

- (1) In which century was the title of Prince of Wales first adopted for the heir to the throne: 13th, 14th or 15th?
14th (1301).
- (2) What common name is given to the condition icterus caused by excess of bile in the body?
Jaundice.
- (3) In 2015 it was reported that which airport had overtaken Heathrow as the busiest for international traffic: JFK, Schiphol or Dubai?
Dubai.
- (4) In 2014, who became the oldest recipient of a Brit Award, his acceptance speech was delivered by Noel Gallagher?
David Bowie.
- (5) Lionel Bart sold his rights to 'Oliver!' to which entertainer: Max Bygraves, Jimmy Clitheroe or Harry Worth?
Max Bygraves.
- (6) In Greek mythology, the priestess Io was turned into what animal: cow, goat or sheep?
Cow.
- (7) Which 'Dr Who' actor appeared in four 'Carry On' films: Jon Pertwee, Sylvester McCoy or Patrick Troughton?
Jon Pertwee.
- (8) Which imperial unit is equal to 745.7 watts?
1 Horsepower.
- (9) The Duke of Wellington took his name from a town in what county: Gloucestershire, Somerset or Devon?
Somerset.
- (10) What Grand National fence is named after the 1967 winner?
Foinavan.

- (11) Vinci, the town that features in Leonardo da Vinci's name, is in which Italian region: Lombardy, Umbria or Tuscany?
Tuscany.
- (12) In Greek words such as 'isotope' and 'isobar' what does this prefix 'iso' mean?
Equal or the same.
- (13) Which of these books was published first: The Second Sex, The Third Man or The Fourth Protocol?
The Second Sex.
- (14) What name for an assistant to a parish priest or vicar comes from the Latin for 'care'?
Curate.
- (15) Brazil's longest border is with what country: Venezuela, Peru or Bolivia?
Bolivia.
- (16) The Oder and Vistula rivers flow into what sea?
The Baltic Sea.
- (17) In a list of English kings, who was first to be designated 'the fourth': Edward IV, Henry IV or William IV?
Henry IV.
- (18) Goitre is a pathological enlargement of which gland?
Thyroid.
- (19) In the novel by Anna Sewell, what was the name of Black Beauty's mother: Duchess, Princess or Countess?
Duchess.
- (20) In 2015, name the ten best-selling Champagne brands by volume across the world?
Moët et Chandon, Veuve Clicquot, Nicolas Feuillatte, G H Mumm, Laurent-Perrier, Taittinger, Pommery, Piper-Heidsieck, Lanson & Canard-Duchêne.

(21) Up to 2018, who was the last Prime Minister Not to attend Oxford or Cambridge?

Gordon Brown.

(22) Which Scottish town is nearest to the foot of Ben Nevis?

Fort William.

(23) What name for women's cut-off trousers worn in the 1950s, comes from their similarity to those worn by cyclists?

Pedal-pushers.

(24) Which football song reached the UK Top 20 in 1996, 1998, 2002, 2006 and 2010?

Three Lions.

(25) The director Peter Jackson is from which country?

New Zealand.

(26) In the title of a novel by Alistair MacLean, what animal follows 'Ice Station'?

Zebra.

(27) What desert animal appears on the flag of Eritrea?

Camel.

(28) Hypertrichosis is excessive growth of what on the body?

Hair.

(29) What nationality was the first flag to fly at the South Pole?

Norwegian.

(30) The Colossus of Rhodes was made from what alloy?

Bronze.

- (31) What cheese is used to create a Quiche Vosgienne: brie, camembert or Gruyère?
Gruyère.
- (32) In ancient mythology, Pygmalion was king of what island?
Cyprus.
- (33) In the Royal Navy, being flogged while tied to a cannon was known as 'Kissing the Gunner's...' what: Mother, Sister or Daughter?
Daughter.
- (34) 'The Life I Lead' is a recurring song in which Disney film?
Mary Poppins.
- (35) The anti-slavery campaigner William Wilberforce was a close friend of which Prime Minister: Robert Peel, Pitt the Younger or Benjamin Disraeli?
Pitt the Younger.
- (36) What Labour politician became Baron of Foy in 2008?
Peter Mandelson.
- (37) Which of these was the title of a 2014 single by the teenage pop star Lorde: Tennis Ball, Tennis Court or Tennis Racquet?
Tennis Court.
- (38) The petals of the St John's wort are mainly what colour?
Yellow.
- (39) Actor Robert Mitchum was also a professional in which sport: boxing, golf or tennis?
Boxing.
- (40) Name the ten children born before September 2011, whose mother's were in the original line up of 'The Spice Girls'?
Phoenix Chi Gulzar, Brooklyn Beckham, Romeo Beckham, Cruz Beckham, Bluebell Madonna Halliwell, Angel Iris Murphy Brown, Beau Lee Jones, Scarlet Chisholm Starr, Tate Lee Jones & Harper Beckham.