

- (1) In the church, 'deliverance minister' is a modern term for what: an exorcist, a confessor or a deacon?
An exorcist.
- (2) In the sitcom 'Last of the Summer Wine' what was Walter Dewhurst's nickname?
Foggy.
- (3) Limoges porcelain was named after what: a person, a place or an art style?
A place.
- (4) Which Bond film was the first to feature a duet as its theme song?
Quantum of Solace.
- (5) Members of the US Senate must be at least what age: 21, 30 or 35?
30.
- (6) The Pribilof Islands came into US possession after the purchase of what state?
Alaska.
- (7) The assault on the Moncada Barracks in 1953 was the first action of what country's revolution: Cuba, Hungary or Algeria?
Cuba.
- (8) In which decade did Persia and Siam officially change their names to Iran and Thailand?
1930s. (1935 & 39)
- (9) Who lost to Steve Davis 18-3 in the final of the 1989 World Snooker Championship, the largest loss in a Crucible final: Stephen Hendry, Jimmy White or John Parrott?
John Parrott.
- (10) In the American TV channel HBO, what do these initials stand for?
Home Box Office.

- (11) The name of the Roman deity Sylvanus means he that he was the god of what: woods, money or cats?
Woods.
- (12) The film 'The Sixth Sense' was set in what US city?
Philadelphia.
- (13) In February 2008, part of which famous London market was destroyed by fire: Camden Market, Covent Garden or Smithfields?
Camden Market.
- (14) Who played the Bond villain 'Renard' in 'The World is not Enough'?
Robert Carlyle.
- (15) In the play 'Hamlet', Fortinbras is the Prince of which country: France, Norway or Scotland?
Norway.
- (16) In 2010, South Sudan chose what as its official language?
English.
- (17) How old was Catherine, Duchess of Cambridge on her wedding day: 25, 27 or 29?
29.
- (18) What breed of dog was known in China as the 'Imperial Lion Dog'?
Pekingese.
- (19) What name is given to a baby oyster: spat, spit or spot?
Spat.
- (20) Name the ten UK cities that have a one-word name that contains the letter 'P'?
Liverpool, Newport, Perth, Peterborough, Plymouth, Portsmouth, Preston, Ripon, Southampton & Wolverhampton.

(21) Venerdì is the Italian for what day of the week?

Friday.

(22) In what century did the UK last have a king William?

19th century.

(23) In what country is the city of Shiraz?

Iran.

(24) How much money does each player start a game of standard UK Monopoly with?

£1,500.

(25) In the road sign for a motorway services area, what two eating utensils are crossed?

Spoon and a fork.

(26) 'In the City' and 'Let Loose' were spin-offs from which TV soap?

Hollyoaks.

(27) What name for the flowers on willow trees comes from the Dutch for 'kitten'?

Catkins.

(28) The logo of which fragrance has depicted the ships Grand Turk and Recovery?

Old Spice.

(29) Who became leader of the Conservative Party in 2003?

Michael Howard.

(30) Old Number 7 is a well-known variety of what whisky brand?

Jack Daniels

- (31) At Sandhurst, the best army officer cadet on each course receives the 'Sword of...' what: Destiny, Credit or Honour?
Honour.
- (32) The two bands on the flag of the Vatican City flag are yellow and what other colour?
White.
- (33) In Italy what food item is called 'pangrattato': breadcrumbs, bread pudding or bread sauce?
Breadcrumbs.
- (34) A memorial tablet for Jane Austen is in what area of Westminster Abbey?
Poet's Corner.
- (35) In 2016, what golf club lost its right to hold the Open after voting to continue its ban on women members: Turnberry, Carnoustie or Muirfield?
Muirfield.
- (36) The company Cutex makes products for what part of the body?
Nails.
- (37) Which mythological woman had a name meaning 'ruler of men': Andromeda, Jocasta or Pandora?
Andromeda.
- (38) In what film does Jack Nicholson say "Truth, you can't handle the truth"?
A Few Good Men.
- (39) Which of these is NOT an Enid Blyton character: Dame Slap, Mr Twiddle or Sandy Cheeks?
Sandy Cheeks.
- (40) Name the ten titles of Arnold Schwarzenegger films made in the 1990s where he played a named character? (No films where he played a version on himself)
Total Recall, Kindergarten Cop, Terminator 2: Judgment Day, Last Action Hero, True Lies, Junior, Eraser, Jingle All The Way, Batman & Robin & End of Days.