

- (1) In India, the monsoon rains peak in what season: winter, summer or autumn?
Summer.
- (2) In what month is Mickey Mouse's birthday?
November (18th).
- (3) Adding up the titles of Adele's first three studio albums gives you what number: 45, 55 or 65?
65.
- (4) Who succeeded Charles Kennedy as leader of the Liberal Democrats in 2006?
Menzies Campbell. (Lasted just 19 months)
- (5) Which motorway has no designated junction numbers: A48(M), M48 or M49?
M49. (A48(M) has J29a & M48 has J1 & J2)
- (6) What Stephen King novel was inspired by his stay at Stanley Hotel, Colorado?
The Shining.
- (7) Which of these Prime Ministers did NOT serve Queen Elizabeth II: Clement Attlee, Anthony Eden or Winston Churchill?
Clement Attlee.
- (8) What is the name of the animated fish whose parents are Coral and Marlin?
Nemo.
- (9) What is the currency of the Indian Ocean island of Réunion: Dollar, Euro or Pound?
Euro.
- (10) The snow leopard is native to which continent?
Asia.

- (11) Cologne Cathedral is the largest church in northern Europe built in what style: Romanesque, Gothic or Baroque?
Gothic.
- (12) In the name of the US celebrity website TMZ.com, what does TMZ stand for?
Thirty Mile Zone.
- (13) In 2016, according to Forbes magazine, what is the only non-technology company in the list of the world's five most valuable brands: McDonalds, Ford or Coca-Cola?
Coca-Cola.
- (14) In the Disney animated film 'Lady and the Tramp', what type of dog is Lady?
Spaniel.
- (15) What name was given to a huntsman's assistant who kept the hounds from straying: whipper-in, whipper out or whipper-off?
Whipper-in.
- (16) Which Canadian Province was named after a daughter of Queen Victoria who was married to the Governor General of Canada?
Alberta.
- (17) Who was the only posthumous Formula One World Drivers' Champion: Jim Clark, Jochen Rindt or Gilles Villeneuve?
Jochen Rindt.
- (18) The membranous structure called 'Bowman's Capsule' named after a 19th century British surgeon, exists in each of which pair of organs in the human body?
Kidneys.
- (19) Which of these naval battles took place the earliest: Actium, Lepanto or Trafalgar?
Actium.
- (20) Excluding the current PM, name the ten post-World War II UK prime ministers whose surname contains the letter 'A'? Only accept the name commonly known by as PM)
Theresa May, David Cameron, Tony Blair, John Major, Margaret Thatcher, James Callaghan, Edward Heath, Alec Douglas-Home, Harold Macmillan & Clement Attlee.

(21) What is the name of the Upper House of the US Congress?

The Senate.

(22) The name of the city of Dunedin on New Zealand's South Island comes from the Gallic name for which Scottish city?

Edinburgh.

(23) The Great Barrier Reef is off the coast of which Australian state?

Queensland.

(24) Amman is the capital of which Middle East country?

Jordan.

(25) In what TV game show was Naomi Campbell famously given as an answer to the question "Name a bird with a long neck"?

Family Fortunes.

(26) In mathematics, the symbol for infinity closely resembles which number?

Eight.

(27) What was the first London football team to win the Champions League?

Chelsea.

(28) What very famous song was originally called 'Good Morning to All'?

Happy Birthday.

(29) Which fashion model has a name that means 'faith' in Arabic?

Iman.

(30) Who allegedly said "If you want a speech, ask a man. If you want something done, ask a woman"?

Margaret Thatcher.

- (31) In Greek mythology, which of these did NOT visit the underworld: Orpheus, Odysseus or Oedipus?
Oedipus.
- (32) What is the name of the racing track on a former airfield between Northampton and Cambridge that calls itself the home of European drag racing?
Santa Pod.
- (33) Notorious 18th century Frenchwoman Charlotte Corday was most famous as what: pirate, highwaywoman or assassin?
Assassin.
- (34) What is the name of the leisure complex in Surrey that began hosting the World Darts Championship in 1986?
Lakeside (Country Club).
- (35) What is sodium hydroxide more commonly known as: caustic soda, bicarbonate of soda or cream soda?
Caustic soda.
- (36) At the Paralympics, the hammer is replaced with what?
Club.
- (37) The quagga is a recently-extinct member of which animal family: cat, bear or horse?
Horse.
- (38) Name the two countries that have hosted the World Cup tournament twice, but never won it as hosts?
Brazil (1950 & 2014) & Mexico (1970 & 1986).
- (39) What title was given to Colley Cibber in 1730: Prime Minister, Astronomer Royal or Poet Laureate?
Poet Laureate.
- (40) Name the ten smallest European Union member countries by area?
Malta, Luxembourg, Cyprus, Slovenia, Belgium, Netherlands, Denmark, Estonia, Slovakia & Croatia.