

- (1) What did Canada originally adopt as its currency in 1841: Pound, Rouble or dollar?
Pound.
- (2) Which of the Gospel writers is represented by a winged ox?
Luke.
- (3) In the 1960s, which singer led The Manish Boys: Marc Bolan, Elton John or David Bowie?
David Bowie.
- (4) In 2016, the Premiere League set what maximum ticket price for away games?
£30.
- (5) In Enid Blyton's 'Famous Five' stories, what is the occupation of Uncle Quentin: butcher, scientist or train driver?
Scientist.
- (6) Ashramas are the four stages of life in which religion?
Hinduism.
- (7) Which full member of cricket's ICC is NOT a member of the Commonwealth: Bangladesh, South Africa or Zimbabwe?
Zimbabwe.
- (8) In Greek Mythology Phaedra was the daughter of which King of Crete?
Minos.
- (9) What is the nickname for inhabitants of Nova Scotia in Canada: Bluenoses, Rednoses or Brownnoses?
Bluenoses.
- (10) What name is given the dissolved substance in a solution?
Solute.

- (11) Who was the first woman to appear on a United States coin: Eleanor Roosevelt, Helen Keller or Susan B. Anthony?
Susan B. Anthony.
- (12) How is killer Jamie Gumm known in the film 'Silence of the Lambs'?
Buffalo Bill.
- (13) What was the stage name of Michael Jackson's older brother Sigmund: Jackie Jackson, Jimmy Jackson or Joey Jackson?
Jackie Jackson.
- (14) What brewing company own Amstel Lager?
Heineken.
- (15) In what year did the Queen first officially visit a pub: 1978, 1988 or 1998?
1998.
- (16) Other than Texas, what is the only US state to contain the letter 'x'?
New Mexico.
- (17) The title of what novel comes from the book of Isaiah, Chapter 21, Verse 6: Go Set a Watchman, Evil Under the Sun or The Children of Men?
Go Set a Watchman.
- (18) Talbot Rothwell wrote several scripts for which British film comedy series?
Carry On films.
- (19) Which of these UK girl bands has had the most UK Number One singles: Atomic Kitten, Girls Aloud or Sugababes?
Sugababes.
- (20) Name the first ten different names of Marvel characters to have appeared in the full titles of films with the Marvel Cinematic Universe, names as they appeared in the film title?
Iron Man, The Incredible Hulk, Thor, Captain America, The Winter Soldier, Ultron, Ant-Man, Doctor Strange, Spider-Man & Black Panther.

- (21) The Welsh language names for the towns of Brecon, Milford Haven and Cardigan all begin with what four-letter prefix meaning estuary or mouth of the river?
Aber.
- (22) Who was elected governor of California in 1966?
Ronald Regan.
- (23) What London cathedral has the postcode EC4 M8AD?
St Pauls.
- (24) What is the smallest US state by area?
Rhode Island.
- (25) The words 'DuPont' and 'luxury' combine to give the name of what well-known product?
Dulux.
- (26) In 2014, the EU set a 1600-watt limit on what household item?
Vacuum cleaners.
- (27) The Sands was a famous hotel in what US city?
Las Vegas.
- (28) An 'Eggs Royal' is made with what fish?
Salmon.
- (29) In Scotland, what type of structure is the Brigadoon?
Bridge.
- (30) What was the name of Mick Jagger's first wife?
Bianca.

- (31) In the novel by Dumas, 'The Man in the Iron Mask' is reputed to be what relation to King Louis XIV: father, brother or son?
Brother.
- (32) What three-letter abbreviation was the name of a fictional agency in the 'Mission Impossible' films and a real life organisation created in 1945 to secure global financial stability?
IMF. (Impossible Mission Force & International Monetary Fund)
- (33) For how long was Umberto II King of Italy: 5 weeks, 5 months or 5 years?
5 weeks.
- (34) Which motor race did British driver Derek Bell win five-times?
Le Mans.
- (35) Which fictional town has an apparent population of under 30 people, about a quarter of whom are firemen: Greendale, Pontypandy or Chigley?
Pontypandy.
- (36) Which US state capital city is overlooked by an extinct volcanic crater called 'Diamond Head'?
Honolulu.
- (37) Hairy nuts disco, slimy earthtongue and shaggy bracket are types of what: fruit, fictional sweets or fungi?
Fungi.
- (38) Which Nobel gas, with the atomic number 18, has a name derived from a Greek word for 'lazy' or 'idle' because of its chemical inertness?
Argon.
- (39) What type of circus performer was 'Grock': clown, lion tamer or trapeze artist?
Clown.
- (40) In 2019, name the first ten European Union member capital cities alphabetically with names shorter than the country it is capital of?
Amsterdam, Berlin, Dublin, Lisbon, London, Paris, Prague, Riga, Rome & Sofia.