

(1) What type of cooking style is 'braising': frying, stewing or grilling?

Stewing.

(2) Which Briton beat Renata Tomanova to win her only Grand Slam tennis title?

Sue Barker.

(3) Which of these works was NOT written in prison: Gulliver's Travels, The Pilgrim's Progress or Mein Kampf?

Gulliver's Travels.

(4) In 1947, ten regiments of what soldiers were split between India and Great Britain?

Ghurkhas.

(5) Josh Gad provided the voice of which character in the animated film 'Frozen': Hans, Kristoff or Olaf?

Olaf.

(6) The three daughters of what Shakespeare title character all die?

King Lear.

(7) The biblical prophet Daniel foretold the fall of what empire: Babylonian, Persian or Egyptian?

Babylonian.

(8) "The Team Works" is the motto of which of the armed forces?

Navy.

(9) Which of these is a street in London: Poultry, Cattle or Swine?

Poultry.

(10) A skins game is a format most associated with which sport?

Golf.

- (11) Standing at around 6'4", who was the tallest King of England: Edward IV, George V or Henry VI?
- Edward IV.
- (12) Old Jamaica is a brand of what non-alcoholic drink?
- Ginger beer.
- (13) In 'The Empire Strikes Back', from whom does Hans Solo say he won the Millennium Falcon: Lando Calrissian, Jar Jar Binks or Jabba the Hutt?
- Lando Calrissian.
- (14) Jet Rink was the final character of which fifties actor?
- James Dean.
- (15) A 'lickspittle' is what kind of person: sycophantic, intrepid or forgetful?
- Sycophantic.
- (16) Which of Enid Blyton's 'Famous Five' comes last alphabetically?
- Timmy the dog.
- (17) Which of these cities is the capital of an American state beginning with the word 'New': Richmond, Sacramento or Trenton?
- Trenton. (New Jersey)
- (18) Who was the first American to record an official James Bond theme?
- Nancy Sinatra.
- (19) The name 'Apennines' is used for mountain ranges in Italy and which other location: Uranus, the Moon or Mars?
- The Moon.
- (20) Name the ten EU member countries with a seven-letter name? (Czechia is not included as widely referred to as Czech Republic)
- Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Hungary, Ireland & Romania.

(21) The letter 'S' appears four times in Mississippi and what other US state?

Massachusetts.

(22) Which English city is first alphabetically?

Bath.

(23) What gas is one number higher than hydrogen on the periodic table?

Helium.

(24) What South Dakota mountain was named after a New York lawyer in 1885?

Rushmore.

(25) Baozi is a type of steamed bun in the cuisine of which country?

China.

(26) T-Swizzle is a media nickname for which singer?

Taylor Swift.

(27) Animals that 'aestivate' sleep through what season?

Summer.

(28) Paprika is made from dried what?

Peppers or chillies.

(29) In Harry Potter, the language 'Parseltongue' is used to speak to which creatures?

Snakes.

(30) In what month was the Queen's official birthday celebrated?

June.

- (31) Who is the Head of the Judiciary in England and Wales: Lord Chief Justice, Lord Chamberlin or Lord Chancellor?
Lord Chief Justice.
- (32) "Better to light a candle than curse the darkness" is the motto of which human rights charity?
Amnesty International.
- (33) Who was both the 22nd and 24th First lady of the USA: Frances Cleveland, Mary Todd Lincoln or Eleanor Roosevelt?
Frances Cleveland.
- (34) Ironbridge Gorge is located in which county?
Shropshire.
- (35) National Parks make up almost 20% of the land area of what country of the UK: Northern Ireland, Wales or Scotland?
Wales.
- (36) The first party political broadcasts were in which decade?
1950s.
- (37) Played on film by Rip Torn, who was in charge of the 'Men in Black': Bee, Pee or Zed?
Zed.
- (38) The animated character Feathers McGraw is a penguin that disguises itself as what other bird?
Chicken.
- (39) In which of these sports can a player be offside: netball, volleyball or hockey?
Netball.
- (40) Name the ten most-watched TV game shows of 2018 in the UK?
Who Wants to be a Millionaire, The Chase, Britain's Brightest Family, Pointless, Who Dares Wins, Tipping Point, University Challenge, Only Connect, Mastermind & Tenable.