

- (1) In his first round of the 2015 World Snooker Championship match, Ronnie O'Sullivan broke the dress code by playing without what: shoes, cufflinks or tie?

Shoes.

- (2) Who was UK Prime Minister at the time of JFK's assassination?

Alec Douglas-Home.

- (3) Which river acts as a border between Suffolk and Essex: Thames, Cam or Stour?

Stour.

- (4) Which American President was assassinated in Buffalo?

McKinley.

- (5) The only named dog in a Shakespeare play is called what: Shrimp, Prawn or Crab?

Crab.

- (6) How many of Edina Blyton's 'Famous Five' were boys?

Two.

- (7) England's first ever national lottery took place during the reign of which monarch: Elizabeth I, George II or William III?

Elizabeth I.

- (8) Which author changed the pronunciation of his name to rhyme with 'Mother Gosse'?

Dr Seuss.

- (9) In the UK version of Scrabble, which of these is NOT a letter value: four, five or six?

Six.

- (10) Which Conservative Prime Minister was born the year before the Queen?

Margaret Thatcher (1925).

- (11) What was Nordic explorer Leif Eriksson's nickname: Lucky, Lanky or Lost?
Lucky.
- (12) Who was the first leader of the Conservative Party since 1922 NOT to become Prime Minister?
William Hague.
- (13) Which Elvis Presley song reached the UK Top 50 in 1958, 1971, 1977, 1983 and 2005: Jailhouse Rock, It's Now or Never or All Shook Up?
Jailhouse Rock.
- (14) What is the Latin for 'Queen'?
Regina.
- (15) Which of these kings had two separate reigns: Edward II, George IV or Henry VI?
Henry VI.
- (16) Chemical element 36 shares its name with what fictional planet?
Krypton.
- (17) Geographically, the continent of Antarctica is divided into what two parts: East and West, North and South or Upper and Lower?
East and West.
- (18) How many countries signed the 'Treaty of Rome' in 1958 that established the EEC?
Six.
- (19) Nephrite, the most common form of jade, is so named as it was once believed that it could cure disorders of what organs: liver, eyes or kidneys?
Kidneys.
- (20) According to the ONS in 2016, name the ten most popular first names beginning with the letter 'E' given to girls born in England and Wales?
Emily, Ella, Evie, Evelyn, Eva, Elsie, Esme, Elizabeth, Emilia & Eliza.

(21) Between 1936 and 1948, who was second in line to the throne?

Princess Margaret.

(22) What is the national currency of Namibia, pound or dollar?

Dollar.

(23) In which century did Hungary and Poland join NATO?

20th (1999).

(24) What fashion magazine's name means 'She' in French?

Elle.

(25) Ferries to the Isle of Mann leave from the Pier Head in which city?

Liverpool.

(26) Who was Tom Cruise's second wife?

Nicole Kidman.

(27) The Drone Pipe is another name for which instrument?

Didgeridoo.

(28) How many cards are removed from a standard pack of cards when playing the game 'Old Maid'?

One.

(29) Which Roman Emperor appears in the name of a coffee shop chain?

Nero.

(30) Rapid Time Zone Change Syndrome is more commonly known as what?

Jet-lag.

- (31) In TV's 'The Muppet Show', what was the name of Waldorf's wife: Astoria, Savoy or Ritz?
Astoria.
- (32) Who was the first female presenter of the BBC's 'Top Gear'?
Angela Rippon. (1977)
- (33) How old was Lady Diana Spencer when she married Prince Charles: 19, 20 or 21?
20.
- (34) By what collective name are the films 'Shaun of the Dead', 'Hot Fuzz' and 'The World's End' known?
Cornetto Trilogy.
- (35) Graminology is the study of what: grass, conifers or ferns?
Grass.
- (36) What word, the Afrikaans for 'head,' is also an informal name for a steep bank of terracing at certain football grounds?
Kop.
- (37) From what country was the designer of the Sydney Opera House: Sweden, Denmark or Belgium?
Denmark.
- (38) 'Vermiculture' is the farming of which creatures?
Earthworms.
- (39) 2013 was the centenary of which British composer's birth: Benjamin Britten, Edward Elgar or Gustav Holst?
Benjamin Britten.
- (40) Name the ten most popular individual items used for pizza toppings in the UK according to YouGov in 2017? (Not including sauces or cheeses)
Mushroom, onion, ham, peppers, chicken, pepperoni, tomato, bacon, pineapple & sweetcorn.