

(1) Which of these army officers outranks the others: Colonel, Major or Brigadier?

Brigadier.

(2) In English Premier League football, half-time lasts how long?

15 minutes.

(3) Where did Scotland declare its independence in 1320: Aberdeen, Ayr or Arbroath?

Arbroath.

(4) Which cartoon detective worked for the Finkerton Detective Agency?

Inch High Private Eye.

(5) On a standard Scrabble board, what colour are the double letter score squares: pink, green or light blue?

Light blue.

(6) According to their dictionary definition, 'Powder' and 'Prussian' are terms use to describe shades of which colour?

Blue.

(7) Which of these countries straddles the Tropic of Capricorn: Algeria, Botswana or Rwanda?

Botswana.

(8) Which famous Dame has all her outfits designed by her son Kenny?

Dame Edna Everage.

(9) Which character has been played on film by both Leslie Howard and Rex Harrison: Doctor Dolittle, Henry Higgins or Mark Anthony?

Henry Higgins.

(10) In the University Boat race, how many people are there in each competing boat?

Nine.

- (11) What term is used to describe a wine with a pleasing sense of acidity: crisp, oaky or fruity?
Crisp.
- (12) The language Judeo German is better known as what?
Yiddish.
- (13) Which part of the human body receives oxygen, despite not having a blood supply: brain, cornea or bones?
Cornea.
- (14) The Nagel Anomaloscope tests for what medical condition?
Colour blindness.
- (15) In 'The Godfather' films, what is the name of Don Corleone's daughter: Connie, Catarina or Claudia?
Connie.
- (16) Which crime writer gained her knowledge of poisons through working as a wartime pharmacy dispenser?
Agatha Christie.
- (17) The name of what food item comes from the Latin meaning 'to season with salt': soup, sausage or salad?
Salad.
- (18) What is the official language of Mauritania?
Arabic.
- (19) In the Book of Genesis, who wrestles with god: Cain, Noah or Jacob?
Jacob.
- (20) Name the ten football teams to play in the Premiere League, Championship or League One during the 2016/17 seasons to have the word United in their name?
Manchester United, West Ham United, Newcastle United, Leeds United, Rotherham United, Sheffield United, Scunthorpe United, Southend United, Oxford United & Peterborough United.

(21) Sing Sing prison is on the bank of what river?

The Hudson.

(22) In heraldry, the word 'or' is the name for which metal?

Gold.

(23) After she shared the 1903 Nobel Prize for Physics, Marie Curie won her second Nobel Prize in 1910 in what discipline?

Chemistry.

(24) What is the first name of 'Bob the Builder's' female business partner?

Wendy.

(25) Which special administrative region of China where gambling is legal, is nicknamed 'the Monte Carlo of the Orient'?

Macau.

(26) In which month of 1805 was the Battle of Trafalgar fought?

October (21st).

(27) Which dog has two recognised breeds, the Cardigan and Pembroke?

Corgi.

(28) What word describes a method of accessing the internet without a physical connection?

Wireless.

(29) What name derived from the Latin word for 'a thing proved' is given to the official document issued by a UK court stating that a will is genuine?

Probate.

(30) Runnymede is on the south bank of which river?

Thames.

(31) Eris is a goddess in what mythology: Roman, Greek or Norse?

Greek.

(32) The planet Jupiter is almost entirely made up of helium and which other gas?

Hydrogen.

(33) What do the words Dali Lama mean: ocean preacher, ocean teacher or ocean spirit?

Ocean Teacher.

(34) What name is given to an airtight container used to store cigars?

Humidor.

(35) In the Muppets, what was the first name of scientist character Dr Honeydew: Pipette, Test tube or Bunsen?

Bunsen.

(36) The Bedford Self-Propelled Pump used by the army is better known by what two-word name?

Green Goddess.

(37) The aircraft ejector-seat was invented by whom: James Martin, Gordon Ramsay or Nigel Slater?

James Martin.

(38) The name of which meat is derived from the Latin verb meaning 'to hunt'?

Venison.

(39) During the 2012 Olympics, Lords cricket ground was the venue for which sport: archery, shooting or fencing?

Archery.

(40) Name the first ten songs by Blur to reach number 10 or higher in the UK Singles chart?

There's No Other Way, Girls and Boys, Parklife, Country House, The Universal, Sterotypes, Charmless Man, Beetlebum, Song 2 & On Your Own.