

- (1) Which cartoon dog was born at the Daisy Hill Puppy Farm: Snoopy, Scooby-Doo or Pluto?
Snoopy.
- (2) Which number comes next in the sequence of square numbers that begins; 1, 4, 9, 16?
25.
- (3) In 1890, Nellie Bly became the first person in the world to do what: travel around the world in 80 days, take photos with a Kodak camera or make a transatlantic phone call?
Travel around the world in 80 days.
- (4) In what month in 1945 was the United Nations founded?
October 24th.
- (5) On the periodic table, there are four different elements all named for what: a Swedish mining village, Nobel Prize winners or Shakespearean characters?
A Swedish mining village.
- (6) What Grand Slam singles tennis title did Monica Seles never win?
Wimbledon.
- (7) The lunar module jettisoned by Apollo 10 was named after which cartoon dog: Goofy, Muttley or Snoopy?
Snoopy.
- (8) Which Japanese car manufacture used the slogan 'Always a better way'?
Toyota.
- (9) The grandfather of which flat racing jockey won the Grand National three times in the 1910s: Willie Carson, Pat Eddery or Lester Piggott?
Lester Piggott.
- (10) What magazine for the landed classes was co-founded by George Newnes in 1897?
Country Life.

- (11) In what seaside town is there a monument to Horatio Nelson: Hull, Great Yarmouth or Scarborough?

Great Yarmouth.

- (12) Originally called 'The Poet' what sculpture was meant to depict Dante?

The Thinker.

- (13) Which of these planets is the smallest: Saturn, Venus or Uranus?

Venus.

- (14) For what fictional agency did the characters William Bodie and Ray Doyle work for?

CI5.

- (15) The street slang term 'Mad props' means what: thank you, headache or great dress sense?

Thank you.

- (16) The British composer Euphemia Allen under the pseudonym Arthur de Lulli wrote what two-fingered tune?

Chopsticks.

- (17) Who was appointed Chancellor of the Exchequer in 1990, John Major, Nigel Lawson or Norman Lamont?

Norman Lamont.

- (18) A Hob and a Gill are the male and female of what pet?

Ferret.

- (19) Henry VIII called which of his wives a "rose without a thorn": Anne Boleyn, Catherine Howard or Anne of Cleves?

Catherine Howard.

- (20) Name the ten solo studio albums released by Michael Jackson during his lifetime? (Excluding live albums, compilations and EP's)

Invincible, HIStory, Dangerous, Bad, Thriller, Off The Wall, Forever, Michael, Music & Me, Ben & got To Be There.

(21) What castle is the Queen's official residence in Northern Ireland?

Hillsborough Castle.

(22) In the US, what is the total value of a dime, a nickel and a quarter?

40 cents.

(23) Arian is a Welsh word for money or which metallic element?

Silver.

(24) By what name do we better know the type 1 Volkswagen?

Beetle.

(25) What breed of dog is 'Santa's Little Helper'?

Greyhound.

(26) The model and actress Jerry Hall was born in 1956 in which US state?

Texas.

(27) Compton is a notorious part of what American city?

Los Angeles.

(28) In which decade was the current US flag adopted as the national flag?

1960s. (1960)

(29) What European language is the official language of Zambia?

English.

(30) Who was the first scientist to be knighted for his work?

Sir Isaac Newton.

- (31) According to legend, Manco Capac founded which dynasty: Inca, Ming or Ottoman?
Inca.
- (32) Which Mr Man wears his hat upside down and does everything the wrong way round?
Mr Topsy Turvey.
- (33) Cape Branco is the easternmost point on what continent: Europe, Australia or South America?
South America.
- (34) In the 'Taken' series of films, what is the name of Liam Neeson's character?
Bryan Mills.
- (35) Which of the Bee Gees was NOT a twin: Barry, Maurice or Robin?
Barry.
- (36) Constable's famous painting 'The Hay Wain' is based on a site in which English county?
Suffolk.
- (37) In 1975, Tom Pryce became the first and only Welshman to achieve which sporting feat: score 200 runs in a Test, Ride a Derby winner or win a Formula 1 race?
Win a Formula 1 race.
- (38) In 'tiddlywinks' what is the name given to the container 'winks' are played into?
Pot.
- (39) The currency of which of these countries is the pound: Syria, Tonga or Uruguay?
Syria.
- (40) According to the OED, name the ten words in the text abbreviations 'ROTFL' and 'ICYMI'?
Rolling, On, The, Floor, Laughing, In, Case, You, Missed & It.