

- (1) Which Far Eastern country has a former capital and a current one whose names in English are anagrams of each other: China, Japan or South Korea?

Japan.

- (2) Which legendary film director and actor's final role was as a voice in the 1986 animated film, 'Transformers: The Movie'?

Orson Wells.

- (3) What Moroccan city temporarily became English territory in 1662 as part of the dowry of Catherine of Braganza: Casablanca, Fez or Tangier?

Tangier.

- (4) What is the highest denomination Euro note ever issued?

€500.

- (5) Which of these Roman emperors ruled the earliest: Claudius, Nero or Caligula?

Caligula.

- (6) Which region was the first and last European colony in China?

Macau.

- (7) Which of these 'generations' were born most recently: Generation Y, Generation X or Baby Boomers?

Generation Y. (1980s & 90s)

- (8) What was the name of the security warehouse that was raided and robbed of around £25 million in gold bars in 1983?

Brink's-Mat.

- (9) Which Yorkshire rugby league team went into liquidation in 2017: Leeds Rhinos, Bradford Bulls or Huddersfield Giants?

Bradford Bulls.

- (10) Who wrote the novels 'Mr MacGregor' and 'The Last Lighthouse'?

Alan Titchmarsh.

(11) What is the first season of the church year: Advent, Easter or Lent?

Advent.

(12) The first motorway in Britain was a section along which road?

Preston Bypass.

(13) How old was Bobby Moore when he captained England to the World Cup in 1966: 25, 27 or 29?

25.

(14) What is the name of the hungry green ghost in the 'Ghostbusters' film series?

Slimer.

(15) Which of these video games consoles was released first in the UK: PlayStation, Nintendo 64 or Mega Drive?

Mega Drive.

(16) Aged just 42, who was the first female governor of Alaska?

Sarah Palin.

(17) In 1973, which Beatles member donated a house to the Hare Krishna movement: George Harrison, Paul McCartney or John Lennon?

George Harrison.

(18) The Falicia was a model made by which car manufacturer?

Skoda.

(19) Which group of people are sometimes known as 'sons of Neptune': sailors, astronauts or soldiers?

Sailors.

(20) Name the last ten people to hold the office of Foreign Secretary?

David Cameron, James Cleverly, Liz Truss, Dominic Raab, Jeremy Hunt, Boris Johnson, Philip Hammond, William Hague, David Miliband, & Margaret Beckett.

- (21) Under which Prime Minister did the Bank of England become independent?

Tony Blair, in 1998.

- (22) Which Formula One circuit is 3.340km long?

Monaco.

- (23) On which continent would you find an aardvark living in the wild?

Africa.

- (24) In what women's athletics event has a World Record of 7.52m stood since 1988 to today?

Long jump.

- (25) Who is the youngest member of the original 'Take That' line-up?

Robbie Williams.

- (26) The name of what New Mexico city means 'white oak'?

Albuquerque.

- (27) Lady Caroline Lamb called Lord Byron "mad, bad and..." what?

Dangerous to know.

- (28) Which word can follow Bird, Blood and Foot?

Bath.

- (29) The star sign Sagittarius is often depicted as what mythical creature?

Centaur.

- (30) Which naval rank was also the name of a computer company that went bankrupt in 1994?

Commodore.

- (31) What country landed the robot rover 'Jade Rabbit' on the moon in 2013: China, India or Japan?

China.

- (32) Which popular UK game was originally called Beano?

Bingo.

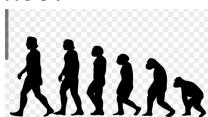

- (33) A Paris Metro stop and a station on the DLR in London are both named after which monarch: George V, Edward V or Henry V?

George V.

- (34) Which actor narrated the 'Mr Men' books on TV?

Arthur Lowe.

- (35) Rudolph Zallinger's famous image depicting the evolution of man is commonly known as what: Path of Development, March of Progress or Journey of Intelligence?

March of Progress.

- (36) What six-letter boys name is also that of a type of gemstone and a national park in Alberta, Canada?

Jasper.

- (37) Which of these is the most chemically reactive metal: caesium, calcium or californium?

Caesium.

- (38) What Japanese cheer or war cry expresses the sentiment 'may you live for 10,000 years'?

Banzi!

- (39) Which tennis racket manufacturer has had the most Grand Slam singles wins in the Open Era: Head, Wilson or Slazenger?

Wilson.

- (40) Name the last ten one-word country names in an alphabetical list that contain both the letters 'U' and 'N' in their name?

Nicaragua, Sudan, Suriname, Tunisia, Turkmenistan, Uganda, Ukraine, Uzbekistan, Vanuatu & Venezuela.