

(1) Which of these countries does NOT have an Atlantic coastline: Ghana, Mali or Namibia?

Mali.

(2) The Elgin Marbles were mainly a part of Athenian building?

The Parthenon.

(3) Which of these comics was a jockey before entering show businesses: Norman Wisdom, Charlie Chaplin or George Formby?

George Formby.

(4) The name of what vegetable stew comes from the French for 'stir-up'?

Ratatouille.

(5) Which NFL team's cheerleaders are called 'The Flight Crew': New York Jets, Oakland Raiders or Pittsburgh Steelers?

New York Jets.

(6) Mrs Beaton lived in which century?

19th.

(7) What was the medical speciality of George Clooney's character Dr. Doug Ross in 'E.R.': cardiology, oncology or paediatrics?

Paediatrics.

(8) Temple Bar is a nightlife area in what European capital?

Dublin.

(9) Which of these deities was known by the same name in both Greek and Roman mythology: Apollo, Artemis or Athena?

Apollo.

(10) In literature, whose parents died at Godric's Hollow 31st October 1981?

Harry Potter.

(11) What is kept in a scabbard: sword, money or cigars?

Sword.

(12) £1,000 is the lowest red value in what TV game show?

Deal or No Deal.

(13) Botafogo is a step in what dance: cha-cha-cha, samba or tango?

Samba.

(14) The Fischer-Saller Scale is used to determine the colour of what part of the body?

Hair.

(15) The word 'lipid' comes from the Greek for what: carbohydrate, protein or fat?

Fat.

(16) The brands Ariel, Lenor and Bold are owned by what multi-national company?

Proctor & Gamble.

(17) The letters 'NOM' appear on authentic bottles of which spirit: Vodka, Tequila or Sambuca?

Tequila.

(18) Deer's Tongue is a variety of what salad vegetable?

Lettuce.

(19) 'The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel' and its 2015 sequel are set in which Indian city: Mumbai, Amritsar or Jaipur?

Jaipur.

(20) Alphabetically, name the first ten countries with only five letters in their name?

Benin, Chile, China, Congo, Egypt, Gabon, Ghana, Haiti, India & Italy.

(21) Which US President was the first to be born on an island?

Barak Obama.

(22) How many squares are there on a snakes and ladders board?

100.

(23) Scamper is the dog in what series of Enid Blyton novels?

Secret Seven.

(24) What country has an eleven-pointed leaf on its flag?

Canada.

(25) Which British coin features the quote "Am I not a man and a brother"?

£2.

(26) Martin Luther King is buried in what US city?

Atlanta.

(27) In what TV sitcom did Squadron Leader Clive Dempster replace Professor Jeffrey Fairbrother?

Hi-de-Hi!

(28) 'Just One More Thing' was a 2006 autobiography by which actor?

Peter Falk. (Columbo)

(29) In the Mr Men books what colour is Mr Tickle?

Orange.

(30) Aspro and Astro are bidding conventions in what card game?

Bridge.

(31) Andy Cole set the premier league record for goals scored in a season with 34 while playing for what team: Newcastle United, Manchester United or Portsmouth?

Newcastle United.

(32) What colour is in the name of the fairy in the Disney film Pinocchio?

Blue.

(33) Excluding royal knights, the Order of the Garter is limited to how many knights: 4, 12 or 24?

24.

(34) The wavy blue bars on the flag of British Columbia's flag represent which ocean?

Pacific.

(35) Which Scottish loch contains more water than all the lakes in England and Wales combined: Loch Tay, Loch Ness or Loch Lomond?

Loch Ness.

(36) Other than the UK, how many European countries are members of the Commonwealth?

Two.

(37) Diaphoresis is another name for what: sweating, laughing or crying?

Sweating.

(38) What colour are the cricket balls used in one day internationals?

White.

(39) What is the most common surname in Ireland: Kelly, O'Brien or Murphy?

Murphy.

(40) Name the last ten chemical elements alphabetically that do NOT end with the letter 'M'

Zinc, xenon, tungsten, tin, tennessine, sulfur, silver, silicon, radon & phosphorus.