

(1) Which aftershave was advertised in the 1980s with the tagline 'Unleash the Sprit': Denim, Hai Karate or Blue Stratos?

Blue Stratos.

(2) St Margaret's Church is in the grounds of what London abbey?

Westminster Abbey.

(3) Alexandra of Denmark was the mother of which king: Henry V, Edward V or George V?

George V.

(4) Wiltshire Boulevard is one of the main roads in which US city?

Los Angeles.

(5) In the human body, synapses can be found between two of what type of cells: nerve cells, red blood cells or epithelial cells?

Nerve cells.

(6) Which is the smaller of the two land-locked countries in South America?

Paraguay.

(7) How many of the planets in the solar system have no known moons: 2, 3 or 4?

Two. Venus & Mercury

(8) What shade of red gets its name from the Latin for 'little worm'?

Vermilion.

(9) What had Hitler intended to renamed Berlin had he won the war: Germaland, Germania or Germango?

Germania.

(10) A curricle is a horse drawn carriage with how many wheels?

Two.

- (11) In which play did Shakespeare first use the word 'British': Henry V, Richard III or King Lear?
King Lear.
- (12) A person born on the last day of the First World War, would have been how old on the first day of the Second World War?
20. (11th Nov 1918 - 3rd Sept 1939)
- (13) Which country's rugby union team use to perform a war dance called the 'Thinbe' before test matches: Samoa, Fiji or Tonga?
Fiji.
- (14) The name of which African capital city derives from the Greek for 'three cities'?
Tripoli.
- (15) In which seaside town would you find the 'Comedy Carpet' featuring jokes from over 1,000 comedians: Blackpool, Morecombe or Scarborough?
Blackpool.
- (16) In the 1991 film, what are the surnames of 'Thelma and Louise'?
Dickinson and Sawyer.
- (17) In which of these years did the English NOT defeat the French in battle: 1415, 1615 or 1815?
1615.
- (18) Which 20th century US President had the middle name Earl?
Jimmy Carter.
- (19) In 'Breakfast at Tiffany's', what is Holly Golightly's full first name: Hollberry, Holiday or Holiness?
Holiday.
- (20) Name the last ten different winners of the League Managers Association football 'Manager of the Year', up to the end of the 2020/21 season?
Pep Guardiola, Jurgen Klopp, Chris Wilder, Antonio Conte, Claudio Ranieri, Eddie Howe, Brendan Rodgers, Alex Ferguson, Alan Pardew & Roy Hodgson.

- (21) First aired in 1994, which sitcom was created by Marty Kauffman and David Crane?
- Friends.
- (22) Gustatory perception is another name of which of the senses?
- Taste.
- (23) Milford Junction is a railway station in what famous film?
- Brief Encounter.
- (24) Which Bond Villain had the first name Julius?
- Dr No.
- (25) In TV's Star Trek, what colour was Spock's blood?
- Green.
- (26) Which of the Marx's Brothers often played the piano in their films?
- Chico.
- (27) Cuba has won most of its Olympic gold medals in what sport?
- Boxing.
- (28) Which Canadian province has a name that is Latin for 'New Scotland'?
- Nova Scotia.
- (29) Hollands is an old fashioned term for which alcoholic drink?
- Gin. (Hollands Jenever)
- (30) Specifically, which famous London address has the post code SW1A 2AA?
- 10 Downing Street.

- (31) Isaac Newton's dog was named after which gemstone: Jade, Diamond or Quartz?
Diamond.
- (32) The name of what other US state is contained in the name of Arkansas?
Kansas.
- (33) In the Old Testament, what was the first of the 'ten plagues of Egypt': locus, frogs or a blood Nile?
Water of Egypt where the Nile turned to blood.
- (34) Hyde Park's 'Rotten Row' is a route reserved for type of transport?
Horses.
- (35) Which poet provided the middle name of the Hollywood film star James Dean, Byron, Shelly or Keats?
Byron.
- (36) Which Beatles song had the working title 'Scrambled Eggs'?
Yesterday.
- (37) Including spaces and punctuation marks, what is the maximum number of letters that may be permitted in the name of a British racehorse: 18, 24 or 30?
18.
- (38) Which town in Surrey, that is the site of the oldest purpose built mosque in the UK and was the home of H.G. Wells and the birthplace musician Paul Weller, whose song 'A Town Called Malice' was about growing up there?
Woking.
- (39) Which building said to be the largest public building constructed in the UK in the 20th century, was once described by Prince Charles as "Looking like an academy for secret policemen": MI5 building, British Library or National Theatre?
British Library.
- (40) Name the ten subjects studied by Harry Potter at Hogwarts?
Astronomy, Care of Magical Creatures, Charms, Defense Against the Dark Arts, Divination, Flying, Herbology, History of Magic, Potions & Transfiguration.