

(1) On a monopoly board what colour is Oxford Street?

Green.

(2) What is the name given to a racehorse which has never won a race?

Maiden.

(3) What is the second largest castle in Britain after Windsor?

Caerphilly Castle.

(4) Who lived at 32 Windsor Gardens?

Mr & Mrs Brown, and Paddington Bear.

(5) The most nutritious fruit in the world contains 741 calories per edible pound. What is it?

Avocado.

(6) What item comes in varieties dry, wet, streamer and nymph?

Fishing flies.

(7) Windermere is England's largest lake. What is the second largest?

Ullswater.

(8) Where will the 2014 FIFA World Cup be held?

Brazil.

(9) Abraham Lincoln's portrait is on which denomination dollar bill?

Five dollars.

(10) Who was the Roman God of fire?

Vulcan.

(11) Which city has the most underground stations on its railway system?

New York. 468

(12) William Warwick was the first captain of which ship?

QE2.

(13) In what street would you find Smiffy, Wilfrid, Danny and Plug?

Bash Street.

(14) In which country is Cape Finisterre?

Spain.

(15) What is the longest English word that can be written using only the keys on the top row of a QWERTY keyboard?

Typewriter.

(16) Who is the second most mentioned person in the Bible?

David.

(17) Which Japanese word means single number?

Sudoku.

(18) What is the world's most abundant bird?

Chicken.

(19) When a man is given a knighthood he takes on the title of Sir.
What title does his wife take?

Lady.

(20) Which 4 football teams of the 92 in England, start and end with the same letter?

Charlton Athletic, Northampton Town, Aston Villa and Liverpool.

(31) Which famous cyclist had his bike stolen this week?

Lance Armstrong.

(32) US Secretary of state Hillary Clinton made her first overseas visits this week. Which country did she visit first?

Japan.

(33) Name the Royal Navy nuclear submarine that was involved in a collision with a French nuclear sub in the middle of the Atlantic?

HMS Vanguard.

(34) Premium Bonds holders have left a record amount of prizes unclaimed, it was announced this week. How much money is left unclaimed?

£30 million.

(35) Which fast food chain plans to open 300 new outlets in the UK this year?

KFC.

(36) Librarians this week are being told to move which book to the top shelf to avoid causing offence?

The Bible.

(37) Which Labour MP is reportedly lined up to take over from Gordon Brown, if he loses the next election?

Harriet Harman.

(38) Comedian Lenny Henry is in the starring role in a new production of which Shakespearean play?

Othello.

(39) Name the horse that caused traffic chaos in Paris this week when it escaped its rider?

Garibaldi.

(40) Name the nine celebrities who are to climb Mount Kilimanjaro for Comic Relief this year?

Gary Barlow, Chris Moyles, Alesha Dixon, Denise Van Outen, Fearne Cotton, Ben Shephard, Kimberley Walsh, Cheryl Cole and Ronan Keating.

(21) What was the name of the brief speech given by President Lincoln on the 19th of November 1863, which contained the famous statement of the principles of American government of the people, by the people, for the people?

The Gettysburg Address.

(22) Who is the only football team to win the European Cup on penalties?

Czech Republic.

(23) Name the oldest city in Germany which lies on the left bank of the Rhine?

Cologne.

(24) What is the family name of the ruling dynasty of Monaco?

Grimaldi.

(25) Who provided the voice for Jessica Rabbit in the film "Who framed Roger Rabbit"?

Kathleen Turner.

(26) How many legs has a flea?

Six.

(27) Name the channel between the Irish Sea and the Atlantic which separates Wales from Ireland?

St. George's Channel.

(28) The alphabet of the Russian language is written in a particular kind of script. What word is used to describe it?

Cyrillic.

(29) What bird lays the largest eggs in proportion to its size?

Kiwi.

(30) Who was lead singer of Genesis before Phil Collins?

Peter Gabriel.