

(1) The American football match known as 'The Game' is between Harvard and what other college: Cornell, Princeton or Yale?

Yale.

(2) Comet Shoemaker-Levey 9 collided with what planet in 1994?

Jupiter.

(3) Which war film ends with the caption "This picture is dedicated to the fifty": The Dirty Dozen, Pearl Harbour or The Great Escape?

The Great Escape.

(4) 'Of Funerals and Fish' in 1973 was the pilot for which TV sitcom?

Last of the Summer Wine.

(5) Which of the groups took their name from a faction in a science fiction wargame: Depeche Mode, Tubeway Army or the Human League?

The Human League.

(6) Joss Stone played Anne of Cleaves in what TV show?

The Tudors.

(7) A zero with a horizontal line through it denotes what letter of the Greek Alphabet: Omega, Pi or Theta?

Theta.

(8) The female Spanish title 'Infanta' means what in English?

Princess.

(9) Which was the only Warsaw Pact country to send a team to the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics: Hungary, Romania or East Germany?

Romania.

(10) In 1922, what German Sheppard made his film debut in 'The Man from Hell's River'?

Rin Tin Tin.

- (11) Which of these Canadian provinces does NOT have a border with the USA: Manitoba, Nova Scotia or Ontario?
Nova Scotia.
- (12) What is the general term for a chemical substance such as insulin or oestrogen, secreted into the blood stream by an endocrine gland?
Hormone.
- (13) Which work by Shakespeare is a play within a play, performed for a drunken tinker called Christopher Sly: Measure for Measure, Love's Labour's Lost or The Taming of the Shrew?
The Taming of the Shrew.
- (14) Which American boxer was nicknamed 'Pretty Boy' due to his unmarked face?
Floyd Mayweather Jr.
- (15) Footballer Matt Le Tissier was born on which Channel Island: Jersey, Guernsey or Alderney?
Guernsey.
- (16) What was the name of the ITV teletext service introduced to rival the BBC's Ceefax service in 1974?
Oracle.
- (17) Associated with a legend about rain, St Swithin was the Bishop of what city: Durham, London or Winchester?
Winchester.
- (18) The Oronoco River rises and mostly flows through which South American country?
Venezuela.
- (19) Which of these politicians is NOT known by a first name based on his initials: Rab Butler, Nye Bevan or Jeb Bush?
Nye Bevan.
- (20) Name the ten chemical elements of the periodic table whose name contains five letters or fewer?
Tin, gold, iron lead, neon, zinc, argon, boron, radon & xenon.

(21) 'Or Is That Just Me' was a book by which former Top Gear presenter?

Richard Hammond.

(22) How often is the Mayor of London elected?

Every four years.

(23) Which American dam created the Franklin D. Roosevelt Lake?

The Grand Coulee Dam. (Lake Mead is behind the Hoover Dam)

(24) What is the most venomous snake in the 'mamba' family?

Black.

(25) What Kent town is named after a wide set of steps once cut into the cliffs?

Broadstairs.

(26) Which 20th century Pope was the first to visit Canterbury Cathedral?

John Paul II.

(27) Which fictional TV character ran Pear Tree Productions?

Alan Partridge.

(28) Which Labour leader referred to his government as the 'Third Way'?

Tony Blair.

(29) What term comes from a vessel in a naval fleet that fly's an Admirals banner?

Flagship.

(30) The sequel to the Roald Dhal book 'Charlie and the Chocolate Factory' is entitled 'Charlie and the Great Glass'... what?

Elevator.

- (31) Which king excluded his wife Caroline from his coronation: Edward IV, George IV or Henry IV?
George IV.
- (32) Which former shipping forecast area meaning 'end of the earth' was renamed Fitzroy in 2002?
Finisterre.
- (33) Which cricketing knight played football for Antigua in the qualifiers for the 1974 FIFA World Cup: Gary Sobers, Viv Richards or Wes Hall?
Viv Richards.
- (34) Which town in North Tyneside derives its name from the fact that it is situated at the eastern most portion of Hadrian's Wall?
Walls End.
- (35) Which of these was a major British defeat in the American War of Independence: Battle of Harvard, Battle of Yale or Battle of Princeton?
Battle of Princeton.
- (36) The name of what medical speciality for women is derived from the Latin for 'to stand in the way of'?
Obstetrics.
- (37) Which shipwreck lies off the Old Head of Kinsale in over 300 feet of water: Lusitania, Bismarck or Titanic?
Lusitania.
- (38) The acronym 'Def Con' used by the US military in conjunction of a scale of 1 to 5 to rank military readiness, is a contraction of what term?
Defence Condition.
- (39) How many times did Fred Perry win the Wimbledon Singles title: one, two or three times?
Three.
- (40) Name the eight friends of Winnie-the-Pooh and two imaginary creatures that Pooh attempts to catch in the original books by AA Milne? (Pooh is not an answer)
Christopher Robin, Piglet, Eeyore, Kanga, Roo, Tigger, Owl, Rabbit, Woozle & Heffalump.