

- (1) Which metal has the highest thermal conductivity: gold, silver or platinum?
Silver.
- (2) What is the name of the Mayor of New York's mansion?
Gracie Mansion.
- (3) Which singer featured on Calvin Harris's 2012 Number One single 'Sweet Nothing': Ellie Goulding, Rita Ora or Florence Welch?
Florence Welch.
- (4) What US state is 'the pine tree' state?
Maine.
- (5) Which industry is associated with the names Chatto, Windus and Jonathan Cape: books, fashion or music?
Books.
- (6) Richard the Lionheart was king of England in what century?
12th.
- (7) In Norse mythology, the Aesir and the Vanir are races of what: gods, goblins or giants?
Gods.
- (8) Who was the longest reigning King of Britain?
George III.
- (9) What did the forint replace as the standard monetary unit of Hungary in 1946: Pengő, Pongő or Pingu?
Pengő.
- (10) Who was the first army general to become President of the US?
George Washington.

(11) Which of these London landmarks use to be a police station: Marble Arch, Admiralty Arch or Wellington Arch?

Marble Arch.

(12) Bulgaria has a coastline on what sea?

Black Sea.

(13) Who was the TV witch in the children's show 'Willo The Wisp': Evil Edna, Awful Audrey or 'Orrible Olive?

Evil Edna.

(14) "He waits, that's what he does" are the first words spoken on a famous advert for what?

Guinness.

(15) The film 'The African Queen' was based on a book by which author: C.S. Forester, H.G. Wells or C.S. Lewis?

C.S. Forester.

(16) What political party's HQ is in Cowley Street, London?

Liberal Democrats.

(17) Which king was crowned on the battlefield: Edward I, George IV or Henry VII?

Henry VII. (22nd August 1485, Bosworth Field)

(18) 'Drungo' was a term first used in what country to describe an idiot?

Australia.

(19) Which of these animals is a snake: aye-aye, bandy-bandy or dik-dik?

Bandy-bandy.

QUESTION 20

Name the ten medical names for the following bones in the human body?
1.	Collarbone - Clavicle
2.	Tailbone - Coccyx
3.	Thigh bone - Femur
4.	Calf bone - Fibula
5.	Hammer - Malleus
6.	Lower jaw - Mandible
7.	Kneecap - Patella
8.	Shoulder blade - Scapula
9.	Breastbone - Sternum
10.	Shin bone - Tibia

(21) A blue globe appears on the flag of which country?

Brazil.

(22) What book by Arthur Hailey was made into a 1977 disaster movie?

Airport.

(23) The Osborne's reality TV show started on what channel?

MTV.

(24) Where in the body would you find the maxilla?

Head (upper jaw).

(25) The group A-Ha had how many members?

Three.

(26) 'PRC' is an abbreviation for which country?

China.

(27) In what decade of the 20th century was penicillin discovered?

1920s.

(28) In a standard game of Monopoly, what is the highest denomination banknote?

£500.

(29) What was the name of Michael Jackson's father?

Joe.

(30) What American state has the longest coastline?

Alaska.

- (31) Moonee Ponds is a suburb of what Commonwealth city: Manchester, Melbourne or Montreal?
Melbourne.
- (32) What US state calls its self 'The Land of Enchantment'?
New Mexico.
- (33) Since 2013, which singer has been a Swiss citizen: Céline Dion, Tina Turner or Shania Twain?
Tina Turner.
- (34) Where on the body would you wear a toque?
Head.
- (35) What was the original purpose of Play-Doh when it was invented in the 1930s: pliable filler, cleaner or cake decoration?
Cleaner. (It was first made to remove soot from wallpaper)
- (36) Which Beatles album was re-recorded by various artists in 2013 to celebrate its 50th anniversary?
Please Please Me.
- (37) 'Part of Your World' is a song from which Disney film: Pocahontas, Beauty and the Beast or The Little Mermaid?
The Little Mermaid.
- (38) In the 1970s, Didcot was moved from Berkshire to what neighbouring county?
Oxfordshire.
- (39) The Peninsular War took place during which conflicts: Napoleonic Wars, Opium Wars or One-Hundred-Years War?
Napoleonic Wars.

QUESTION 40

Identify the fruit from the following varieties?
1.	Bramley's Seedling - Apple
2.	Ben Lomond - Blackcurrant
3.	Morello - Cherry
4.	Chardonnay - Grape
5.	Star Ruby - Grapefruit
6.	Garey's Eureka - Lemon
7.	Cantaloupe Sweetheart - Melon
8.	Conference - Pear
9.	Victoria - Plum
10.	Elsanta - Strawberry