

- (1) In Physics, the acronym TOE stands for 'theory of what...': elasticity, energy or everything?
Everything.
- (2) In 1984, after 21 consecutive wins the boxer Frank Bruno suffered his first defeat when he was knocked out by the US fighter James Smith. What was Smith's intimidating nickname?
Bonecrusher.
- (3) Which of these alphabets has the most letters: English, Gaelic or Welsh?
Welsh.
- (4) Which auction house has its origins in London in 1744 when a bookseller named Samuel Baker held his first sale of a private library?
Sotheby's
- (5) The 'Thunderbirds' character John Tracy was named after which famous man: John Glenn, John F. Kennedy or John Bull.
John Glenn.
- (6) Before becoming a professional ice skater, Christopher Dean worked as a what?
Policeman.
- (7) 'Shinkansen' is part of the permanent collection of what UK museum: British Museum, Imperial War Museum or National Railway Museum?
National Railway Museum (Bullet Train)
- (8) Which former party leader threatened to publically 'eat his hat' if the BBC's exit poll at the 2015 General Election turned out to be accurate?
Paddy Ashdown. (The following day he did, a chocolate one!)
- (9) In the wild, snow leopards live in which of these mountain ranges: Rockies, Himalayas or Andes?
Himalayas.
- (10) Which brigade in the British army which in 2015 celebrated 200 years of service to the British Crown, has a name derived from a Sanskrit word meaning 'cowherd'?
Gurkhas.

- (11) In the novel 'Don Quixote' what animal is Rocinante: ass horse or donkey
Horse.
- (12) Which fictional animated duo live at a house with the post code WG7 7FU?
Wallace and Gromit. (62 West Wallaby Street, Wigan, Lancashire)
- (13) Which Australian animals form 'love trains' during their mating season: echidnas, kangaroos or koalas?
Echidnas.
- (14) What word follows 'tufted' and 'ruddy' in the name of two species of what bird?
Duck.
- (15) What National Trail runs from Gloucestershire to Greenwich: Costswold Way, Ridgeway or Thames Path?
Thames Path.
- (16) What word is used to describe a volcano that is neither active nor extinct?
Dormant.
- (17) Who played football for England in the 1960s, '70s and '80s: Alan Ball, Mick Channon or Emlyn Hughes?
Emlyn Hughes.
- (18) The name of which 9th century Phoenician princess, who was denounced in the Bible for introducing the worship of the fertility god Baal into Israel, has become a disparaging term for a shameless or immoral woman?
Jezebel.
- (19) Which film director said "Drama is life with the dull bits cut out": Alfred Hitchcock, Steven Spielberg or Woody Allen?
Alfred Hitchcock.
- (20) Name the ten most common surnames in Wales based on the 2008 electoral register?
Jones, Williams, Davies, Evans, Thomas, Roberts, Lewis, Hughes, Morgan & Griffiths.

(21) Who is the youngest person to become leader of the Labour Party?

Ed Miliband.

(22) What Mark Wallburg film was about a 2010 oilrig disaster?

Deepwater Horizon.

(23) The King Edward potato is named after which King Edward?

Edward VII.

(24) What animals are the enemies of the 'Angry Birds'?

Pigs.

(25) Which famous wrestler also fought under the names Mr Universe, The Blonde Adonis and The Battling Guardsman?

Big Daddy (Shirley Crabtree).

(26) Which cartoon series features two delinquent teenage couch potatoes, who spend a lot of time on the sofa sniggering and watching pop videos?

Beavis and Butthead.

(27) Literally translating as "something for something" what Latin phrase is used in English to mean "you give me something I want and I'll give you what you want"?

Quid pro quo.

(28) Who has been played on screen by Benedict Cumberbatch and Eddie Redmayne?

Stephen Hawking.

(29) What decade of the 20th century saw the last Italian Pope?

1970s.

(30) The three men known as Blondie, Angel Eyes and Tuco are the characters referred to in which 1966 Western film?

The Good, The Bad and The Ugly.

- (31) Winning six times between 1967 and 2017, which NFL team has won the most Super Bowls: New England Patriots, Pittsburgh Steelers or Green Bay Packers?
Pittsburgh Steelers.
- (32) Lichtenstein is described as doubly land-locked as it is completely surrounded by which two other land-locked countries?
Switzerland and Austria.
- (33) Pounds, ounces and stones feature in what system of weights: Chinese, metric or Avoirdupois?
Avoirdupois. (System before Imperial)
- (34) In 1983, which singer married the Star Wars actress Carrie Fisher?
Paul Simon.
- (35) Which of these bands was the first to have a UK Number One hit single: Arctic Monkeys, Kings of Leon or Razorlight?
Arctic Monkeys.
- (36) What type of bird was the animated character 'Feathers McGraw'?
Penguin.
- (37) "What dreams may come when we have shuffled off this mortal coil" is a quote from which Shakespeare play: Much Ado about Nothing, Othello or Hamlet?
Hamlet.
- (38) In which century did the dodo become extinct?
17th.
- (39) Meryl Burbank is the wife of Jim Carrey's character in which film: The Cable Guy, Ace Ventura: Pet Detective or The Truman Show?
The Truman Show.
- (40) Name the ten largest stadiums in the UK by seating capacity?
Wembley Stadium, Twickenham Stadium, Old Trafford, Principality Stadium, Murrayfield Stadium, London Stadium, Tottenham Hotspur Stadium, Celtic Park, Emirates Stadium & Etihad Stadium.