

(1) What is the connection?

All words in the phonetic alphabet.

(2) What is the World's second largest airline?

Delta.

(3) What was the name of the football manager played by Ricky Tomlinson?

Mike Bassett.

(4) Which group had chart success in the 1980s with "The Cutter" and "The Killing Moon"?

Echo and the Bunnymen.

(5) What is the seventh-largest country by geographical area?

India.

(6) Which famous TV character came to our screens in 1990 and was killed off in a hit and run accident in November 2000?

Victor Meldrew.

(7) Which 1964 film was narrated by Richard Burton and starred Stanley Baker, Jack Hawkins and Michael Caine?

Zulu.

(8) Which 1889 novel by American humorist and writer Mark Twain is a very early example of time travel in literature?

A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court.

(9) Where in Paris did Coco Chanel live for more than thirty years, until her death in 1971?

Ritz Hotel.

(10) Which car is marketed as the Rabbit in North America?

Volkswagen Golf.

(11) Which song was a hit for The Temptations in 1973 and 1987?

Papa Was A Rolling Stone.

(12) What was the name of the perfume by Revlon which was named after the founder of the company?

Charlie.

(13) Which African republic is bordered by Guinea on the north and Liberia on the south?

Sierra Leone.

(14) Which 1972 film is about a young Parisian woman who begins a sordid affair with a middle-aged American businessman?

Last Tango In Paris.

(15) What was the name of the Muppet character on Sesame Street, that has no nose, and lives in a garbage can?

Oscar the Grouch.

(16) What is the capital city of Peru?

Lima.

(17) What is the common ingredient in the following cocktails: a Joan Collins, Manhattan and a Rusty Nail?

Whiskey.

(18) In which month does the State Opening of Parliament take place?

November.

(19) What is the name of the BBC Wales consumer affairs TV programme?

X-ray.

(20) Which city was founded by Samuel de Champlain, a French explorer in 1608?

Quebec.

(21) What is the name of the fracture where the tissues of the body are torn and the bone is exposed to the open air?

A compound fracture.

(22) What kind of aircraft was used in the famous dam-busting raids?

Lancaster Bombers.

(23) What name is given to the type of auction where the price of the article is reduced by stages until a buyer is found?

A Dutch Auction.

(24) In basketball at what length of time is a "Half"?

Twenty minutes.

(25) By what do we more commonly know (di-cloro-di-fenile-try-cloro-ethane) dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane?

D.D.T.

(26) Fletcher is now a common English surname but in what occupation, in medieval times, was a fletcher employed?

To make arrows.

(27) In which county is the Giant's Causeway?

County Antrim.

(28) What would be measured using an anemometer?

Wind velocity.

(29) Who was the first Dr Who?

William Hartnell.

(30) Which one of these towns is in Northern Ireland? Donegal, Galway, Enniskillen or Dundalk.

Enniskillen.

WIPEOUT ROUND

(31) Which war was described as "The war to end all wars"?

World War I.

(32) In which decade was Greenpeace founded?

1970s.

(33) Under which hills are the cheddar caves?

Mendips

(34) How many books does a castaway have with them on "Desert Island Discs"?

Three.

(35) What steamship did Brunel build and launch in 1858?

The Great Eastern.

(36) How many nail holes are there in a standard horse shoe?

Eight.

(37) Which of the five senses develops first?

Smell.

(38) How many dice are used in a game of backgammon?

Two.

(39) Which is the world's windiest continent?

Antarctica.

(40) What are the three colours of the Rastafarian religion?

Red, green and gold.