

- (1) What name is given to the part of the hand between the bottom of the thumb and the wrist: heel, ankle or toe?
Heel.
- (2) Equatorial Guinea is the only African country to have which European language as an official language?
Spanish.
- (3) In Shakespeare's 'Julius Caesar' what is heard in Act 2 Scene 1: a clock, a trombone or a parrot?
A clock.
- (4) The Royal navy's flagship during the Falklands conflict in 1982 shared its name with which figure from Greek mythology?
Hermes.
- (5) What is the call-sign of an aircraft carrying the Pope: Vatican One, Peter One or Shepard One?
Shepard One.
- (6) Valdez is a port in which US state?
Alaska.
- (7) Joan Crawford had a famous rivalry with which fellow actress: Greta Garbo, Dorothy Lamour or Bette Davis?
Bette Davis.
- (8) The Waltons, one of the world's richest families, amassed their fortune through which company?
Wal-Mart.
- (9) Which member of the United Nations is officially a 'United Republic': Tanzania, Tonga or Thailand?
Tanzania.
- (10) The European premier of the 1995 'Braveheart' was held in which Scottish city, a few miles from the site of the Battle of Bannockburn?
Sterling.

- (11) Algophobia is an excessive fear of what: public speaking, pregnancy or pain?
Pain.
- (12) What word in heraldry refers to a diamond shaped emblem, is also a term for a small-medicated sweet that is intended to be kept in the mouth until dissolved?
Lozenge.
- (13) What nickname is given to FBI agents: G-Men, R-Men or Y-Men?
G-Men.
- (14) Nevada became the 36th state during which war?
American Civil War.
- (15) In 2005, David Schummy threw what object over 427 metres, the longest throw of any unaided object by a human: Frisbee, boomerang or paper aeroplane?
Boomerang.
- (16) Lubeck is a port city in what country?
Germany.
- (17) Who was the only US President to have also been the leader of a trade union: Woodrow Wilson, Franklin D. Roosevelt or Ronald Regan?
Ronald Regan.
- (18) What six-letter word derived from the Latin for 'sharpen', means quickness of perception and the ability to make good business decisions?
Acumen.
- (19) Which animal is the closest living relative of the Tyrannosaurus rex: alligator, shark or chicken?
Chicken.
- (20) Name the ten named speaking toy characters that appeared in three or more 'Toy Story' films? (By speaking I mean a character that has a voice actor's credit on IMDB)
Bo Peep, Buzz Lightyear, Hamm, Jessie, Mr. Potato Head, Mrs. Potato Head, Rex, Sarge, Slinky Dog & Woody.

(21) Charcoal is the name given to the solid fuel obtained when wood is heated in the absence of air. What name is given to the solid fuel made by heating coal in the absence of air?

Coke.

(22) The name of which large loch precedes 'and the Trossachs' in the name of a National Park in Scotland?

Loch Lomond.

(23) What is Shakespeare's longest play?

Hamlet.

(24) What word ultimately derived from the Latin for 'house', can mean relating to the home or occurring within the borders of a country?

Domestic.

(25) In many computer languages, what arithmetical operation is represented by an asterisk?

Multiplication.

(26) Cicero wrote works of history and philosophy in what language?

Latin.

(27) In the 'Lion King' Simba becomes King of which rock?

Pride Rock.

(28) On which building in Cardiff would you find the inscription in Welsh that translates as "Creating truth like glass from the furnace of inspiration"?

Wales Millennium Centre.

(29) On a standard London Monopoly board, which is the only property available for purchase that is south of the river Thames?

Old Kent Road.

(30) Boo-Boo the cartoon bear lives in what park?

Jellystone

(31) On TV, what was the name of Del Trotter's dad: Reg, Ron or Ray?

Reg.

(32) Bokmal and New Norsk are the two standard written forms of which language?

Norwegian.

(33) The full list of candidates nominated for a Nobel Prize is made public how many years after the award is presented: 10 year, 25 years or 50 years?

50 years.

(34) Which country in east Africa is the most populous landlocked country in the world?

Ethiopia.

(35) Which American President became blind in one eye due to a boxing injury: Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt or Calvin Coolidge?

Theodore Roosevelt.

(36) Which shipbuilding company was founded in Belfast in 1861?

Harland and Wolff.

(37) Japanese football team Nagoya Grampus was originally founded as a works team for what company: Toyota, Panasonic or Nissan?

Toyota.

(38) What word for an Oriental marketplace was also the name of the boutique opened by Mary Quant on the King's Road, London in 1955?

Bazaar.

(39) Which musician became the Armenian ambassador to Switzerland in 2009: Charles Aznavour, Johnny Halliday or Richard Clayderman?

Charles Aznavour.

(40) In an alphabetical list of countries, name the first ten that end with the letters 'IA'?

Albania, Algeria, Armenia, Australia, Austria, Bolivia, Bulgaria, Cambodia, Colombia & Croatia.