

- (1) The Judge Advocate General is in charge of what area of law: property, copyright or military?
Military.
- (2) The first ever space shuttle was named 'Constitution', but following a campaign its name was changed to what?
Enterprise.
- (3) Which of these African countries is NOT landlocked: Botswana, Burkina Faso or Benin?
Benin.
- (4) What three zodiac animals have horns?
Bull, ram and goat.
- (5) Which type of cream has a minimum fat content of 55%: whipped, clotted or double?
Clotted.
- (6) What is the second longest river in Scotland?
Spey.
- (7) Which part of a horse's body is used to measure its height: withers, crest or dock?
Withers.
- (8) The theme song to which James Bond film was written by Bono and the Edge?
Goldeneye.
- (9) The so-called 'Oxford Parliament' of 1258 limited the powers of which king: Henry III, Richard I or Stephen?
Henry III.
- (10) The reign of which Tudor monarch was the longest?
Elizabeth I.

- (11) A myocyte is a type of cell found in what part of the body: muscle, bone or brain?
Muscle.
- (12) In which Bond film did Desmond Llewellyn first appear as 'Q'?
From Russia With Love.
- (13) The philosophy called nihilism gets its name from the Latin for what word: nobody, nowhere or nothing?
Nothing.
- (14) Citrine is a variety of what mineral?
Quartz.
- (15) Which of these athletes was the first to win the men's 200m and 400m at the same Olympic Games: Jesse Owens, Carl Lewis or Michael Johnson?
Michael Johnson.
- (16) The word glacier comes from what language?
French.
- (17) The first name of which 'Harry Potter' character appears in the Latin motto of Hogwarts School: Draco, Luna or Albus?
Draco.
- (18) Which monarch was Henry VIII's youngest child?
Edward VI.
- (19) The 5p coin is legal tender for amounts up to how much: £2, £5 or £10?
£5.
- (20) Name the ten UN member countries whose name ends with the letters 'LAND' or 'LANDS'? (Not including Swaziland as it's changed its name to Eswatini?)
Finland, Iceland, Ireland, Marshall Islands, Netherlands, New Zealand, Poland, Solomon Islands, Switzerland & Thailand.

(21) Which airport is located off junction 8 of the M11?

Stanstead.

(22) What was the largest US state before 1959?

Texas.

(23) In what decade did the first woman go into space?

1960s.

(24) How many points are there on the Statue of Liberty's crown?

Seven.

(25) Which former James Bond voiced Mr Pricklepants in 'Toy Story 3'?

Timothy Dalton.

(26) What Devon city gives its name to a shipping forecast area?

Plymouth.

(27) Which European country spent the entire 20th century ruled by three monarchs, all of them queens?

Netherlands.

(28) New York is how many hours ahead of Los Angeles?

Three.

(29) Which club paid £1 million to make Trevor Francis the first million pound transfer?

Nottingham Forest.

(30) How many different colours are there on the EBay logo?

Four.

- (31) In the 'Spider-Man' comics, who does Peter Parker marry: Mary-Jane Watson, Mary-Lou Holmes or Mary-Beth Moriarty?
Mary-Jane Watson.
- (32) What San Antonio landmark now has World Heritage Site status?
The Alamo.
- (33) The Cenotaph in Whitehall was built at the request of which Prime Minister: David Lloyd George, Ramsay MacDonald or Stanley Baldwin?
David Lloyd George.
- (34) What was the name of Macaulay Culkin's character in the 'Home Alone' films?
Kevin McCallister.
- (35) A reading of one on the pH scale indicates that a liquid is what: acidic, alkaline or neutral?
Acidic.
- (36) What is the highest public railway in England and Wales?
Snowdon Mountain Railway.
- (37) What was Take That's first UK Number One single: Could It Be Magic, Pray or Relight My Fire?
Pray.
- (38) Comb, chunk-style and liquid are basic forms of what foodstuff?
Honey.
- (39) Coruscant and Naboo are planets in which sci-fi franchise: Doctor Who, Battlestar Galactica or Star Wars?
Star Wars.
- (40) Name the last ten individual football teams to have played in a UEFA Champions League Final up to the end of 2021/22 season?
Liverpool, Manchester City, Tottenham Hotspur, Paris, Chelsea, Real Madrid, Juventus, Atlético Madrid, Barcelona, Borussia Dortmund & Bayern Munich.