

- (1) The venue for which Grand Slam tournament is home to the world's largest tennis arena: Australian Open, Wimbledon or US Open?
US Open.
- (2) According to the Co-Op Funeral Services in 2021, what 1963 UK Number One replaced Frank Sinatra's 'My Way' as the most requested songs played at funerals?
You'll Never Walk Alone.
- (3) What reptile appears on the flag of the Cayman Islands: turtle, crocodile or snake?
Turtle.
- (4) The Territorial Army changed its name to what in 2014?
Army Reserve.
- (5) Which of these Romans was NOT an Emperor: Julius Caesar, Augustus or Marcus Aurelius?
Julius Caesar.
- (6) Historically, what trade was carried out by a 'webbster'?
Weaving.
- (7) Which restaurant received the UK's first Michelin star in 1974: The Fat Duck, The Ivy or Le Gavroche?
Le Gavroche.
- (8) What is the fruit of a mirabelle tree?
Plum.
- (9) The orbit of which planet is approximately the same length as the average UK life expectancy: Saturn, Uranus or Neptune?
Uranus.
- (10) How were Fleegle, Bingo, Drooper & Snorky collectively known?
The Banana Splits.

- (11) Which cycling event consists of a number of different types of race: Keirin, Madison or Omnium?
Omnium.
- (12) In 2021 Lewis Hamilton became the fourth F1 driver to be knighted, name the other three?
Jackie Stewart, Stirling Moss & Jack Brabham.
- (13) How many melting watches feature in the painting 'The Persistence of Memory' by Salvador Dalí: one, three or five?
Three.
- (14) What large islands marks the southern boundary of the Aegean Sea?
Crete.
- (15) In Greek mythology, Iphicles was the half-brother of which hero: Heracles, Perseus or Theseus?
Heracles.
- (16) Which European country has the highest ratio of tourists to permanent residents?
Vatican City.
- (17) What South American country was named after the large amount of a type of wood that was found there: Brazil, Ecuador or Paraguay?
Brazil.
- (18) Which are the only two letters of the alphabet that don't appear on the periodic table?
J & Q.
- (19) Which English king succeeded his grandfather: Richard I, Richard II or Richard III?
Richard II.
- (20) Name the first ten colours mentioned in the song 'Joseph's Coat', from the musical 'Joseph's Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat'
Red, yellow, green, brown, blue, scarlet, black, ochre (oak-er), peach & ruby.

- (21) What is the second smallest Sovereign State in the world?
- Monaco. (Vatican being the 1st)
- (22) What is usually the cargo on a ship called a VLCC?
- Oil, (Very Large Crude Carrier).
- (23) Which amendment to the US Constitution gives its citizens the right to 'keep and bear arms'?
- 2nd.
- (24) In what decade of the 20th century did Sweden transfer from driving on the left to driving on the right?
1960. (1967)
- (25) The Dee Stakes is run at which racecourse?
- Chester.
- (26) Which nocturnal African mammal is also known as the 'ant bear'?
- Aardvark.
- (27) What is the common name of vitamin B9 as given in tablet form too pregnant women?
- Folic acid.
- (28) Which is the largest feline species native to the America's?
- Jaguar.
- (29) What country knocked England out of the 1990 FIFA World Cup finals on penalties?
- West Germany.
- (30) What type of fish is a 'Mako'?
- Shark.

- (31) Which Oscar-winning film director declined a knighthood in 2012: Danny Boyle, Sam Mendes or Tom Hooper?
Danny Boyle.
- (32) The shortest distance between two stations on the London Underground is the 260m between Covent Garden and Leicester Square, but which line is this on?
Piccadilly Line.
- (33) In 1959, which Hollywood star opened the new Chiswick Flyover: Jayne Mansfield, Lauren Bacall or Judy Garland?
Jayne Mansfield.
- (34) In 1997, who was the first Englishman to captain the Lions rugby team in recent history?
Martin Johnson.
- (35) In which century did the most monarchs sit on the British throne: 18th, 19th or 20th?
20th century.
- (36) The word 'decussate' denotes two or more items that intersect to form a shape resembling which letter of the alphabet?
X.
- (37) Which of these nuts contains the most calories per ounce: almond, cashew or pecan?
Pecan.
- (38) What are the three kingdoms of Africa?
Morocco, Swaziland and Lesotho.
- (39) What word is spelt incorrectly on the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia: assembly, province or Pennsylvania?
Pennsylvania. (Pensylvania)
- (40) Name the eleven cities in England whose name contains the letters 'X' or 'Y'? (Can't accept the letter 'Y' when used in the word 'city' like City of Westminster or City of London)?
Canterbury, Coventry, Derby, Ely, Exeter, Newcastle upon Tyne, Milton Keynes, Oxford, Plymouth, Salisbury & York.