

(1) What became the USA's first ever UNESCO World Heritage City in 2015: Boston, New Orleans or Philadelphia?

Philadelphia.

(2) The sand of what desert gives the Yellow Sea its colour?

Gobi.

(3) Which of these places was given the title 'Regis' most recently: Bognor, Houghton or Lyme?

Bognor. (George V)

(4) What relative of the giraffe has stripes similar to a zebra's?

Okapi.

(5) Which of these is the name of a theatre in Los Angeles: The Babylonian, The Greek or The Norse?

The Greek.

(6) Davey Crockett died in what modern-day US state?

Texas.

(7) Which shape has interior angles adding up to 900 degrees: heptagon, octagon or nonagon?

Heptagon.

(8) How many daughters did Queen Victoria have?

Five.

(9) Which artist lived his entire life in the Dutch city of Delft: Van Gogh, Rembrandt or Vermeer?

Vermeer.

(10) What is a female ogre called?

Ogress.

- (11) Which king Louis of France was known as 'The Well Beloved': Louis XIV, Louis XV or Louis XVI?
- Louis XV.
- (12) In what country was bandleader James Last born?
- Germany.
- (13) What was the first British city to have postcodes added to its addresses, heralding a national system: Leeds, Southampton or Norwich?
- Norwich.
- (14) Chris Chittell has played which 'Emmerdale' character since 1986 to 2023?
- Eric Pollard.
- (15) The Maillard reaction is a natural chemical process that does what to food when heated: turns it brown, makes it smell or kills bacteria?
- Turns it brown.
- (16) Balmoral is in which National Park?
- Cairngorms.
- (17) Which of these polyhedral has the most faces: icosahedron, dodecahedron or tetrahedron?
- Icosahedron.
- (18) What was the name of Popeye's adopted son?
- Sweet Pea.
- (19) What is the Icelandic for 'goodbye': god god, bless bless or you you?
- Bless bless.
- (20) Name the ten overseas countries with the most popular type of cuisines?
- Italy, China, India, Spain, Mexico, Thailand, Greece, United States, France & Turkey.

(21) In what decade did The Clash release 'Rock the Casabah'?

80s.

(22) Who presented Zara Phillips with her silver medal at the London Olympics?

Princess Anne.

(23) What year followed 21 BC?

20 BC.

(24) The B52 bomber has how many engines?

Eight.

(25) What is the road number of Wales's longest road, wholly in Wales?

A470.

(26) In the 1950s who coined the word 'Muppet'?

Jim Henson.

(27) The main committee of Tory backbench MP's is named after what year?

1922 Committee.

(28) An English Royal House and a Lancashire city share what name?

Lancaster.

(29) What word can mean a showy feather or a stream of smoke from a chimney?

Plume.

(30) What is above the three lions on the England cricket team badge?

A crown.

- (31) According to the traditional song, who "lived on the River Dee": The Jolly Miller, The Cheery Miner or The Happy Camper?
The Jolly Miller.
- (32) What brand of biscuit has a name that means 'to socialise'?
Hobnob.
- (33) Who was Edward VII's first Prime Minister: Asquith, Gladstone or Salisbury?
Salisbury.
- (34) What brand makes the 'Green Flash' tennis shoe?
Dunlop.
- (35) In a 2005 poll by the France 2 TV channel, who did viewers vote as 'The Greatest Frenchman of all Time': Charles de Gaulle, Napoleon Bonaparte or Jacques Cousteau?
Charles de Gaulle.
- (36) In what two years did Princess Anne marry?
1973 and 1992.
- (37) What country is the setting of Shakespeare's longest play: Egypt, Italy or Denmark?
Denmark.
- (38) What so called bone is actually the ulna nerve?
Funny bone.
- (39) Which of these major US cities does NOT stand on the Mississippi: St. Louis, St. Petersburg or Saint Paul?
St. Petersburg.
- (40) Name the last ten US Presidents with a pair of double letters in their first name or surname or both?
Bill Clinton, Jimmy Carter, John F. Kennedy, Harry S. Truman, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Herbert Hoover, Calvin Coolidge, Warren G. Harding, Woodrow Wilson & William Howard Taft.