

(1) Unlike most teams in the NFL, the Pittsburgh Steelers, New York Giants and Chicago Bears don't have what: head coach, cheerleaders or home stadium?

Cheerleaders.

(2) How many men were there in the original line-up of 'S Club Seven'?

Three.

(3) Which European country sent troops to support the Americans during their War of Independence: France, Russia or Spain?

France.

(4) The Coachella Valley is in what US state?

California.

(5) Former pupils of what public school won the FA Cup twice: Eton, Harrow or Rugby?

Eton.

(6) What cinema advertising company's theme music is called 'Asteroid'?

Pearl & Dean.

(7) What make of car shares its name with the Slavic goddess of love and beauty: Skoda, Lada or Trebant?

Lada.

(8) In 2016, which Argentine footballer joined Gary Lineker in a Walkers crisp advert?

Lionel Messi.

(9) In 2015, Charlotte Edwards captained the England women's team for the 200th time in what sport: cricket, football or hockey?

Cricket.

(10) In 2016, male model David Gandy designed a range of clothes for which supermarket chain?

Marks & Spencer.

- (11) Needlecord is a finely-ribbed variety of what fabric: corduroy, linen or tweed?
Corduroy.
- (12) Which writer reputedly coined the phrase "one fell swoop"?
William Shakespeare.
- (13) What is the bartender's implement used for crushing, blending and mixing ingredients for a drink called: a muddler, a jumbler or a tangler?
A muddler.
- (14) The cocktail known as a Martini is traditionally garnished with an olive on a cocktail stick, whereas a Gibson has an identical stick but with what alternative garnish?
Pickled onion.
- (15) Which of these creatures would be studied by a lepidopterist: black mamba, small tortoiseshell or emperor tamarin?
Small tortoiseshell.
- (16) The ICBL is the international campaign to ban what?
Landmines.
- (17) Who married Henry VIII in July 1540: Catherine of Aragon, Catherine Parr or Catherine Howard?
Catherine Howard.
- (18) What Grand Slam tennis tournament is played on a surface called 'plexicusion'?
Australian Open.
- (19) The MacDonald's jingle 'Just loving it' is from a song by which singer: Justin Timberlake, Britney Spears or Eminem?
Justin Timberlake.
- (20) Name the ten EU member states whose national flags have only two main colours? (No colours in crests or insignia, coats of arms or emblems)
Austria, Denmark, Finland, Greece, Latvia, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Spain & Sweden.

- (21) Which member of the royal family appeared on the front cover of the July 2016 issue of the gay magazine 'Attitude'?
- Prince William.
- (22) What five-letter name is shared by the currencies of Iraq, Jordan and Serbia?
- Dinar.
- (23) The name 'Lundy' as in the island, comes from a Norse word for what bird?
- Puffin.
- (24) What type of creature is a yellow tailed jack?
- Fish.
- (25) How many birds make up a brace of grouse?
- Two.
- (26) Which chain of burger restaurants was launched in Arlington, Virginia in 1986 by the Murrell family including Jerry and his four sons, and opened its first outlet in the UK in 2013?
- Five Guys.
- (27) What needlecraft is known as 'trico' in French?
- Knitting.
- (28) 'Can Queen Victoria eat cold apple pie' is a mnemonic to remember the seven historic hills of which European city?
- Rome. (Capitoline, Quirinal, Viminal, Esquiline, Caelian, Aventine & Palatine)
- (29) Leonardo de Vinci became court painter in which country in 1516?
- France.
- (30) What two-word term is given to early morning bird song?
- Dawn chorus.

- (31) In Greece, when did the Euro replace the drachma: 1999, 2000 or 2002?
2002.
- (32) In which African country does the White Nile meet the Blue Nile?
Sudan.
- (33) Which of these Welshmen was born in Wales: Joe Calzaghe, David Lloyd George or Anthony Hopkins?
Anthony Hopkins.
- (34) In what decade was the advertising slogan "Beans mean Heinz" first used?
1960s.
- (35) In terms of geographic area, what is the smallest constituency of the UK parliament at the 2015 general election: East Surrey, Glasgow South or Islington North?
Islington North.
- (36) Which US athlete was world champion for the men's 100m in 1983, 1987 and 1991?
Carl Lewis.
- (37) Turner used what medium for his painting 'The Fighting Temeraire': oil, watercolour or charcoal?
Oil.
- (38) What was the swimmer Sharon Davis's name when she was a gladiator in TV's 'Gladiators'?
Amazon.
- (39) Which actor played Albert, the husband of Whoopi Goldberg's character, in the film 'The Color Purple': Danny Glover, Morgan Freeman or LL Cool J?
Danny Glover.
- (40) As of today on their website, name the ten frozen vegetables sold separately at Iceland as part of their own brand range? (There are no potato products or rice included; oca & butternut squash are technically a fruit, so they're out)
Button sprouts, broccoli, carrot, cauliflower, green bean, onion, peas, pepper, spinach & sweetcorn.