QI?
QI.
- (18) What was the first song to win the Eurovision Song Contest having been sung in a language other than that of its own country?
Waterloo by Abba in 1974.
- (19) Which of these adjectives denotes a man who is alluringly dark, mysterious, and moody: Byronic, Shakespearean or Freudian?
Byronic.
- (20) Name the ten UN member country's national capital cities that are closest to Reykjavik?
Dublin, Oslo, London, Amsterdam, Copenhagen, Brussels, Stockholm, Paris, Luxembourg & Berlin.

- (21) In a game of Cluedo, what room comes first alphabetically?
- Ballroom.
- (22) The GMex was the former name of a venue in which English city?
- Manchester.
- (23) What computer manufacturer shared its name with a rank in the Royal Navy?
- Commodore.
- (24) From the Latin for 'roof' the 'tectum' is part of what organ?
- The brain.
- (25) How many times has India hosted the Commonwealth Games?
- Once.
- (26) What toy used for walking consists of a pair of poles with footrests?
- Stilts.
- (27) Bodhi Rook appears in what stand-alone 'Star Wars' film?
- Rogue One.
- (28) In what sport can you incur a loose ball foul?
- Basketball.
- (29) How many Chancellor's served under Margaret Thatcher in the 1980s?
- Three.
- (30) The Islamic calendar has how many months?
- Twelve.

- (31) Actor Robson Green has what unusual middle name: Golightly, Audrey or Tiffany?
Golightly.
- (32) Which Generation Game assistant also hosted 'Come Dancing'?
Rosemary Ford.
- (33) How many official languages does South Africa have: three, seven or eleven?
Eleven.
- (34) The Lion Water test is used in chemistry to detect the presence which gas?
Carbon dioxide.
- (35) The kiwi fruit originated in the valley of what river: Swan, Yangtze or Waikato?
Yangtze.
- (36) Which fictional 90s TV American town would you be walking through if you came across Big Ed's Gas Farm, The Double R Diner and the Great Northern Hotel?
Twin Peaks.
- (37) What muscle keeps the trunk of the human body in an erect posture: gluteus maximus, pectoralis major or extensor digitorum?
Gluteus maximus.
- (38) What name is given to the regular sum paid instead of a salary to a member of the clergy?
Stipend.
- (39) The imposter Perkin Warbeck claimed to be which king: Charles II, Richard IV or William V?
Richard IV.
- (40) Name the last three 'A Question of Sport' hosts and last seven team captains before the programme was scrapped in 2023?
Paddy McGuinness, Sue Barker, David Coleman, Sam Quek, Ugo Monye, Matt Dawson, Phi Tufnell, Ally McCoist, Frankie Dettori & John Parrot.