

(1) What type of teeth are wisdom teeth: canines, incisors or molars?

Molars.

(2) Which cartoon dog has a fondness for singing 'My Darling Clementine'?

Huckleberry Hound.

(3) At the 2014 World Cup Finals, England's only two goal-scorers were who?

Wayne Rooney and Daniel Sturridge.

(4) Before she went solo, Eyna was a member of what group?

Clannad.

(5) Who did Napoleon claim was "the only king of France worthy of the name": Charles X, Henry II or Louis XIV?

Louis XIV.

(6) Excluding Alaska, the most northerly point of the USA is in what state?

Minnesota.

(7) Which of these regional assemblies has the most elected members: Scottish, Welsh or Northern Irish?

Scottish 129. (60 Wales & 90 NI)

(8) In what decade was the English cheese Lymeswold launched?

1980s (1982).

(9) What rhyming phrase is thought to have been coined by Alfred, Lord Tennyson in his poem 'Lilian': airy-fairy, namby-pamby or arty-farty?

Airy-fairy.

(10) Which Nobel gas has the lowest boiling point of any known substance?

Helium.

- (11) How many US flags were planted on the Moon by Apollo astronauts: 2, 4 or 6?
Six.
- (12) What land was east of the Garden of Eden?
Land of Nod.
- (13) The adjective 'Jungian' refers to a school of thought in what field: economics, theology or psychology?
Psychology.
- (14) The reigning French President is also co-prince of what country?
Andorra.
- (15) The concept of 'Cloud Cuckoo Land' first appeared in what century: 5th century BC, 4th century AD or 16th century AD?
5th century BC.
- (16) In the Bible, what building was built on the Plain of Shinar?
Tower of Babel.
- (17) Which of these is NOT an ornamental garden flower: Sweet William, Sweet Pea or Sweet Potato?
Sweet Potato.
- (18) Which master criminal was played by Christopher Lee in a series of films in the 1960s?
Dr Fu Manchu.
- (19) William I of Orange was also known as William the... what: Great, Brute or Silent?
Silent.
- (20) According to the HBO website, name the first ten houses in 'Game of Thrones' alphabetically?
Arryn, Baratheon, Bolton, Frey, Greyjoy, Lannister, Martell, Stark, Targaryen & Tully.

(21) A winter visitor to the British Isles, the Hooper is a large species what type of water bird?

Swan.

(22) Europa League football matches are usually held on what weekday?

Thursday.

(23) PGCE and PDGE are qualifications in what profession?

Teaching.

(24) What number Apollo mission was the first to land on the moon?

11.

(25) The Earth rotates towards which compass point?

East.

(26) How old was Elvis Presley when he died in August 1977?

42.

(27) What name is given to the operation that sees commercial vehicles wishing to cross the channel, parked on the M20 motorway in Kent?

Operation Stack.

(28) The name of what company means 'little nest'?

Nestle.

(29) The Australian city of Canberra is part on an area abbreviated to 'ACT', the 'A' stands for Australia, what does the CT stand for?

Capital Territory.

(30) In horse racing, which of the five 'English Classics' is run latest in the year?

St Ledger. (September at Doncaster)

- (31) Who was the only US President to be married in the White House: Grover Cleveland, Benjamin Harrison or William McKinley?
Grover Cleveland.
- (32) In the 1970s TV series 'The Bionic Woman', Jamie Sommers tennis pro was involved in what sort of accident that meant received the bionic upgrade?
Sky-diving.
- (33) What soft drink once claimed to be 'the great national temperance beverage': Coca Cola, Pepsi or Dr Peppers?
Coca Cola.
- (34) In the Bible, Absalom was the half-brother of which king of Israel?
Solomon.
- (35) Which motorway is closest to Cardiff: M48, A48M or M49?
A48M.
- (36) In British history the 'Caroline Period' was in what century?
17th.
- (37) If placed on blank squares, which of these numbers, when played as a word, is worth the most in a game of Scrabble: seven, eight or nine?
Eight. (G-worth 2 points, V & H same value)
- (38) The German word 'Ritter' is equivalent to what rank of shivery in Britain?
Knight.
- (39) What was David Bowie's only hit single of the 1960s: Starman, Life on Mars or Space Oddity?
Space Oddity.
- (40) Name the last ten MPs at Westminster who have held the office of Home Secretary for the Conservative party, prior to the June 2022?
Priti Patel, Sajid Javid, Amber Rudd, Theresa May, Michael Howard, Kenneth Clarke, Kenneth Baker, David Waddington, Douglas Hurd & Leon Brittan.