

(1) The name of what Spanish resort means 'beautiful sea': Benidorm, Marbella or Torremolinos?

Marbella.

(2) In a series of animated films, who is the daughter of King Harold and Queen Lillian?

Princess Fiona.

(3) A cast of which Rodin sculpture stands outside the Houses of Parliament in Victoria Gardens: The Kiss, The Burghers of Calais or The Thinker?

The Burghers of Calais.

(4) Anoxaemia is deficiency in the amount of what in the blood?

Oxygen.

(5) Many mammals including humans have 'pinnae', where are they: ears, eyes or nose?

Ears.

(6) The Tour de France cycle race is run over how many stages?

21.

(7) In A.A. Milne's 'Winnie the Poo' what is Winnie the Poo's real name: Edwin, Edgar or Edward?

Edward Bear.

(8) 'Lust For Life' by Irvine Stone is a fictionalised biography of which painter?

Vincent Van Gogh.

(9) Which radio station launched the 'Ovaltineys Club' in 1935: Radio Luxembourg, Home Service or Empire Service?

Radio Luxembourg.

(10) In the song about Molly Malone, how is the city of Dublin described?

Fair.

- (11) The very first product to have a barcode was what: toothpaste, chewing gum or mints?
Chewing gum.
- (12) Which English motorway extends from the North Circular Road in London to the A14 north west of Cambridge?
M11.
- (13) Up to 2015, how many Tour de France winners have been born in the UK: none, one, or two?
None.
- (14) Lewis Leoneans is the son of Governess Anna in what stage and film musical?
The King and I.
- (15) Which American TV character never had his first name revealed on the show: Columbo, Kojak or Magnum?
Columbo.
- (16) The Canadian city of Montreal is in which province?
Quebec.
- (17) What is the real first name of the singer Emeli Sandé, who chose not to use it professionally because which singer shares the name: Adele, Alesha or Amy?
Adele.
- (18) In terms of distance, which of seven of the other major planets in our solar system approaches closest to Earth?
Venus.
- (19) Where on the body would you find the 'Plain of Mars': eyes, brain or palm?
Palm.
- (20) Name the first ten Disney animated feature films alphabetically with one-word titles? (Fantasia is not included as consists of several different sections)
Aladdin, Bambi, Bolt, Cinderella, Dinosaur, Dumbo, Frozen, Hercules, Moana & Mulan.

(21) What description for a person desiring radical change to the established order, comes from a movement of nationalist reformers in the Ottoman Empire in the early 20th century. Also the title of a Rod Stewart hit in 1981?

Young Turks.

(22) What New York village is centred around Washington Square?

Greenwich.

(23) Over what total distance in metres did Mo Farah race to win his two 2012 Olympic finals?

15,000m.

(24) In 2015, actress Carey Mulligan was married to a member of what band?

Mumford and Sons.

(25) In 2015, what canal gained a second shipping channel, allowing two-way traffic?

Suez.

(26) Of what Italian city did Charles Dickens say "opium couldn't build such a place"?

Venice.

(27) Betty Boothroyd resigned as Speaker of the House of Commons under which Prime Minister?

Tony Blair.

(28) In what decade were compulsory driving tests introduced in the UK?

1930s (1935).

(29) In basketball, what is the maximum number of points that can be awarded for a single goal?

Three.

(30) The English town of 'Battle' is named after which famous battle?

Hastings.

- (31) In the 'Oxford English Dictionary' which letter is at the beginning of the fewest words: Q, X or Z?
X.
- (32) What is removed from the body in a cholecystectomy?
Gallbladder.
- (33) Which of these girl bands had an all-UK line-up: All Saints, Girls Aloud or B*Witched?
Girls Aloud. (One from Northern Ireland)
- (34) Who was the last monarch to hold the title Emperor of India?
George VI.
- (35) What animal did the Montgolfier brothers send up in a balloon in 1783: dog, pig or a sheep?
Sheep.
- (36) David Lloyd George and the Man Utd. footballer Billy Meredith were both given what nickname?
Welsh Wizard.
- (37) In 2005, who became the first actress since Jodie Foster to win two Best Actress Oscars: Meryl Streep, Nicole Kidman or Hilary Swank?
Hilary Swank.
- (38) Between 1953 and 1960, John F. Kennedy was US senator for which state?
Massachusetts.
- (39) Where in France would you find a 'prix fixe': on a menu, Le Mans or a pharmacy
Menu. (Fixed priced)
- (40) Name the ten South American mainland countries containing the letter 'A'?
Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, Guyana, Paraguay, Suriname, Uruguay & Venezuela.