

(1) Name the four squares situated in each corner of a British Monopoly board?

Go, Jail (just visiting), Free Parking and Go To Jail.

(2) What is the medical name for German measles?

Rubella.

(3) What was the name of the angel sent by God to Mary to tell her she was to be the mother of Jesus?

Gabriel.

(4) Which port in Essex has ferry services to both Europe and Scandinavia?

Harwich.

(5) Which hill marks the traditional site of the Ascension?

The Mount of Olives.

(6) What name do the Mexicans give foreigners?

Gringo.

(7) Who was the English inventor of a system of short-hand based on sounds instead of letters?

Sir Isaac Pitman.

(8) What name is given to the medical condition of a deficiency in the amount of red pigment haemoglobin in the blood?

Anaemia.

(9) Which religious movement was founded by Joseph Smith?

The Mormons (The Church of the Latter Day Saints).

(10) Which actor received Mae West's invitation to, "Come up and see me {sometime}"?

Cary Grant.

(11) What name is given to the royal family of the Netherlands?

House of Orange.

(12) In which American state is the port of Corpus Christi?

Texas.

(13) What is the most widely played game in Russia?

Chess.

(14) Who did Peeping Tom peep at?

Lady Godiva.

(15) What is the name of the world's largest freshwater lake?

Lake Superior.

(16) What is the ultimate court of appeal in the UK?

The House of Lords.

(17) Luton was once famous for making what type of clothing?

Hats.

(18) In 1982 which film gave Meryl Streep the Oscar for best actress?

Sophie's Choice.

(19) In Greek Mythology who is known as the supreme God?

Zeus.

(20) A full choir is divided into four ranges of voices. Name Them?

Sopranos, Altos, Tenors and Basses.

(21) How much money did Phileas Fogg wager that he would go "around the world in eighty days" ?

£20,000.

(22) What is the largest single gold object in the world?

Tutankhamen's coffin.

(23) Which American hero has been played on film by Errol Flynn, Robert Shaw and Ronald Reagan?

General Custer.

(24) How did Hermann Goering escape execution?

He committed suicide.

(25) Name the three joined parts of an insect's body?

Head, thorax and abdomen.

(26) How old was James Dean when he died?

Twenty four.

(27) What is the total cost of purchasing all four railway stations in an English game of "Monopoly"?

£800.

(28) Which Shakespeare play features Arden Forest?

As You Like It.

(29) What is the name of the atomic energy research establishment in Berkshire?

Aldermaston.

(30) Name four sports that use a net but not a ball??

Ice hockey, fishing, badminton & discus or hammer.

(31) Pewter is an alloy of what two metals?

Tin and lead.

(32) What is the capital of Trinidad?

Port of Spain.

(33) On the first day of which month does the oyster season begin?

September.

(34) What is the third longest river in the world after the Nile and the Amazon?

Mississippi-Missouri.

(35) In George Orwell's Animal Farm, what is the name of the farm?

Manor Farm.

(36) Which country lies between Panama and Nicaragua?

Costa Rica.

(37) The following are all types of what: ink caps, death caps and puff balls?

Mushrooms.

(38) What are Mother Carey's Chickens?

Seagulls (or stormpetrels or snowflakes).

(39) What is 555 in Roman numerals?

DLV.

(40) On maps of the London Underground which railway lines are denoted by brown and green respectively?

Brown (Bakerloo), Green (District).

(21) Approximately what length is the fibreglass pole used in the pole vault?

16 feet.

(22) Who sang the very first Bond theme song, From Russia With Love?

Matt Monro.

(23) In which London square would you find two memorials to the Indian leader, Mahatma Gandhi?

Tavistock Square.

(24) At what time is the Last Post sounded in British Army barracks?

10.00pm.

(25) In cricket, what name is given to ball delivered by the bowler so that it pitches directly under the bat?

Yorker.

(26) What nationality was Christopher Columbus?

Italian.

(27) African dominoes is another name for what?

Dice.

(28) In biology, what is the name of the clear fluid which forms 55% of blood?

Plasma.

(29) By what name do we now know British Honduras?

Belize.

(30) Whose motto is, "Nation shall speak unto nation"?

The B.B.C.