

(1) What is the British word for the eggplant?

Aubergine.

(2) Which darts player is nicknamed the power?

Phil Taylor.

(3) In which part of your body is the cochlea?

The ear.

(4) Which monarch served a 60 year apprenticeship as Prince of Wales before becoming king?

Edward VII.

(5) By what name was the boxer Walker Smith better known?

Sugar Ray Robinson.

(6) Which animal appears on the flag of the Falklands?

Sheep.

(7) How many events are there in a heptathlon?

Seven.

(8) How many rounds are there in an Olympic boxing match?

4.

(9) Which part of the wheelbarrow is the fulcrum?

The wheel.

(10) Which of the Spice Girls was the first to have a solo number one?

Geri Halliwell.

(11) Which Greek island lies close to the coast of Albania?

Corfu.

(12) Which creature is known as orange man, or wise man of the forest?

Orang utan.

(13) Which flag is known as Old Glory?

The Stars and Stripes.

(14) Name the hilly area on the border between Syria & Israel, scene of the Arab/Israel conflicts of the 50s, 60s & 70s?

Golan Heights.

(15) Which alloy of tin and lead was originally used for making plates and mugs?

Pewter.

(16) How many months of the year have 31 days?

Seven.

(17) Rip, chain and band are all types of what?

Saw.

(18) Which common Irish surname means 'descendant of the sea warrior'?

Murphy.

(19) In a symphony orchestra, which is the only stringed instrument not to be played with a bow?

A harp.

(20) Name the four longest rivers in the world?

Nile, Amazon, Mississippi and Yangtze.

(21) How many triple score squares are there on a Scrabble board?

Eight.

(22) Who was known as "the little corporal"?

Napoleon Bonaparte.

(23) What machine tool shapes material by rapidly turning it against a stationary cutting device?

A lathe.

(24) What colour is a sapphire?

Blue.

(25) Who was Prime Minister when Queen Elizabeth II was born?

Stanley Baldwin.

(26) Apart from Mars and the Moon which other planet has a man made craft landed on?

Venus.

(27) What name is given to the cricketers' year book where all the cricketing laws and scores are reported?

Wisden.

(28) James Bond has the Secret Service designation 007. What is the meaning of 007?

Licensed to kill.

(29) What are "Hoover" and "Grand Coulee"?

Dams.

(30) In what year was the Chernobyl disaster?

1986.

(31) How many singers are needed to perform Barber Shop harmony?

Four.

(32) What is the more common name for hypermetropia (hyper-met-tropia)?

Long sightedness.

(33) Which continent has the most people per square mile?

Europe.

(34) How many claws does a normal house cat have?

18.

(35) What is the general term for minute organisms found drifting near the surface of seas or lakes?

Plankton.

(36) Which club did Alex Ferguson leave to become manager of Manchester United?

Aberdeen.

(37) In October 2009 it was the 25th anniversary the bombing of the Grand Hotel, Brighton. How many people died?

5.

(38) What is the heaviest bird in the world?

The Ostrich.

(39) In cricket, when the batsman misses the ball and the wicket-keeper fails to stop it, the batsman may score a run. What is that run then called?

A bye.

(40) There are two townships on the Falkland Islands, name them?

Port Stanley and Port Darwin.