

- (1) Which biblical event happened on the side of Mount Horeb: the Burning Bush, Crucifixion of Jesus or Sermon on the Mount?

Burning bush.

- (2) Elizabeth Taylor starred with which actor in his third and final film?

James Dean.

- (3) Which of these American song-writers was born in Europe: Cole Porter, Jerome Kern or Irving Berlin?

Irving Berlin.

- (4) Which King was the last Duke of York before Prince Andrew?

George VI.

- (5) Which of these films did John Travolta feature in first: Saturday Night Fever, Carrie or Grease?

Carrie.

- (6) US actor Tom Kenny voices what cartoon character?

SpongeBob Squarepants.

- (7) Which country is the setting for the operas 'La Bohème' and 'La Traviata': France, Italy or Spain?

France.

- (8) In his swimming career, Michael Phelps only won three medals of what colour?

Silver.

- (9) 'Eupepsy' is an old-fashioned word for good what: eyesight, balance or digestion?

Digestion.

- (10) In 1978, who was the first British female artist to have a UK Number One with a self-penned song?

Kate Bush.

- (11) Which king is on the throne in the 'Brother Cadfael' stories: Stephen, Richard I or John?
Stephen.
- (12) Nuuk is the capital of what large island?
Greenland.
- (13) A 'choleric' person is prone to what: anger, sadness or illness?
Anger.
- (14) BB-9E is a First Order Spherical in what sci-fi film series?
Star Wars.
- (15) The Sealed Knot Society re-enacts events from what century in English history: 11th, 14th or 17th?
17th century. (English Civil War)
- (16) Don Pickles provided the voice for which 'Toy Story' character?
Mr Potato head.
- (17) The name of which of these shapes is both a noun and a verb: square, pentagon or hexagon?
Square.
- (18) In what religion is Iblis a name for the devil?
Islam.
- (19) Which of these words can be described as a 'portmanteau' word: splash, stats or smog?
Smog. (Smoke & fog)
- (20) Name the first ten Mediterranean countries of mainland Europe that border the Mediterranean Sea when going clockwise from Gibraltar? (No island countries?)
Spain, France, Monaco, Italy, Slovenia, Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, Albania & Greece.

(21) Future President Richard Nixon was elected to what office in 1952?

Vice President.

(22) What colour is the Rosetta stone?

Black.

(23) Adelaide Strikers are a team in what sport?

Cricket.

(24) Ruby is the birthstone of what summer month?

July.

(25) In what Bond film did Roger Moore take on Mr Big?

Live and Let Die.

(26) Who is the oldest member of the group Take That?

Howard Donald.

(27) What card game is won by the first person to reach 121 points?

Cribbage.

(28) What word follows Bath and Cheltenham in the names of two railway stations?

Spa.

(29) What name for a shade of dark red is derived from a French word for a chestnut?

Maroon.

(30) Which former Prime Minister has the middle names Charles Lynton?

Tony Blair.

- (31) The game Eton Fives is most similar to which of these sports: tennis, squash or badminton?
Squash.
- (32) The name of what small country is thought to mean 'at the end of Tibet'?
Bhutan.
- (33) What is Branston Pickle named after: a family, a village or a house?
Village.
- (34) A leopard's head is part of the hallmark applied to precious metals by the Assay office in which UK city?
London.
- (35) The term 'gallinaceous' refers to a group of what type of creatures: birds, fish or insects?
Birds.
- (36) Who was the only 18th century king NOT called George?
William III.
- (37) Which magic double act was known for its use of white tigers and lions: Penn & Teller, Siegfried & Roy or Barry & Stuart?
Siegfried & Roy.
- (38) Who was Prime Minister when the atom bomb was dropped on Hiroshima?
Clement Attlee.
- (39) "If you tickle us, do we not laugh?" is a quote from which Shakespeare character: Iago, Malvolio or Shylock?
Shylock.
- (40) Name the ten elements of the periodic table whose names and symbols do NOT start with the same letter?
Sodium, potassium, iron, silver, tin, antimony, tungsten, gold, mercury & lead.