

- (1) What is regarded as the holiest and most solemn of Jewish religious holidays: Passover, Hanukkah or Yom Kippur?
Yom Kippur.
- (2) In what 1997 film does Matt Damon play a mathematical genius?
Goodwill Hunting.
- (3) Who was king of England at the beginning of the year 1066: Edward the Confessor, Ethelred the Unready or Edmund Ironside?
Edward the Confessor.
- (4) In 1995, who became the host of 'The Price is Right'?
Bruce Forsythe.
- (5) Although he later did so, which city did Claude Monet describe in 1908 as "too beautiful to be painted": Paris, Barcelona or Venice?
Venice.
- (6) In what organ of the body is the Preoccipital notch?
Brain.
- (7) In Greek mythology, who was the god of earthquakes: Poseidon, Eros or Uranus?
Poseidon.
- (8) In which year did Queen Victoria celebrate her Diamond Jubilee?
1897.
- (9) Which of these figures from British history did NOT serve as a Member of Parliament: Geoffrey Chaucer, Isaac Newton or David Livingstone?
David Livingstone.
- (10) Josiah Wedgwood founded the Etruria Pottery in which city?
Stoke-on-Trent.

- (11) Which artery is being felt when the pulse is taken at the wrist: femoral, pulmonary or radial?
Radial.
- (12) What novel in The Hunger Games trilogy was filmed in two parts?
Mockingjay.
- (13) What name did Elvis Presley give his airplane: Hound Dog, Return to Sender or Teddy Bear?
Hound Dog.
- (14) The tower that houses 'Big Ben' was previously called St Stephen's Tower, but what is it now called?
Elizabeth Tower.
- (15) A gallinipper is a giant type of what blood sucking insect: mosquito, leach or bed bug?
Mosquito.
- (16) What is Australia's oldest state?
New South Wales.
- (17) Which of these places does NOT stand on the river that appears in its name: Cambridge, Dartford or Falmouth?
Dartford.
- (18) In total, there are how many dots and dashes in the SOS signal?
Nine.
- (19) What river flows through Lake Constance: Amstel, Rhine or Volga?
Rhine.
- (20) Name the last ten different women to be Wimbledon Ladies' Singles Champion?
Ashley Barty, Simona Halep, Angelique Kerber, Garbiñe Muguruza, Serena Williams, Petra Kvitova, Marion Bartoli, Venus Williams, Amélie Mauresmo & Maria Sharapova.

(21) In maths, what word describes a triangle with no equal sides?

Scalene.

(22) In the traditional nursery rhyme 'Sing a song of sixpence' whilst she's hanging out the washing, who has her nose pecked-off by a blackbird?

The maid.

(23) In 2014, Ronnie Wood's son married which then Radio 1 DJ?

Fearne Cotton.

(24) The 'Garlic Wall' is a nickname for what territory's boarder with Spain?

Gibraltar.

(25) What word can mean both a projected window and a laurel tree?

Bay.

(26) Hugh Hefner had a species of what animal named after him?

Rabbit.

(27) Unlike other South American countries, Guyana has what official language?

English.

(28) Deriving from the Latin for 'father', what name is given to a Christian priest or Chaplain serving in the armed forces?

Padre.

(29) In which century was Leonardo da Vinci born?

15th (1452).

(30) Which of the 'Mister Men' characters has a red nose and lives in Shivertown the capital of Coldland?

Mr Sneeze.

- (31) What shape is each face of a regular octahedron: square, triangle or hexagon?
Triangle.
- (32) What was the London Eye originally called?
Millennium Wheel.
- (33) As the crow flies, how many miles is it from Land's End to John o' Groats: 503, 603 or 703?
603.
- (34) What word that can mean 'to clamber over rough ground' is also a military term originally used by the RAF in WWII to denote the rapid take-off of aircraft?
Scramble.
- (35) What was declared 'children's word of the year' 2015 by the Oxford University Press: hashtag, selfie or emoji?
Hashtag.
- (36) The American M4 tank was named after which Civil War General?
William Sherman.
- (37) In which UK city was the first public library opened: London, Birmingham or Manchester?
Manchester.
- (38) The book 'Bridget Jones's Diary' by Helen Fielding and the 2001 film adaptation, were loosely based on which novel by Jane Austin?
Pride and Prejudice.
- (39) In London, what are Tyburn, Effra and Westbourne: medieval prisons, underground rivers or abandoned stations?
Underground rivers.
- (40) Name the last ten official James Bond theme performers?
Billie Eilish, Sam Smith, Adele, Jack White & Alicia Keys, Chris Cornell, Madonna, Garbage, Sheryl Crow, Tina Turner & Gladys Knight.